By JUNE SMITH

The Music club met Tuesday night with Mrs. Russell McNeill, Miss Marjorie Parker assisting the hostess. Miss Rose Liebrand acted as leader for the meeting, taking as her theme early American folk songs. These were illustrated with songs by Mrs. McNeill, Miss Jean McIlhinny, and piano solos by Mrs. J. O. Turner, Miss Parker and Mrs. A. H. Blankenship.

A turkey dinner at 6 o'clock is scheduled for members of the Masons and Eastern Star tomorrow night, followed by joint installation. Mrs. Etta Parker will be installed as worthy matron, succeeding Mrs. Madge Thomson.

The Morrow County Wool Growers auxiliary met last Friday at the Lucas Place for luncheon, election of officers and white elephant party. Sixteen members were present, and the following officers for the coming year elected: President, Mrs. B. C. Pinckney; vice president, Mrs. R. A. Thompson; secretary, Mrs. Orville Smith, and treasurer, Mrs. Ed Parker.

Joint installation of the Odd Fellows and Rebekahs was held last evening, with the following new officers: Odd Fellows: Noble Grand, D. R. Tash; vice grand, George Howard; secretary, E. L. Ayers, and treasurer, Thomas Wells. Rebekahs: Noble grand, Harriet Lundell; vice grand, Florence Green; secretary, Sadie Sigsbee, and treasurer, Lillian Turner.

Mrs. Earl Blake, Mrs. L. E. Dick and Mrs. D. M. Ward were among Heppner members of the Eastern Star who attended the installation at Ione last Friday night.

Mrs. A. H. Blankenship entertained the Kensington club at her home Wednesday afternoon.

A good time is promised all who attend the monthly ladies night to be given tonight at the Elks hall. Hostesses are Mrs. Earl Blake and Mrs. Norton Lundell, and in addition to card playing, there will be dancing and a clam feed.

The Episcopal auxiliary met last Thursday afternoon for election of officers with Mrs. Hanson Hughes and Mrs. Olive Frye, as hostesses.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wilkinson drove to Pendleton Wednesday, going on to Portland that evening for a stay of four or five days.

Harold Cohn left New Years day for Chicago, and other eastern points, including Iowa.

Mrs. Charles Thomson left Sunday for San Francisco, where she will visit for several months.

Mrs. Carl Young of Forest Grove is visiting here with Mr. and Mrs. Tom Wells.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Davidson and children of Los Angeles left Tuesday for their home, after visiting here with Mr. and Mrs. Harlan McCurdy. Mrs. McCurdy and Mr. Davidson are sister and brother.

Mr. and Mrs. Phil Mahoney and Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Pinckney drove to Pendleton Tuesday.

Harvey Miller will leave this week end for the state capital where he will begin his term as representative.

Mrs. Jap Crawford entertained the Wednesday bridge club at her home yesterday afternoon. The affair was a dessert bridge with two tables in play. Mrs. L. D. Tibbles won high score and Mrs. Crawford, second.

Honoring Mrs. Maurice Shepard, who will be in Salem for the duration of the legislative session, Mr. and Mrs. William Bennett and Mr. Shepard were co-hosts at a party at the Bennett home last Sunday evening. Following a chop suey supper, bridge was played with Mr. B. C. Pinckney winning high constant danger. He takes with him a nurse, housekeeper, and body-guard. He sends for his old college chum, now a struggling doctor to come to Hilltop Lodge to cure him. The doctor thinks he can cure him by merely scaring the fear out of him. He hires several amazing characters to come to the lodge. The millionaire turns out to be a hero! Tryouts for the play will probably be held at the end of this week with rehearsals starting next week.

FRESHMAN ASSEMBLY HELD

Friday, January 3, the postponed Christmas assembly was held, with the freshmen in charge.

First on their novel program was a "Dr. Quiz" feature with Walter Skuzeski as Dr. Quiz and Sam Sato as his assistant. Various members of the student body were called upon to answer questions. If they did not answer the question correctly, they had to pay the consequences. Candy was awarded each participant.

Next came the "Freshman's Smarty Party." Marjorie Sims fired questions at three freshman mathematical-wizards who were Florence Ann Beymer, Merlyn Kirk and Earl Bailey.

Last but not least, was the play set in the unusual style of the gay '90's. It was a story of how the hero saved the heroine from the villain. Louise Green played the part of Daisy Mae; Raymond Parrish as Manny Musclebound, and Russell O'Donnell, as the sinister villain.

After the program the presents were handed out by the sergeant at arms, Claud Snow, and his assistants, George Davidson, Bob Pinckney, and Jackson Cantwell. Meanwhile, Bud Blakely and Harry O'Donnell passed out candy and oranges.

SENIOR DANCE

Saturday night, after the basketball game, a large number of the students flocked to the music room for a dance. It seems everyone enjoyed himself, too. The floor was rather slick but who cares, especially when there's good music to dance to.

It is said some of the girls were disappointed when the Hermiston boys didn't stay. Better luck next time, they hope.

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT

In memory of Brother Clyde Wright, who died January 5, 1941.

Once again death hath summoned a Brother Odd Fellow, and the golden gateway to the Eternal City has opened to welcome him to his home. He has completed his work in the ministering to the wants of the afflicted, in shedding light into darkened souls and in bringing joy into the places of misery, and as his reward has received the plaudit "well done" from the Supreme Master.

And Whereas, the all-wise and merciful Master of the Universe has called our beloved and respected Brother home, and he having been a true and faithful member of our beloved Order, therefore be it

Resolved, that Lone Balm Lodge No. 82, I. O. O. F. of Hardman, in testimony of her loss, drape its Charter in mourning for thirty days and that we tender to the family of our deceased brother our sincere condolence in their deep affliction and that a copy of these resolutions be sent to the family.

Sabin Hastings, Henry Knighten, John M. Hastings, committee.

HYBRID CORNS YIELD WELL

Hillsboro. — Yields obtained this year by hybrid corn growers in Washington county have averaged from 15 to 40 bushels more grain per acre than were obtained from most of the open pollinated varieties, reports Pamer Torvend, the assistant county agent. Occasionally a grower had hybrid corn which failed to mature properly, usually because a variety not suited to Oregon conditions were used. Oregon-grown hybrid corn seed of several varieties is now available.
