Study Club Elects Officers for Year

By MARGARET SCOTT

Walter Gerard, small son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Gerard, is ill at his home with flu.

Mrs. Foos arrived Saturday to make her home here during the school year.

Juanita Padberg received a cut on the head when she fell from the back porch steps at her home Monday. She was taken to a Heppner physician who dressed the wound. Kenneth Jackson spent the week end at home from his studies in Portland.

Forest Miller was a guest at the A. M. Edwards home Sunday.

Local hunters who have bagged a deer are Albert Edwards, Eldon Padberg and Duane Johnson.

Claud Hill of Redmond joined his family here this week to visit friends and relatives. The family returned home Saturday.

The Three Link club held a meeting Tuesday evening to discuss plans for the Pioneers' Reunion.

A large crowd attended the P. T. A. meeting Wednesday evening. Mrs. Lillian Turner told of her visit in Alaska and community singing was enjoyed. Refreshments of cookies, punch and coffee were served.

The local Rebekah lodge entertained the Rebekah convention Saturday.

There will be a social meeting for the community at the grange hall in the evening of Saturday, Sept. 28.

The study club met Monday evening to elect officers and outline their program for the coming year. Officers elected were president, Mrs. Foos; vice-president, Helen Breshers; secretary-treasurer, Mary Edwards. The club will study current events until after election, then will study conditions in the various foreign countries. The next meeting will be October 8 at the Gleason home.

Art Hunt was ill at his home this week.

Lola Padberg spent Thursday at the Harvey Bauman home.

Estelle Ledbetter was a guest of Eileen Scott Wednesday night.

Deanna Steagall, small daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Steagall, who was severely injured when she fell from the back seat of the car while coming from Heppner the first of the week, is improving and able to be up and around.

Maxine Gray spent Tuesday at the William Van Winkle home.

Gene Gray of Stanfield was a business visitor here last Wednesday evening.

Dinner guests at the Tempa Johnson home last Thursday were Sarah Thornburg, Melissa Stonebraker and Laura Scott.

Mr. and Mrs. Eldee Vinson and Mary Alice spent Sunday with relatives on Butter creek.

Mrs. Knighten and daughter have moved from the Ralph Scott house to the Alec Hunt house.

Crippled Children Clinic Scheduled

A clinic for the crippled children of Umatilla and Morrow counties will be held in Pendleton on October 17, 1940, at the Vert Memorial building.

This clinic is part of the crippled children's program of the state public welfare commission. Arrangements have been made for the clinic by the Crippled Children's service of the Oregon State Public Welfare commission, the Umatilla County Public Welfare commission and the Morrow County Public Welfare commission and the Morrow County Public Health nurse.

Admittance to the clinic is by application to the Umatilla County Public Welfare commission, and the Morrow County Public Welfare commission.

Dr. C. Elmer Carlson will be the examining orthopedic surgeon.

Ione College Students Leave for Schools

By MRS. ELMER GRIFFITH

Rev. C. F. Swander, state secretary of the Christian churches, will hold services at the Christian church in Ione next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock.

Officers elected by the girls league of the high school are Charlotte Cannon, president; Eileen Sperry, vice-president; Betty Lou Lindsay, secretary; Barbara Ledbetter, treasurer; Doris Palmateer, sergeant-at-arms.

The first home game of football will be played with Umatilla Thursday.

Freshman initiation was held Friday evening.

The Rebekah lodge will entertain the assembly president, Vernisha Newby of Salem, and Bertha McCollom, assembly warden, of Portland, at their hall Thursday evening.

The social meeting of the Womens Topic club will be held at the home of Mrs. C. W. Swanson next Saturday, Sept. 28.

Students of state colleges are leaving this week to resume their studies. Among those going are Thelma Nelson, Clifford Carlson, Jane Huston, and Paul Smouse to the university, Ted Palmateer and Marion and Mancel Krebs to Oregon State, Katherine Griffith to Monmouth, Helen Lindsay to La Grande, Norman Bergstrom to Pacific, and Arthur Bergstrom to Reed.

Robert Smith and members of the family went to Yakima Saturday to attend the funeral of his brother, Tom Smith. Mr. Smith was well known here where he had visited many times.

C. A. Franklin and son Rupert of Camas, Wash., were Sunday guests at the Laxton McMurray home. Mr. Franklin and Mr. McMurray soldiered together in Cuba during the Spanish-American war.

Martin Nickleson of The Dalles is relief station agent here while Frank Ross is enjoying a hunting trip. Mr. Ross has bid in a position at Reith.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Yarnell went to the mountains Monday for a hunt.

Among the successful deer hunters returning are Bert Mason, Carl Allyn, and H. V. and Paul Smouse.

Mrs. W. T. Sanderson (Lilly Alinger) of Milwaukee was here last week, looking after property interests.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Dobyms and Mr. and Mrs. Noel Dobyms returned Monday evening from a trip to San Francisco and the fair. During their absence, Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Olden of Gresham stayed on the ranch and kept the home fires burning. The Oldens returned home Tuesday.

Mrs. Leslie Roundy of Condon is visiting her father, Louis Padberg, while Mr. Roundy is on a hunting trip.

Charles Hudson of Pendleton spent Thursday here, looking after farm property.

Mrs. Henry Clark and little grand daughter returned Sunday from Portland.

A surprise birthday party was held at the Park hotel Wednesday evening, honoring Robert Grabil, Mrs. Arthur Ritchie, A. E. Stefani, and George Snider. Mrs. Stefani and Mrs. Grabil were hostesses. Others present were Mr. Ritchie, Mrs. Snider, Mr. and Mrs. Garland Swanson, V. R. Runnion, Louis Halvorsen, Clifford McCabe, John Eubanks, Ed Acton and Howard Eubanks.

Miss Ruth Johnson was a Sunday guest at the Franklin Ely home at Morgan.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl F. Feldman returned Thursday after spending several weeks at Sunnyvale, Cal. Mrs. Feldman's mother, whom they were visiting, passed away shortly after their arrival. On their return trip, Mr. and Mrs. Feldman visited at Lake Tahoe and returned by way of Burns, where they encountered heavy rain.

Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Palmateer went to Portland and Estacada Friday on their way to Corvallis to take their son Ted, who enrolled at the college there.

Tomato Tip Blight and Dahlias Related

The close connection between tip blight of tomatoes and proximity of dahlias has been observed this year in various sections of Oregon by F. P. McWhorter, plant pathologist at Oregon State college. A field survey of locations where the disease has again advertised for bids on a school bus, as they were unable to decide on the last ones.

been present shows that dahlias had grown or were being grown near the centers of heavy infection. In some cases dahlias showed typical symptoms themselves.

While no conclusions are being drawn as yet, Dr. McWhorter is studying the situation and would be glad to hear of any other observations that would tend to either support or disprove this theory.
