

SOCIETY CHIT-CHAT

By JUNE SMITH

Twelve tables of cards were in play last Saturday at the party given for their ladies by the Elks. Held at the Lucas Place, the affair was in charge of Mrs. Garnet Barratt, Mrs. Phil Mahoney and Gene Ferguson, and the committee is to be congratulated on a very successful and enjoyable afternoon.

A door prize was won by Mrs. Steve Thompson, and prizes for the bridge play went to Mrs. Glenn Jones, high, Mrs. Earle Bryant, second and Mrs. William Bennett, consolation. In pinochle, Mrs. L. H. Smith won high score, Mrs. Gerald Cason, second, and Mrs. Walter Becket, consolation.

The rooms were attractively decorated with Christmas and floral pieces, and delicious refreshments were served at the afternoon's close.

A most colorful affair was the Elks dance held for members last Saturday evening at the club. Many new and lovely evening gowns were seen, and the floor show presented was very good. A buffet supper was served during the evening, and much credit should be given the committee, composed of Garnet Barratt, chairman, Gene Ferguson and Logie Richardson for the work they contributed to make the dance a most successful one.

The Rhea Creek grange will hold a Christmas party at the hall tomorrow evening, starting with a pot luck dinner, followed by a program and exchange of gifts at the Christmas tree. Mrs. Orrain Wright is in charge of the program.

Mrs. D. M. Ward entertained her contract club at her home last Saturday afternoon. Two tables of bridge were in play, with Mrs. C. W. McNamer winning high score, Mrs. Harriet Mahoney, consolations. Refreshments were served by the hostess at the close of play.

A joint installation by Eastern Star and Masons will be held at the club halls Monday evening, preceded by a dinner.

Mrs. Mark Merrill entertained members of the Kensington club with a Christmas party at her home last Monday afternoon. Mrs. George Howard was a guest. Following a luncheon, cards were played, and later gifts were exchanged around the Christmas tree.

Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Dick drove to Portland Sunday night, returning home last Wednesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Wilson of Monument were over night guests of Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Ward last Saturday, having driven here to attend the Elks lodge festivities of that day. Mr. Wilson is Mrs. Ward's brother.

The Red Cross knitting and sewing work was packed last Tuesday and sent to national headquarters. The ladies assisting in the packing of the bundles were Mrs. Charles Cox, Mrs. Anna Bayless, Mrs. D. M. Ward, Mrs. Charles Thomson, Mrs. J. J. Nys and Mrs. C. W. McNamer.

Ed Dick drove to Ritter Springs Wednesday to bring Kemp back to Heppner after a week of treatment there.

Predatory Animal Funds Are Coming

Approval by WPA of an allotment of $48,000 for a state-wide project to eradicate and control predatory animals by trapping, poisoning and other means has been given, according to a wire received by the state department of agriculture from Senator Holman's Washington office.

In the last biennium 21,164 predatory animals were taken in Oregon through the joint efforts of the state department of agriculture, WPA, game commission hunters and the U. S. Fish and Wild Life service.

In that period, $62,038 was approved each year by WPA for predatory animal control. Funds appropriated by the state and expended through the department are matched by the counties.

PP&L Assures Jobs To Service Employees

Members of the Pacific Power & Light company organization who volunteer or are called up for military training will be granted a year's leave of absence and assured restoration of their positions at the conclusion of their service, according to a company statement of national defense policy announced today by Ray Kinne, local agent.

The importance of utmost cooperation in national defense, from the standpoint both of military training and education and of mobilization of industry, is stressed in the policy statement. Through well-planned system development and interconnections, the company already is fully prepared to meet defense power needs in its territory.

Group life insurance coverage also will be extended during the one-year period of military service under an agreement reached with the insurance company. The full premium will be paid by the Pacific company during the leave period.

In addition, full pay for the customary vacation period falling during the year's leave of absence will be given the member of the organization when his leave starts.

In line with its plan to reinstate members of the organization in their old positions, or positions of equal status, upon expiration of the training period, the company announced that any individuals employed to fill vacancies will be taken on a purely temporary basis. A written understanding to that effect will be required of all such temporary employees.

La Verne Van Marter At The Dalles Home

La Verne Van Marter, infantile paralysis sufferer who has spent several months battling effects of a severe attack, has gone to the home of his father, L. Van Marter in The Dalles. He accompanied his father and wife to that city Sunday and will be at home to his many friends at 622 Fair street. Invitation was extended to all friends to stop whenever they are in The Dalles.

LaVerne underwent treatment for several months at Emanuel hospital in Portland, after being stricken at Pendleton two years ago. Though progress of the disease was stopped he was left without use of his legs and has only partial use of his arms. The affliction halted a brilliant athletic career at the University of Oregon where LaVerne made letters in four major sports in his freshman year, while also making a high scholastic record.
