WILLOWS GRANGE NEWS

By MARY LUNDELL
Dancing was enjoyed by the old timers last Saturday night when Ed Powl, Harry Yarnell, Algott Lundell and O. L. Lundell, Don Heliker and Kenneth Lundell vied in recalling the tunes of yester-year. Others assisted with the music and everyone was saying, "Let's do this again."

Next Saturday night there will be initiation in the first and second degrees. A class of ten candidates is in waiting and we trust that all will be present for the exemplification of the degrees.

Later in the month the third and fourth degrees will be given, also a practice is called for the fifth degree.

Morrow County Pomona grange will meet with Lexington grange on Saturday, April 5. A program of interest is prepared by the lecturer. Moving pictures depicting the Massey-Harris machinery in action, and other features of unusual interest to this particular farming section.

Fourth degree pins are again being given away by Willows lecturer to members. To receive a pin, the one whose name is drawn must be present to receive it. The February pin went to Ivar Nelson. Next Saturday evening the pin will be drawn for March.

A dance is slated for Willows hall on Saturday night, March 29. Good music.
