Opening License Sale for Sportsmen on 15th

With Oregon's 1940 big game season history, the curtain falling on migratory bird season in this state, and fishing confined largely to the coastal streams, attention of the Oregon State Game commission is now centered in distribution of 1941 hunting and fishing licenses.

Preparations for supplying more than 200,000 sportsmen with the new licenses has been under way for some little time. The sale opens on December 15 in both the commission's Portland office and at 600 agencies scattered throughout the state.

Opening of the sale in the middle of the month was made because of the heavy demand on the part of persons who desire to purchase licenses and use them as Christmas gifts.

Warning is issued that persons mailing money for veterans and pioneer licenses should first obtain application blanks from the license agencies, filling them out with report of the 1940 kill and other information, before mailing them to Portland. They will avoid delay in return of the licenses.

EXTENDS APPRECIATION

Mrs. Ralph I. Thompson extends appreciation of the fine treatment accorded her by Morrow county folks during her term as president of Oregon State Wool Growers auxiliary. Special mention is given to Mrs. W. O. Bayless for her excellent work as chairman of the ways and means committee, and to Mrs. Harold Cohn, who served so faithfully as secretary.

Mrs. Florence Strange of Arlington was a recent visitor at the M. J. Devin home, returning to her home last week end after a week's visit. She is a sister of Mrs. Devin.

Methodist church society will hold food sale, Sat., Dec. 14, 10:30 a. m., Case Furniture store. 2t.

Among the Pioneers

IS SHE OLDEST RESIDENT?

Mrs. Cora Burroughs of Rhea creek came to her father's homestead in what is now Morrow county in 1870. She was then 7 years old, having been born in the Willamette valley. She attended the first school in Heppner, a one-room school with one teacher. She has resided in the county continuously since for a record of 70 years. The countryside was largely waving bunchgrass when she arrived. Can anyone beat that for length of residence?

WAS AMONG FIRST BORN

Singularly enough, little thought was given to the fact that a member of the Gazette Times firm, Mrs. Cora Crawford, might be an eligible candidate when editorial conjecture as to who might be the oldest person now living in Morrow county to have been born within its confines, was made two weeks ago. Cora Spencer was born May 28, 1872, on the farm on Rhea creek now operated by Grant Olden. Her residence has been made continuously in the county since.
