Woolgrowers Booth At P-I Big Success

The booth conducted at the Pacific International Livestock exposition in Portland by Oregon Woolgrowers auxiliary was a grand success, reports Mrs. Ralph I. Thompson, state auxiliary president, who returned home this week after personally supervising operation of the booth.

Mrs. Thompson extends appreciation to Mrs. Harry Duvall who assisted three afternoons and evenings. In the course of the show three lamb carcasses were given away. This caused great crowds to gather each ray at the time of drawing and the market was much admired. This feature was made possible by the gift that Oregon Woolgrowers association made the auxiliary at the time of the Pendleton ram sale.
