

LXINGTON NEWS

Football Players Feted at Lexington

By MARGARET SCOTT

Mr. and Mrs. Owens Helms of Pendleton visited here Saturday.

Lavonne McMillan underwent an appendicitis operation at the Heppner hospital Saturday morning. She is reported to be recovering rapidly.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne McMillan of Carlton were week-end guests at the S. G. McMillan home. They were on their way home from Detroit where they purchased a new car. Coy Thornburg returned to Carlton with them.

Guests at the Sarah Thornburg home this week were Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Thornburg of Spokane.

Sunday dinner guests at the Nettie Davis home were Mr. and Mrs. Gene Gray and family of Stanfield, Clayton Davis, and Mr. and Mrs. Laurel Ruhl and son.

Clayton Davis returned to his duties with the U. S. navy Monday after visiting friends and relatives here and at Hermiston.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Marshall and family spent the week end in Washington.

Mrs. Wright of Portland is visiting her daughter, Mrs. John Miller.

A. M. Edwards was a business visitor in Lewiston, Idaho, Friday and Saturday.

Mrs. Maude Pointer and Harriet left Saturday for Portland and vicinity where Mrs. Pointer plans to spend the winter. They were accompanied by Mrs. Tempa Johnson who will spend the winter in Astoria and Corvallis.

Adolph Majeske and Clarence Carmichael were business visitors in Portland last week.

Alfred Van Winkle left Tuesday for Salem for further medical treatment.

Mr. and Mrs. George Peck spent several days this week in Portland.

There will be a dance at the local grange hall Saturday, November 16, with music furnished by Wright's orchestra of Pendleton. The dance committee is presenting beano as an added attraction.

The regular grange meeting was held Saturday evening at the hall. The program was presented by the H. E. C. ladies and consisted of the following numbers: Drill, grange ladies; reading, Alta Brown; piano solo, Carolyn Bauman; pantomime, Heppner ladies; duet, Lillian C. Turner and Lucy Rodgers, and story of her experiences by Mrs. Swaggart. During the business meeting the following officers were elected for the coming year: Master, Harvey Bauman; overseer, Myles Martin; steward, James Peck; lecturer, Orville Cutsforth; chaplain, Elsie Beach; gatekeeper, Douglas Gibson; treasurer, Frank Saling; secretary, Thelma Smethurst; Ceres, Thelma Dolvin; Pomona, Alta Brown; Flora, Edna Hunt; assistant steward, Fred Nelson; lady assistant steward, Gladys Cutsforth; executive committee member, Charles Marquardt; juvenile matron, Norma Marquardt.

The local football team was honored with a banquet Saturday night at the schoolhouse. Ivon Amend was master of ceremonies. Letters were presented to Don Campbell, Gene Majeske, Duane Johnson, Roy Martin, Carl Marquardt, Bill Nichols, Don Peck, Raymond Turner, Elden Padberg and Leonard Munkers, manager. Duane Johnson represented the team in thanking the mothers for the banquet and response was by Anne Johnson.

Mrs. Myra Munkers is seriously ill at her home.

Officials elected at the election Tuesday are Alonzo Henderson, mayor; councilmen, Clarence Carmichael, John Miller and Harry Dinges; recorder, Edith Edwards, and Elmer Hunt was reelected treasurer.

Mrs. Roy Johnson and Mrs. Alonzo Henderson are spending a few days in Portland.

The PTA meeting was held Tuesday evening at the local schoolhouse. A business meeting was held and a committee was appointed to make plans for a Christmas party for the community. The program was started with a reading by Lillian C. Turner and observance of Armistice day with songs by the audience. Gene Cutsforth Gene Majeske and Don Campbell gave accounts of their trips to the stock show in Portland. Tap dancing was by Mrs. Amend's tapping class. A professor quiz contest was conducted by Jean Williamson with the audience acting as participants. The winning side was awarded all-day suckers. After the program refreshments of pie and coffee were served.

There will be a dance for the benefit of the Boy Scouts on Nov. 30 at the Lexington grange hall. Wright's orchestra will play. 37-39p.

Rhea Creek Grange Elects 1941 Officers

The following officers were elected to fill the offices at the Rhea Creek grange for the coming year: Master, Henry Peterson; overseer, Oscar Peterson; lecturer, Florence Jones; steward, Orin Wright; assistant steward, Henry Baker; lady assistant steward, Marjorie Worden; chaplain, Hannah Anderson; treasurer, John Bergstrom; secretary, Alice Anderson; gate keeper, Clayton Wright; Ceres, Pearl Wright; Pomona, Helen Baker; Flora, Julia Carlson; H. E. C. chairman, Tacy Parker; executive committee, Glen Jones, Frank Parker, Floyd Worden.

Preceding grange a birthday dinner for the months of October, November and December was served at Friday evening's meeting, with Carrie Beckett, Orin Wright, Glen Jones and Bobby Wright as the honor guests.

On November 26 there will be an all day meeting of the grange HEC with a pot-luck dinner at noon. There will be a lady from Oregon State college to discuss "The Selection of Materials for Clothing." Everyone is cordially invited to attend, as we believe this will be something of interest to all women.

Grangers keep in mind that November 15 is our annual clam feed. Please bring cake and jello to go with the clams.

Noel Bobyns returned a lucky elk hunter, having bagged a nice 5-point bull.

A large crowd attended the Volby Lutheran Missionary meeting at the farm home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Peterson.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hanna, Jr., and daughters are moving to their home below Lexington this week. Mrs. Hanna and daughter have been staying with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charley Becket.

Several neighbors met at the Claud Huston home to listen to election returns, "a listening party," so to speak.

Mr. and Mrs. Tyndal Robison visited at the Clive Huston home on Sunday.

Mrs. Baker of Walla Walla is visiting at the home of her son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Baker. Miss Velma Huston and Herman Parker spent the Armistice holiday at the Clive Huston home.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Parker are visiting at the home of their son and family in Everett, Wash. They expect to be gone until after the Thanksgiving holiday.

The ladies of the community assembled at the Ray Wright home, giving Mrs. Barton Clark a surprise shower. Mrs. Clark (Beth Wright) received many lovely presents.

Our community was visited by its first real touch of winter Monday morning, when we awoke to find about two inches of snow covering the landscape.

Make your appointment now for the latest hairdress. Myrtle's Beauty Salon. 37f.

Photographic Christmas Greeting Cards. Rose Leibbrand. Tel. 893 or 602 37-39p.

Curlee O'Coats

All weather protection, smartly styled garments that combine warmth with comfortable weight. Tailored by expert craftsmen, styled by designers who create the trends in men's clothes—choice selection of materials in season's smartest patterns.

$17.50 - $19.50 - $22.50 - $24.50

WILSON'S MENS' WEAR
The Store of Personal Service

End Heating Worries - Burn

Gasco Briquets

GASCO BRIQUETS are all heat—no ash. They hold fire 8 to 10 hours—are easily controlled to maintain a constant, uniform temperature. Burn them along with wood for lasting economical heat. Use them in your breeder stoves, too—

Also UTAH & WYOMING COAL

Three sizes to choose from, small, medium and lump.

TUM-A-LUM LUMBER COMPANY

Telephone 912 for Delivery

FINANCE YOUR CAR with the LEADER

- 1. Low-Cost Financing
- 2. Builds Bank Credit for other needs—in 41 state-wide branches!

B. C. PINCKNEY, Manager

HEPPNER BRANCH
FIRST NATIONAL BANK OF PORTLAND

MEMBER FEDERAL DEPOSIT INSURANCE CORPORATION