Temporarily unemployed workers in Oregon drew an aggregate of $4,099,925 in jobless insurance during 1940 compared to $4,052,888 in 1939 and $5,916,399 in 1938, according to a report by the state unemployment compensation commission. Claimants for jobless insurance in 1940 drew an average of $71.07 compared to an average of $88.29 in 1939, indicating a shorter period of unemployment during the past year. Employers contributed a total of $6,138,978 in payroll taxes last year compared to $5,816,830 in 1939 and $6,878,482 in 1938. The reserve in the commission's trust fund was up to slightly more than $10,000,000 on January 1, compared to $7,890,935 a year ago. It is expected to hit $12,000,000 within the next two months, members of the commission said.

NEWS VIEWS

By DR. WM. C. STRAM, O. D.

Well, we've just lived through one of the most exciting years that ever placed its brand on this frantic earth. The Nazis overran Europe like soft butter on toast, but were held for no gain by the waters of the English Channel. Churchill came up, Mussolini went down; Wendell Willkie and F. D. R. put on the most exciting political duel of modern times. Draft, taxes, the Greeks, King Carol, airplanes, Chamberlain, the Finns, the Duke of Windsor, Japan, propaganda, Coventry, the Dies Committee, Fifth Columnists, Laval, John L. Lewis, "Gone With the Wind," King Leopold, Charlie Chaplin, the Burma Road, James Cromwell, Secretary Hull, the Cincinnati Reds, Marshal Petain, Seabiscuit—all made headlines. And aspirin became a vital part of the national diet.

In Heppner, the new postoffice gave everyone a different destination each morning when going after the mail, and plenty to talk about while waiting for it, at least until the new wears off.

With the opening of a new school term, why not make sure your children are not going to suffer the penalties of poor vision during the coming months? Heavy school work, intense studying with weak eyes often cause headaches, tiredness, lack of vitality. For a thorough eye examination without charge, see Dr. Wm. C. Stram, O. D., 22 years experience. Satisfaction guaranteed. Stram Optical Co., 225 So. Main St., Phone 403, Pendleton, Ore.
