

IONE NEWS

Krebs Boy Severely Hurt in Bike Accident

By MRS. ELMER GRIFFITH

Henry Krebs, Jr., of Cecil was very painfully injured Sunday in a fall from a bicycle. He was riding with his cousin, Margaret, when the front wheel broke off, throwing the boy face downward on the highway. His face was seriously cut and scratched. He was taken to Heppner to a physician who sewed up the injuries, and on Tuesday was taken up again to have the dressings renewed. Mrs. Henry Krebs is spending a few days with her husband at Browning, Montana.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Ring have word from their son Harry, who recently enlisted in the national guard, that he is at Camp Murray, Wash., very busy but very much interested in his work.

Mrs. Blanche Stansberry of Los Angeles is a guest at the Bert Mason home.

Miss Mabel McCabe of American Falls, Idaho, left Sunday after a visit here at the home of her brother, A. A. McCabe. She had just returned from a vacation trip to Kansas.

Larry Ritchie of Los Angeles arrived Tuesday for a visit with friends here.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Lundell returned Sunday from Portland with a load of household furniture.

Mrs. Eric Bergstrom is critically ill at her home in Gooseberry.

Mr. and Mrs. William Burke spent the week end visiting Mrs. Burke's family in Redmond.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Blake have moved into the E. J. Keller house, which they recently purchased.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ingalls of Adams visited here Monday at the home of Mrs. Ingall's parents Mr. and Mrs. A. A. McCabe.

Mrs. Archie Munkers is a guest of her sister, Mrs. Louis Halvorsen. Mr. Munkers, who is in airplane construction work, has been transferred to Seattle and Mrs. Munkers will join him there.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Stefani were business visitors in The Dalles Tuesday.

Dr. F. A. Carlson, superintendent of Congregational churches and Dr. Walter Myers, president of the Oregon Council of Churches were meeting with interested persons concerning church work in this locality.

The O. E. S. social club met Wednesday at Cecil at the home of Mrs. George Krebs.

The Ione high school boys defeated Umatilla on the home field last Thursday by a score of 19-18. Umatilla made the last touchdown in the last few minutes of the game, but were unable to make the conversion point. Ione's next game will be with Wasco on Friday of this week.

The school board at Morgan has awarded Fred Ely the contract for carrying both grade and high school children to Ione, and Mr. Ely has purchased a bus for that purpose.

Norman Swanson of Portland is a guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Swanson. He recently returned from a successful deer hunt in Wallowa county.

Martin Love is the new depot agent succeeding Frank Ross, who goes to Reith. Mr. Love is living at the hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. William Burke, newlyweds, were pleasantly surprised Friday evening when they were the guests of honor at a skating rink party. They were still more surprised to find themselves recipients of a household shower. The party was arranged by Mrs. Howard Eubanks, Mrs. E. G. Serry and Mrs. Carl Allyn. Mr. Burke is the fifth and sixth grade teacher.

Willows grange will hold their next business meeting at the hall in Ione on Friday night, October 18, instead of October 19 on account of the pioneer meeting at Lexington on Saturday. The Home Ec club will give their annual program that evening at the lecturer's hour. The refreshment committee to serve that evening is Jack Bailey, Marion Palmer, Melvin Brady, Lewis Ball and John Eubanks.

The social meeting of the Women's Topic club was held at the C. W. Swanson home last Saturday. Other hostesses were Mesdames Lana Padberg, Dorr Mason, and Albert Lindstrom. Three tables of bridge were in play and high score was made by Mrs. Frank Lundell, second prize by Mrs. J. E. Swanson, and low by Mrs. Omar Rietmann.

Last Thursday evening Locust Rebekah lodge entertained in honor of the assembly president, Venisha Newby, and Bertha McCollom, grand warden. Besides the local members eleven guests, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Howell, Mrs. John Wightman, Mrs. Claude Graham, Mrs. Frank Parker, Mrs. Ralph Bengt, Mrs. Elbert Cox, Mrs. Macomber, Mrs. Armstrong, Mrs. George Howard and Mrs. Norton Lundell of Heppner, and Mrs. Arthur Keene of Lexington, were present.

Mr. Petty and his sister-in-law,

Mrs. Pauline Boyer of Seattle, spent a few days at the home of Mrs. Emma Holub, and returned Monday, accompanied by Mrs. Petty and daughter, Miss Polly, who have been guests here for some time.

Mrs. E. C. Heliker returned Sunday from Cannon Beach where she attended a meeting of the state grange committee.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Ring spent the week end in Portland where Mrs. Ring had dental work done.

Mrs. J. E. Swanson entertained the P. N. G. club at her home Tuesday afternoon. Fourteen ladies were present. A tea and food sale is planned for October 25 at the I. O. O. F. Rebekah hall.

WILLOWS GRANGE NEWS

By MARY LUNDELL

Willows grange met Monday evening for their annual booster night program and get-together.

We never saw more flowers displayed and for decorative purposes. We wish to thank all who contributed flowers and the many articles for exhibit.

Fire arms brought by Harry Yarnell were of much interest to the men folk while ladies enjoyed the needle work, cacti display, fruits, etc.

The next meeting of Willows grange will be held on Friday evening, Oct. 18. The H. E. C. will meet in the afternoon of the same day, Oct. 18. The ladies of the club are giving their annual program during the lecture hour in the evening. This program promises to be very entertaining.

95¢ DOWN 90¢ a month for 4 months

...delivers this
IES Study Lamp
(Approved by Illuminating Engineering Society)

● Scientifically designed to throw abundant, glare-free light in a wide circle. Protects precious eyesight, helps children finish homework in record time. Your choice of bronze or silver finish. Complete with parchment shade and 100-watt bulb. An attractive necessity in any home. $4.45 cash. See it today at . . .

Pacific Power & Light Company
30 Years of Public Service

THE EYES OF A FUTURE DOCTOR

NOW

Guarded by plenty of cheap light

You want your child to be successful 20 years from now . . . of course you do! So why handicap him now with inadequate light? Eyestrain, often caused by poor light, is responsible for the fact that 2 out of 5 college students have defective vision! It's hard for your child to concentrate under poor light . . . his studies suffer . . . and he gets discouraged so easily. Give growing eyes the protection they deserve. Supply the study table in your home with plenty of soft, glareless light . . . Better Sight lamps cost little, and Pacific Power & Light rates are 37% below national average.

PACIFIC Electricity IS CHEAP POWER & LIGHT COMPANY

THIRTY YEARS OF PUBLIC SERVICE

GO PACIFIC INTERNATIONAL LIVESTOCK EXPOSITION
Portland, Oct. 5 to 12
LOW RAIL FARES
UNION PACIFIC

