long as travel continues on it," Judge Johnson added.

Speaking for the county court, Johnson said much time had been expended in attempting to gain funds for these needed road improvements and that he and the commissioners had at last been successful in obtaining the allotments.

The court appreciates the cooperation of the people regarding the roads, Judge Johnson stated, and anytime anyone has any suggestions, that are within reason, the county court will try to carry them out.

SERVICES AT GOOSEBERRY

Services will be held Sunday, December 29, at 10:30 a. m. at the Lutheran church in Gooseberry. The evening service, starting at 7:30, will include a Christmas program and tree. Harry W. Lundblad of Gresham will conduct the services.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank the neighbors and friends for their wonderful help and sympathy and beautiful floral tributes at the time of our bereavement.

MR. and MRS. EARL HUNT
MAGGIE HUNT

Recent guests at Hotel Heppner include S. K. Beeler, Pendelton, Bert Settlemier, in town from the Hugh Smith ranch for six weeks, George Beddow, East Oregonian representative, and Mr. James Nave and family of The Dalles.

LOCAL NEWS

Dickie Kinne, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Kinne, and Bobby Van Schoiack, son of Mr. and Mrs. Cleve Van Schoiack, were awarded their tenderfoot badges in Boy Scout work on December 16th. Mr. O. E. Hoover of Walla Walla, Blue Mountain Council Boy Scout executive, was in at that time, and held a short conference with the scout committee here, making the awards at that meeting.

W. H. French passed through Heppner Tuesday on his way home to the Hardman ranch after a visit to the coast. While there he saw the ship that wrecked off the coast at Barview near Tillamook. Mr. French spent 12 days at Ritter before going to the coast. He reported that the wind has knocked out the telephone line to Hardman.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Alfred arrived in Heppner the first of the week for a short visit. Mr. Alfred took leave of his duties last fall as district attorney for service in the army at Camp Murray. Mrs. Alfred has been assisting in public welfare work at Oregon City. They expected to spend the Christmas holidays at Silverton.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Becket are spending the Christmas holidays in San Diego with Mr. Becket's brother, Lt. Col. John Becket of the U. S. Marines. The Becket's plan to take in the Stanford-Nebraska Rose Bowl game while in California.

Dr. A. D. McMurdo reported that the present flu epidemic had evidently reached its peak and was subsiding. He said the epidemic was quite general, and although no real serious cases had been reported, the flu has been quite persistent.

Edna Crowe, an exchange student from Korea who is attending the U. of O., is visiting at the Claud Huston home in Eightmile as the guest of Jane Huston during the Christmas holidays.

Marriage licenses were issued last week at the county clerk's office to Rachel Forsythe and Ed Dick, Jr., both of Heppner, and Edna Stephens, Heppner, and Clarence Schoenerger, Spray.
