

At Heppner CHURCHES

METHODIST CHURCH

Sunday school at 9:45. Morning worship at 11 a. m. Epworth League at 6:30. Evening worship at 7:30.

The revival services are on. Brother Palovina is bringing a heart stirring message each evening, which you are invited to hear and enjoy with us. This man is a world traveler and lecturer, also a world renowned evangelist. He was born in Austria, naturalized in America, traveled in about every nation, preached in every state in the union. My friends you cannot afford to miss hearing this man. Come, worship with us.

Next Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday afternoon at 2:30 he plans to bring to the people a message on the Holy Spirit and His workings, which is so badly needed today.

James Wilkins, Pastor.

Rev. S. E. Palovina, Evangelist.

SOCIETY CHIT-CHAT

By JUNE SMITH

Mrs. J. J. Nys and Mrs. D. M. Ward entertained with a bridge luncheon at the home of Mrs. Nys Tuesday afternoon. A Hallowe'en motif was used in the decorations, with an abundance of red autumn leaves and pumpkins. Fall flowers graced the luncheon tables. Five tables of bridge were in play, with Mrs. C. W. McNamer winning first prize, and Mrs. Charles Cox second.

Mrs. Earl Gordon entertained for her duplicate bridge club Tuesday evening at Lucas Place. Two tables were in play, with Mrs. Ruth Tamblin's team winning. Refreshments were served at the close of play.

Mrs. Ray Ferguson was hostess to the Wednesday bridge club at her home yesterday. The affair was a dessert bridge with two tables in play.

Mrs. P. W. Mahoney will have a dessert bridge for her club Saturday afternoon at Lucas Place. Three tables will be in play.

Among those attending the University of Washington-Oregon State football game in Seattle last Saturday were Mr. and Mrs. Phil Mahoney, Mr. Logie Richardson, Mrs. Orville Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Rice, Mr. William Kilkenny and Mr. Barney Doherty.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Swick of Monument were in Heppner last Friday to witness the Heppner-Hermiston ball game.

Mrs. Robert Thompson is suffering from a sprained arm and turned ankle.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cox returned Monday from a trip to Portland. Mrs. Cox went down to attend a meeting of the executive board of the American Legion auxiliary Sunday. Sunday evening the Cox's visited with Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Morton at Newberg. Mr. Cox also called on Mr. and Mrs. George J. Currin of Gresham, and found them quite well.

The Bookworms met Tuesday evening at the home of Miss Lulu Hager. Mrs. Lucy Rodgers reviewed "Defense for America," a compilation of the essays of William Allen White. Fifteen members were present.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Drake of Hood

River were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Gene Ferguson, and enjoyed the pheasant hunting here. Other hunters who have been out with the Fergusons are Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Norris of Milwaukee, Oregon, and Mr. George Strayer of Portland. Hunting guests of Orville Smith last Saturday were Mr. and Mrs. Al Ackley of Yakima, and on Tuesday, Mr. and Mrs. O. Quinney of Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Dalton of Portland who are here for a week's hunt were dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Dick last Tuesday.

Degrees will be conferred at the meeting of the Eastern Star Friday evening. Neighboring chapters have been invited as guests.

The Episcopalian auxiliary and missionary met Thursday at the Parish house. Mrs. Ture Peterson was in charge of the meeting, a feature of which was a plant sale.

BRUCE SPAULDING VISITS

Bruce Spaulding, democratic nominee for attorney general, accompanied by Mrs. Spaulding, visited old time friends in Heppner Sunday while making the rounds in the interests of his candidacy. Mr. Spaulding, now district attorney at Dallas, received his high school education in Heppner when his father was Methodist minister here. He later graduated from Willamette university law school, and his short practicing career has scintillated, what with taking the lead in prosecuting goon cases before the anti-picketing law was passed at the last general election.

YOAKUM RANCH SOLD

H. M. Yoakum, pioneer resident of Willow creek decided he had followed mountaineering long enough and this week sold the old ranch to Frank Wilkinson. Mr. Yoakum was in the city the end of the week preparing to go to the Willamette valley for a visit. He had not definitely decided where he might locate.

Safeway Store Makes Enlargement Strides

"Through popular demand and request from their many friends and customers," says John Anglin, local manager, "the Safeway store has added a modern, spic and span meat market."

This new market takes on the appearance of any of their markets elsewhere, every detail having been worked out to give Heppner the privilege of any larger city both in quality, price and service, and the same guarantee applies here as elsewhere.

Clyde Bellows of Pendleton, one of Safeway's trained and efficient meat cutters, is in charge of the market operation and is very happy in his new location.

In line with the market addition, says Mr. Anglin, the produce department has been enlarged to meet the ever-increasing demand for fresh fruits and vegetables. This department is under the able supervision of Frank Bowers.

ACTIVE AT E. O. C. E.

Kathryn Parker, Heppner, is a member of the a cappella choir at the Eastern Oregon College of Education. The choir this year, under direction of Kenneth Schilling, assistant professor of music, promises to become one of the outstanding organizations of its kind in eastern Oregon. Vernon Knowles Heppner, is a member of the varsity football squad at the college.

Local News

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Anderson returned home the end of the week from an enjoyable motor trip to Columbia, Mo., where they visited Mr. Anderson's uncle, Martin Anderson. Columbia is the site of University of Missouri and the local people were impressed with the beautiful buildings and signs of activity on every hand.
