

IONE NEWS

Davidson House Lost In Fire Near Ione

By MRS. ELMER GRIFFITH

Mrs. Mabel Davidson's ranch house was destroyed by fire Friday afternoon, and all contents except the washing machine were lost.

Mrs. A. A. McCabe was pleasantly surprised last week by a visit from her cousin, Garfield Hibbard, and Mrs. Hibbard of Lake Geneva, Wis.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Stewart of Vernonia spent the week end here with Mrs. Stewart's daughters, Mrs. Franklin Lindstrom and Mrs. Clifford McCabe, and her son, Arthur Ritchie.

A surprise birthday party was held at the George Snyder home Saturday evening, honoring Harold Snider and Clifford McCabe.

Eleven members of Locust chapter, O. E. S., attended a friendship meeting of the Condon chapter Friday evening.

The weather observer at Morgan reports 2.30 inches of rain in October and 4.07 inches since the first of September.

Keith, the small son of Mr. and Mrs. Clel Ray, broke his collar bone as the result of two successive falls.

Mrs. Ida Moore of Portland is spending a few days at the home of her brother W. J. Blake, before returning home Wednesday.

Mrs. Fred Mankin spent the week end at Walla Walla visiting her daughter Betty, who is attending school there.

P. J. O'Meara is building a lumber shed back of his blacksmith shop.

The Union Missionary society will meet at the Congregational church on Thursday. Hostesses are Mrs.

Della Corson, Mrs. James Warfield and Mrs. Mathew Gordon.

The one Bridge club met Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Harry Yarnell. High prize was won by Mrs. Clara Newlin and low by Mrs. J. P. O'Meara.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Denny left Monday for a trip east. They went to Puget Sound to go from there by the Great Northern route to Detroit where they will purchase a car and drive home.

Mrs. Erling Thompson returned home Friday after spending a few days in the hospital at Heppner.

Ed Powell of Morgan is a patient at the hospital in Heppner.

Walter Bristow has purchased the Lee Howell residence on Second street, but will not take possession at once.

Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Dalzel of Grand Coulee spent Friday in Ione, visiting Mr. Dalzel's aunt, Mrs. Bert Mason.

The weather observer at Morgan reports 2.30 inches of rain in October and 4.07 inches since the first of September.

Mr. Burk's Sunday school class were host Tuesday evening for a delightful Halloween party at the Christian church, attended by most of the young people of the community.

The operetta, "Fairy Shoemaker," presented by the grade school children was well received Friday evening.

The Home Economics girls served a cafeteria dinner at 6:30.

HARDMAN NEWS

Pad Howell Stricken Near Hardman

By ELSA M. LEATHERS

Pad Howell, who has been doing chores at the Archie Bechdolt ranch, was found lying in the road Monday evening by Neal Knighten, after a stroke apparently had struck him.

The first snow of the season fell on election day at Hardman, although the hills have been white south of Hardman for a few days.

A birthday party in honor of Mrs. Fred Reed and Mrs. Bill Greener was given by Mrs. Eldon McFerrin last Wednesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. G. I. Clary were in town over Monday and Tuesday, coming out to vote.

Mrs. Zelma McDaniel is staying at the Sam McDaniel Jr. home, taking care of Mrs. McDaniel who has been quite ill.

Monte McDonald spent the last week with Mrs. Raymond Reed at Arbuckle camp.

Mrs. Ted Blake is assisting Mrs. Bert Mason in the store while Mr. Mason is hunting elk.

Harvey Smith and Clarence E. Linn were Pendleton visitors Monday.

P. J. O'Meara has purchased Carl Troedson's house, now occupied by Clarence Brenner.

ers have reported spike bull elk.

Misses Jean Leathers Vern McDaniel, Nona Inskip, Maxine McDaniel, Lois Hewitt, Lucille Renoe, Ollie Hastings, Mrs. Marvin Brannon, Mr. and Mrs. Neal Knighten and children attended the Christian Endeavor rally at Lexington Friday night.

Lewis Batty and family moved to the ranch on Monday of this week. Nelson Knighten is in charge of the store and garage.

Mrs. Zelma McDaniel will be honored with a kitchen shower at the Ethel McDaniel home on Friday the 8th between 1 and 4 o'clock.

Mrs. Victor Lovgren and children and Mrs. Clarence Rodgers of Eight-mile visited in town on Monday.

Miss Lurline Sparks and Miss Lois Hewitt put on a Halloween program with the grade children Saturday evening, with witches, soldiers, ghosts and moonbeams very much in evidence. A nice crowd was present.

A large number of friends and relatives of "Granny" Booher attended her funeral in Heppner Monday at the Phelps Funeral home. Mrs. Booher lived in Hardman for many years before moving to Heppner.

Carey Hastings and Max Buschke went to be pallbearers from here.

George Perry of Pendleton visited Saturday evening at the Owen Leathers home and attended the dance here. Mr. Perry had not been in Hardman for about 23 years.

Advertisement for Waldorf-Astoria Hotel featuring Silvray indirect light fixtures. Includes text: 'Used in Exclusive WALDORF-ASTORIA HOTEL', 'SILVRAY INDIRECT LIGHT', 'Now available for instant installation in your home!', 'Only $2.87 complete with 150-watt silvered bowl bulb!', and 'Pacific Power & Light Company 30 Years of Public Service'.

LOW-COST LIGHT CONDITIONING FOR Every ROOM IN THE HOUSE!

Ingenuous new adaptors make present fixtures and lamps give modern glareless light!

* Kitchen... Work goes more quickly and pleasantly in good shadowless light. Attractive adaptor screws into old sockets. Cost about... $3.00

* Laundry or Game Room... Banish glare, discomfort, fatigue. Screw in a metal light reflector. Work is easier, play more fun. About $2.00

* Living Room... No need to squint and frown from multiple socket fixtures. Simply clip these good looking shades on the bulbs... 20¢ to 40¢

* Study Room... Protect your children's eyes from strain and make studying easier by screwing plastic bowl on present lamp. Cost, about... 65¢

* Dining Room... Make those candle-type fixtures or wall brackets take on new charm and give better lighting with shades like these. Only 20¢

See these inexpensive adaptors and lamps today

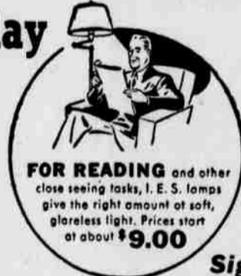

AT A LIGHT CONDITIONING SERVICE CENTER

Here you'll find dozens of inexpensive suggestions, that will give you safer, easier seeing... and add new beauty, too. You'll also find handy adaptor equipment to do it, at prices to suit your budget. Stop in today.

At Your Dealer's

Electric rates are low!

Don't worry about the cost of operating your new and modern lighting fixtures... even if they use larger bulbs. For Pacific Power & Light rates are 37% below national average. And the more electricity you use the cheaper it gets.

Sight is priceless... Light is cheap!

PACIFIC POWER & LIGHT COMPANY 30 Years of Public Service