Time for Politics

MORE than anything else to impress the strength being gained by the campaign of Wendell L. Willkie for the presidency is the last minute appearance on the radio of Mr. Roosevelt in a series of five "political" speeches. Up to this time Mr. Roosevelt has held himself aloof from the campaign leaving the appearance that the stress of national emergency was drawing too greatly upon his time to make a campaign for re-election and that the demand for his services for a third term was so overwhelming as to be inevitable.

Mr. Willkie changed the picture. He has put his message across so forcibly to the people that third-term strategists have found no other way out than to have Mr. Roosevelt take the stump himself.

In the first of his addresses last night, Mr. Roosevelt said nothing new. The address could have been one of several delivered four years ago. It dismissed opposition with a wave of the hand and took credit into the administration for everything except the national debt.

By inference Mr. Roosevelt implied that the press has sold out to Mr. Willkie. "Only a part of the press and the radio remain free," he said. This statement calls for resentment from the newspapers, and is too misleading to be ignored. The press voluntarily supporting Mr. Willkie has the courage to call its soul its own. The radio has not, because it is under a commission in Washington that is responsible to the executive. So far there has not been, and God grant that there will never be, a commission set up in Washington to regulate the newspapers.

REX ELLIS SAYS: "As long as Congressman Pierce has left his post in Washington to campaign in Eastern Oregon . . .

I CHALLENGE PIERCE TO EXPLAIN—Why Pierce Voted NOT to increase the penalty on Treason and Sabotage. Because on June 5, 1939, Pierce voted not to make it EVEN a five-year penalty for any foreign alien or person who advocated the overthrow of the government by force. EXPLAIN—Why he voted against the Dies committee appropriation; which committee was investigating un-American and Fifth Column activities in the United States. EXPLAIN—How he can be a FRIEND of the FARMER and vote not to deport Harry Bridges. EXPLAIN—When the Congressmen started passing on the constitutionality of a law instead of the Supreme Court. EXPLAIN—Why the American Legion, a non-political—but patriotic organization, passed a resolution to leave Walter Pierce at home. EXPLAIN—Why Pierce has the C.I.O. Endorsement.

REX ELLIS CONTENTS that the Congressmen have got to stop pussy-footing and playing up to the subversive elements of the United States, in order to get votes, and state voting Americanism.

Elect Rex Ellis to Congress
