Mrs. Carrie Bergstrom Esteemed Resident

Mrs. Carrie Bergstrom, 81, wife of Erik Bergstrom, died at the family home in Gooseberry last Sunday following a prolonged illness, and her passing was mourned by many relatives and friends of the community among whom she labored and was highly respected for many years. Funeral services were held from the Church of Christ in Heppner, Monday afternoon, Martin B. Clark officiating, following which other services were held from Pearson's Funeral home in Portland, Tuesday afternoon, where interment was made.

Born in Vermland Sweden, May 6, 1859, she came to the United States in September, 1889, and to Morrow county where her home had since been made. She was married to Mr. Bergstrom in December, that year.

Surviving are the widower and three sons, William, Carl and Oscar; also ten grandchildren.

Mrs. Bergstrom was a lifetime member of the Lutheran church.

Patricia Drake sustained a fracture of her right arm in a fall, Monday.

CHAMPIONS WEAR

SHOOTING GLASS

Hundreds of leading rifle, skeet and pistol shooters were asked what features they would demand in a perfect shooting glass. On their recommendations has been designed and built the Bausch & Lomb Ray-Ban Shooting Glass. Championship shooters, gun editors, authorities, say, "The finest shooting glass we've ever worn." We can show you the Ray-Ban Shooting Glass and the complete line of scientifically correct Ray-Ban Sun Glasses for outdoor and sports wear.
