

SOCIETY CHIT-CHAT

By JUNE SMITH

Christmas brings perhaps more travelers and traveling than any holiday of the year.

Among the many who have been arriving in Heppner all this week are: Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Gaily of Pendleton, who are with Mrs. Gaily's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Hiatt; Mr. and Mrs. Vern Hanna and children of Dufur arrived Tuesday to be with Mrs. Hanna's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Beymer; other daughters of this family who arrived Tuesday with their families are Mr. and Mrs. William Massey of Redmond, Oregon, and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Bissett of Rufus. Mrs. Sara Booher of Lexington, mother of Mrs. Beymer spent Christmas day with the group.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Riggs and son Clark of Cottage Grove are guests of Mrs. Riggs' parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Clark.

Mr. and Mrs. George MacDuffee of Monument, parents of Mrs. Harold Buhman, are with the Buhmans for the holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Limbaugh of Portland, parents of Mrs. J. L. Hamlin, are with the Hamlins this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Bernard McMurdo of Portland are with the McMurdos here this week.

Mrs. P. A. Anderson, sister of Mrs. W. C. McCarty, is a visitor at the McCarty home, and the two collegians of the family, Frances and Paul, are home for the holidays.

Miss Hazel Ball of Baker, sister of Mrs. Frank Wilkinson, is visiting there, and the Wilkinson's son, Dick, is home from Corvallis.

Among those who have gone away for the holidays are Logie Richardson, who has joined his family in Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Ray Baum and children who are visiting with relatives in Yakima; Mr. and Mrs. Henry Perkins, visiting in Naches.

Mr. and Mrs. Phil Mahoney spent Christmas with Mr. and Mrs. J. Hyatt of Pendleton, who are Mrs. Mahoney's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Barlow and daughters, Lucille and Marie, left Tuesday for Portland, where they will spend Christmas holidays with relatives.

Mrs. Jap Crawford and two sons left Tuesday for Portland where they will be with Mrs. Crawford's family. Her brother, Martin King, and family of Los Angeles, who have many friends in Heppner, will also be in Portland with the family for the holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Woodfin left Monday for Portland for a week's visit.

Honoring their house guests, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Alfred, who were here from Saturday to Tuesday, Mr. and Mrs. Earle Bryant had a bridge party at their home last Monday evening. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Phil Mahoney, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Parker, Mr. and Mrs. Steve Thompson and Mr. and Mrs. Anson Rugg.

High score was won by Mr. Alfred, with Mr. Parker winning second. Refreshments were served by the hostess at the evening's end.

Mr. Alfred is stationed at Fort Murray at the present time, and Mrs. Alfred is employed at Oregon City. They expressed joy at being home for this short visit, and seeing many of their friends again.

The wedding of Miss Rachel Forsythe and Mr. Edwin Dick was held last Sunday afternoon at 1 p. m., at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Forsythe, at Ashland, Oregon. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Turnbull, in the presence of the immediate families of the couple. Miss Forsythe was dressed in her going-away dress of soldier blue, with red accessories, and wore a corsage of gardenias and fuschias. Corsages were also provided for all the feminine members of the party.

Mr. and Mrs. Dick left immediately following a wedding supper for a honeymoon trip, and will be at home in Heppner after the first of the year at the Devine apartments.

An out of town guest at the wedding was the bride's brother, Jack Forsythe of Wyoming, and Mrs. L. E. Dick of Heppner, mother of the bridegroom was also present, making a visit in Ashland from Friday to last Monday.

The dance given Saturday evening at the Elk's hall by the Firemen for the children's Christmas benefit was pronounced a very successful affair. It was especially enjoyable because so many students returned home for Christmas were there, and for others who were here for the holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Alfred were noticed among the dancers, as were Lee and Harold Scritsmier. Among the collegians were seen Shirley Watson, Maxine McCurdy, Len Gillman, Bill Barratt, Betty Happold and Harlan McCurdy.

Employees of the Safeway store held a Christmas party Wednesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bauers. Present were Mr. and Mrs. John Anglin, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Gentry, Lowell Ashbaugh, Clyde Bellows and Allan Gibb.

The evening was spent playing games, and an exchange of gifts held by the Christmas tree. A waffle supper was served at the close of the party.

Mrs. Charles Cox has made an appeal in behalf of the Red Cross for all sorts of buttons and bright trimmings to be used on the dresses being made for that organization.
