

Local News

Francis Nickerson arrived home the end of the week from the east coast where he had just returned from a cruise with the U. S. Naval reserves in company with twenty other Oregon boys. He reported enjoying the trip very much, and expects that he may report for further training about the middle of the month. He stopped in Eugene on the way home and saw a number of the local young people billeted in their quarters for the new school year.

Mr. and Mrs. F. F. Wehmeyer have received word from their son, Stephen, stationed at Fort Lewis, Wash., that he has been raised to the rank of sergeant. Miss Edith Wehmeyer, who visited here for several days, departed this week for her home at San Francisco where she is engaged in government nursing service.

Adrian Dawson, C. Christenson and R. E. Mollinet of Pendleton were Heppner visitors last Saturday. They are with the survey and construction branch of the state highway department and were checking on the grading being done on the Parker-Eightmile road.

Oscar Peterson, in the city Tuesday from the Gooseberry farm, reported his seeding about half thru. There has been plenty of moisture in his section, but weeding delayed the seeding operation.

M. J. Conley of Conley Brothers, contracting firm, is confined to his room at the hotel by illness. Conley Bros. expect to have their rock crusher in operation early next week.

Among fortunate deer hunters this week were Alden Blankenship and Kenneth McKenzie.

NOTICE OF FINAL ACCOUNT
Notice is hereby given that the undersigned, Executrix of the Estate of George H. Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Schwarz and Len Ray left this morning for Prineville, spending a week's vacation.

BRITONS NOT AFRAID
Britons are learning to take blackouts in their stride and have not become panicky over the dropping of German bombs, says Frank Hale, one-time Heppner resident now in the British air ministry service, in a letter received this morning by Josephine Mahoney. Mr. Hale was in the Royal Air force during the last World war. He is now stationed in an English city that so far has not been bombed, but he says the general attitude of the British people is far from being afraid.

John Harrison, Pine City, Dies at Pendleton

John L. Harrison, age 40, died at St. Anthony hospital, Pendleton, Wednesday evening last week after an illness of about a week. He was operated upon last week for appendicitis and was thought to be recovering when pneumonia set in and a blood clot on his heart caused death.

Mr. Harrison had been a ranch foreman at the Tom Boylen Butter creek ranch for about six years. He is survived by his widow and one son, Johnny.

Funeral services were held Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from Folsom Funeral home. The many friends, neighbors and relatives regret his passing. He was liked by all and had a friend everywhere he was known. The floral tribute was large and beautiful. Pallbearers were Mr. Lovelord of Pendleton, Emery Cox of Hermiston, Sam Mye and Walter Wigglesworth of Echo, Marion Finch and Burl Wattenburger of Butter creek.

The widow, Mrs. Princess Harrison and son Johnny, 12, are moving to Eugene to live.
