

SOCIETY CHIT-CHAT

By JUNE SMITH

Forty members were in attendance at the luncheon held last Thursday at the Parish House in honor of Mrs. Chester Kenneday, of Gatewood, Oregon, who is the president of the Women's Service League. Following the luncheon, Mrs. Kenneday spoke, as did Miss Kathryn Peterson of Pendleton, who accompanied her here.

Mrs. Werner Rietmann and Mrs. M. E. Cotte of Ione were hostesses at a luncheon last Friday at Mrs. Rietmann's home. Four tables of contract bridge were in play during the afternoon, with Mrs. L. E. Dick winning high score, and Mrs. Mark Merrill, second.

The second ladies' night of the season was held at the Elk's club last Thursday, with bridge and pinochle for the ladies, followed by dancing and a buffet supper. Mrs. Harold Buhman won first prize in the bridge game, with Mrs. Gene Ferguson second. Mrs. Harvey Miller and Mrs. Edward Rice won at pinochle.

Mrs. Anna Bayless announces that the wool ties ordered by the Woolgrowers Auxiliary for Christmas sales will be on display and for sale at her home next week, Nov. 25 to Nov. 30.

Among the visitors arriving in Heppner for Thanksgiving are Mr. and Mrs. George Hyatt of Pendleton, who will spend the day with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Phil Mahoney. Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Gaily of Pendleton will also be here with Mrs. Gaily's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Hiatt. Mrs. A. Heiny of Fairview, arrived Tuesday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Gene Ferguson, to spend the holidays. Mrs. Lewis Smith of Naches, Wash., is visiting her son, Orville Smith. A number of the younger set will be home from school to be with their parents, among them Miss Clarabel Adams and Miss Betty Happold. Mr. and Mrs. Lester Doolittle will spend Thanksgiving in Portland with their daughter, Margaret, who attends business college there, and son Paul, who is going to Oregon State college. Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Shepard have left for Redmond, Wash., where they will visit with Mrs. Shepard's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Blakeley. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Knox will visit with Mr. Knox's family in Idaho. Mr. and Mrs. George Burroughs left Wednesday for Portland where they will have Thanksgiving with Mrs. Burroughs' sister.

Of interest here is the announcement of the marriage of Mrs. Muriel Van Marter to Dr. R. M. Rice, which took place November 9 at Reno, Nevada.

Miss Isabel Fortner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Fortner of Grass Valley, and Mr. Clyde Davis of the same city, were married here Tuesday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Driscoll.

A number of Heppner members of the Elk's lodge attended the grand opening of the newly decorated lodge hall of that society in The Dalles last Saturday. Among them were Mr. and Mrs. Phil Mahoney, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Cohn, Mr. and Mrs. Luke Bibby, Mr. and Mrs. Garnet Barratt, Mr. and Mrs. Orville Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Jasper Crawford, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Miller, Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Pinckney, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Ferguson, Dr. Richard Lawrence, Mr. Harry O'Donnell and Mr. Kenneth Akers. Dancing during the evening was enjoyed, and a buffet supper served.

About 75 persons attended the benefit card party held last Friday evening at the St. Patrick's rectory by the Ladies Altar society. Bridge and pinochle with other games were enjoyed in the flower filled rooms, with refreshments served at the evening's close. Door prize was won by Mr. Charles Hirl. Mrs. Conley Lanham was high in bridge, Mrs. C. W. McNamer second, with Mrs.

Aliens Must Register By December 26th

Alien registration will end on December 26 and all non-citizens who have not yet registered are warned that severe penalties will follow failure to comply with this federal law. All aliens, 14 years of age and older, must register in person and be fingerprinted.

Alien children, under 14, must be registered by their parents or guardians. Registration takes place at the post offices.

There is no charge of any kind connected with alien registration. The Department of Justice warns aliens to beware of racketeers.

The Post Office Department and the Department of Justice will willingly assist the alien in every possible way.

Earl G. Harrison, director of alien registration of the Department, suggests that those aliens who have not yet registered do so as soon as possible and avoid the Christmas rush at the post offices.

All aliens are also warned that, having registered, they are required to report any change in their per-

Richard Lawrence and Mrs. Agnes Çuran hostesses for the bridge players. Mrs. Anne Miller and Mrs. Kathryn Hisler were hostesses for the pinochle tables, with Mr. John Hull winning first prize, and Mr. Edwards second.

Mrs. Harlan McCurdy entertained the Kensington club at her home last Monday afternoon. Tea was served at the close of the meeting.

In honor of the Grand Matron of Oregon, Mrs. Hattie Huntington, Eastern Star members assembled in Ione last Monday evening. Twenty-seven of the Heppner members attended, and following the business session refreshments were served.

Carol Kuhr of the Oregon State Police, who has been stationed here during the elk hunting season, left Sunday for his home at Newport.

Bertha Kohlborgen of Salem, who is with the state board of higher education, was a Heppner visitor on Monday.

Walter Moore of Pendleton was in Heppner on Tuesday.

John M. Whitelaw of Portland, who is with the state public welfare commission, visited Heppner on Wednesday.

Mrs. Frank E. Hensley of The Dalles spent the week end with her husband, the new employee at the Central market. Mrs. Hensley is a former resident of Heppner, her father being Archie Barnard, who operated the dray here for a number of years.
