

SOCIETY CHIT-CHAT

By JUNE SMITH

Last Saturday Mrs. Charles Cox, Mrs. Ralph Thompson, Mrs. A. D. McMurdo, Mrs. Glenn Jones and Mrs. W. H. Cleveland drove to Pendleton to attend a large bridge luncheon given there by Mrs. E. L. Young, Mrs. Lester Hurst, Mrs. E. B. Aldrich and Mrs. Thomas Vaughn.

While there Mrs. Cox, who is district president, conferred with the American Legion auxiliary president of Pendleton, Mrs. Charles Lemons, about the conference to be held in Pendleton December 4.

Friday a number of Heppner Eastern Star members drove to Condon to attend a meeting of that lodge. Mrs. C. W. McNamer, Mrs. Anna Bayless, Mrs. Charles Cox, Mrs. Ralph Bengé and Miss Rose Leibbrand were among those who viewed a pageant of the club ritual of 1869, as presented by that chapter. Mrs. Alice Reischer, president of the Past Worthy Matrons of Condon, who has spent much time in research on this subject, obtained the actual old original manuscripts, and from these evolved her pageant. The work was put on by the Condon Past Worthy Matron's club.

While in Condon Mrs. Cox also conferred with Mrs. Wilda Cooper, American Legion auxiliary president there, about a conference to be held by that organization there December 3.

Mrs. Anna Bayless has had Mrs. Vibret Hunsaker of Portland as her house guest this week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Y. Ball left Sunday for a month's vacation, which they will spend in Portland.

The American Legion is sponsoring an Armistice Day dance, to be held Saturday evening at the Elk's temple.

Mrs. Marius P. Hanford and two children left Saturday, to join Lt. Hanford at his new location. Lt. Hanford came to Heppner Friday to assist in the moving, and they will be at home hereafter in South Tacoma.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Booher of Las Vegas, Nevada, are staying with Mrs. Booher's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Corda Saling. Called here by the death of Mr. Booher's mother, Mrs. Jennie Booher, whose funeral was Monday, the couple will be here until Saturday.

The Music club met Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Lucy Peterson with Mrs. Lucy Rodgers joint hostess. The home was appropriately decorated with Indian blankets, and all manner of Indian things, as a background for the theme music studied that evening, which was primitive Indian music. Even the refreshments were Indian food, turkey, smoked salmon and berry juice punch. Miss Leta Humphreys was leader for the evening's discussion.

A wool exhibit is to be held tomorrow at the Vert Memorial building in Pendleton, sponsored by the Umatilla chapter of the Woolgrowers Auxiliary. Tea will be served during the afternoon, and a dinner held in the high school cafeteria at 6:30 that evening. All Morrow county members of the organization are invited to attend.

The Missionary society of the Christian church met Wednesday evening at Miss Leta Humphreys' home, with Mrs. J. O. Turner as leader. The theme of the meeting was "Migrants." Refreshments were served at the close of the evening.

The Union Missionary will meet Friday afternoon at the Christian church. Mrs. Evelyn Isom and Mrs. Margaret McNeill are in charge of the meeting and will present a play.

The Episcopal auxiliary members are looking forward to the visit of Mrs. Chester Kennedy of Gatewood, Oregon, who is president of the Women's Service League. She will be accompanied by Miss Kathryn Peterson of Pendleton, missionary worker, and Mrs. Eric Robathan. The ladies will be here Thursday, Nov. 14, and a luncheon is being planned for that date at 1 p.m. Mrs. Kennedy has expressed a wish to meet all the ladies of this parish, and will make a report on the general convention at Kansas City which she attended.

Mrs. George Howard entertained "What's Trumps" club at her home last Thursday evening. Mrs. Harold Cohn won high score, and Mrs. Raymond Ferguson low. Refreshments were served at the end of play.

In honor of one of the members, Mrs. C. C. Patterson, who left Wednesday to spend several months at the home of her daughter, Mrs. LeGrand Guild, at Snohomish, her contract bridge club held a luncheon last Monday at the Lucas Place. Three tables of bridge were in play following, with Mrs. Mary Thompson winning high score, and Mrs. Anna Bayless consolation. A guest prize was presented to Mrs. Patterson.

The Eastern Star social club held a bridge dessert Saturday afternoon at the hall, with Mrs. W. C. Rosewall and Mrs. Elvin Schaffer as hostesses. Three tables of contract were in play during the afternoon with Mrs. Charles Vaughn winning high score, and Mrs. P. W. Mahoney receiving consolation prize.

The American Legion Auxiliary met Monday evening at the home of the president, Mrs. Anna Bayless, with 19 members and one guest present. Favors were made for the soldiers in the hospital at Walla Walla, in the form of little turkeys to grace their Thanksgiving plates. Plans were made for twenty of the Heppner members to accept the invitation from the Hermiston chapter to dinner on November 11. Mrs. Glenn Jones and Mrs. Earl Evans were hostesses.

The next meeting of the organization will be a sewing meeting at Mrs. Harold Cohn's home Nov. 25.

The meeting of the Lexington Grange at Lexington next Saturday night will be enlivened by the presentation of several skits. Mrs. Lucy Rodgers, Mrs. Frank Turner, Mrs. Ed Dick, Mrs. Frank Edmondson, Mrs. Frank Wilkinson and Mrs. Del Ward will take part in one playlet, with Mrs. J. O. Turner playing the accompaniment and Mrs. J. O. Turner reading. Another skit, entitled "In a Bower of Flowers," will depict past scenes in the life of Mrs. Ben Swaggart.

RHEA CREEK GRANGE TO ELECT

Election of officers and staging of the last birthday dinner of the year are on the calendar for the Rhea Creek grange regular meeting tomorrow evening. All members are urged to attend.

BIG SALE SCHEDULED

Harry McKinney of Condon was a business visitor in the city Monday and announced that he will hold a big public auction of all his stock and equipment at the Old Company ranch on the old Heppner ridge road between Ione and Olex next Thursday. V. R. Runion is the auctioneer. Location of ranch and the articles to be offered for sale will be found in another column. Mr. McKinney has disposed of his interest in this farm and is closing out all operating equipment and stock.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our sincere thanks and appreciation for the beautiful flowers, sympathy and help given by our kind neighbors and friends at the time of bereavement of our father, Barney McDevitt.
