By JUNE SMITH

Miss Mabel Elizabeth McKay, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George McKay of Condon, became the bride of James Michael Farley, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Farley of Heppner, last Thursday, December 5, at 10:30 in the morning. The ceremony was performed at the home of the bride's parents, with Father Thomas McTeigue officiating.

Miss Flora McFarlane, cousin of the bride, was maid of honor, and Miss Margaret Farley, sister of the bridegroom, bridesmaid. Mr. Joe Farley, brother of the groom, was his best man.

The bride wore an afternoon dress of blue silk crepe, with a corsage of gardenias. The maid of honor and bridesmaid wore similar dresses of rose and blue, respectively, with corsages of roses and carnations.

Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at which Mrs. George McKay was assisted by Mrs. Will McFarlane and Mrs. Bert Hollen. The wedding was attended by relatives and close friends of the bride and groom. Out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. James Farley, Joe Farley, Miss Margaret Farley and Mrs. William Bucknum of Heppner, and Orrin Furlong of Walla Walla.

Members of the Elks lodge and their wives are looking forward to this coming Saturday, when a celebration will take place for this lodge and visitors from others. The afternoon plans include initiation for the lodge, while the women are entertained at a party to be held at Lucas Place at 2 p. m. Mrs. Garnet Barratt, chairman and her assistants, Mrs. Phil Mahoney and Mrs. Gene Ferguson, are planning the women's affair, at which both bridge and pinocle will be played, with prizes for both. Plans are being made for twelve tables, and every wife of an Elk is cordially invited to be present. Refreshments will be served at the close of play.

A dance is scheduled for the evening at the Elk's hall, with the Men About Town furnishing the music. A floor show will be a feature.

Among the Heppner people seen in Pendleton last Friday to attend the Eastern Oregon Wheat league meetings and festivities were Mr. and Mrs. Gene Ferguson, Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Pinckney, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Ferguson, Mr. and Mrs. Vawter Parker, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Jones, Charles Cox, John J. Wightman, Jap Crawford and Henry Hap-pold.

Announcement of the annual Christmas party and white elephant exchange at the next meeting was made at the Woolgrowers auxiliary meeting held at Lucas Place last Friday. Reports were given by Mrs. Phil Mahoney, president, and Mrs. Ralph Thompson, retiring state president, on the annual state convention held at Lakeview Dec. 1, 2 and 3.

The American Legion auxiliary met last Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Anna Bayless, with Mrs. Chris Brown and Mrs. Dick Wells as hostesses. Mrs. Charles Cox gave a report of her meetings at Condon and Heppner. The meeting was the auxiliary's Christmas party, which this year, the members held for others instead of exchanging gifts among themselves. Toys and gifts were brought which will be given to children of veterans and the gift shop at the veterans hospital in Portland. The auxiliary will also make up a box of fruit and groceries for a local family.

The Episcopal auxiliary will meet at the Parish House Thursday. The bazaar held by the members last Saturday, followed by a dinner, was declared by them to be a success.

Ed Dick drove Kemp Dick to Ritter Springs Tuesday, where he will remain for treatment.

The Bookworms met Tuesday evening at the home of Miss Rose Lieb-
