SOCIETY CHIT-CHAT By JUNE SMITH

Mrs. Richard Lawrence was hostess to her duplicate club yesterday afternoon at the Lucas Place. The affair was a dessert bridge with Mrs. C. W. McNamer, Mrs. Fred Lucas, Mrs. W. O. Bayless and Mrs. Lawrence high team.

Mrs. W. C. Hayes and children of Portland are visiting Mrs. Hayes' parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Nickerson, this week.

Mrs. L. D. Tibbles entertained the Wednesday club at her home at dessert bridge yesterday. High score was won by Mrs. Jap Crawford and second by Mrs. J. G. Thomson, Jr.

Miss Nona Howell, daughter of Mr. Pirl Howell of Heppner, and Mr. Kenneth A. McKenzie, son of Mrs. Elsie McKenzie of Eugene, were married Saturday, March 8, in Lewiston, Idaho. The Rev. W. E. Caughlan performed the ceremony at the Methodist parsonage there, with Harold Pace, of Lewiston and Mrs. Caughlan as witnesses. Miss Howell wore a navy blue ensemble with pink accessories. The couple returned to Heppner Monday, and will make their home here until summer, which they will spend in Eugene.

Mark Merrill left Wednesday for Portland, where he will stay until Thursday evening.

Mrs. Dave Wilson entertained her duplicate club at Mrs. Lucas' Place Tuesday evening. The winning team was composed of Mrs. Wilson, Mrs. Phil Mahoney, Mrs. Harold Cohn and Mrs. Agnes Curran. Refreshments were served at the close of play.

In honor of Mrs. Harriet Mahoney, who plans to leave soon for a visit in California, Mrs. Phil Mahoney entertained six tables, of bridge at her home last Monday afternoon. Mrs. L. E. Dick won high score, Mrs. Glen Jones second, and Mrs. Claude Graham consolation. Refreshments were served at the close of play.

Ladies Night will be this evening at the Elks hall, according to Norton Lundell, program chairman. Mrs. Norton Lundell and Mrs. Earle Bryant are to be hostesses, and pinochle and bridge will be in play for the ladies. A clam feed is promised for the evening, and there will be dancing. There will also be a door prize.

The Episcopal auxiliary met this afternoon at the Parish House with Mrs. Joe Nys and Mrs. Josie Jones as hostesses.

Mrs. C. W. McNamer entertained the contract bridge club at a luncheon Saturday at the Christian church. Later bridge was played at her home with Mrs. L. E. Bisbee receiving high and Mrs. Fred Lucas low for club members, and Mrs. F. B. Nickerson high and Mrs. S. M. Morgan low for guests. Others present were Mrs. J. O. Rasmus, Mrs. W. P. Mahoney, Mrs. Mark Merrill, Mrs. W. O. Bayless, Mrs. Frank Wilkinson, Mrs. Joe Nys, Mrs. W. E. Prunyn and Mrs. W. O. Dix.

Mrs. Harvey Miller left last Saturday for Portland, where she has been visiting this week. Mr. Miller will return with her this week end.

Mr. and Mrs. John G. Clouston of Lakeview have been transferred to Pendleton this last week. Mrs. Clouston is a sister of Mrs. Loyal Parker, and Mr. Clouston is associated with the forest service.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Jones and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Blake entertained ten couples at a cafeteria supper at the Jones home last Sunday evening. Door prizes were won by Mrs. Ted Smith of Ione for the ladies and L. E. Dick of Heppner for the men.

Mr. and Mrs. Orville Smith entertained the Kennel club at their home for supper last Sunday evening. Three tables of bridge were in play, with Mrs. Vawter Parker winning high score for the ladies, and Phil Mahoney high for the men.

Adah night, honoring the past

Adahs of the Eastern Star, will be a feature of the meeting of that organization planned for tomorrow evening at the hall. Refreshments will be served.

Mr. and Mrs. Gene Ferguson drove to Portland Friday to attend the funeral of D. R. Thompson of Portland. Mr. Thompson was the father of Enid and Virginia Thompson, who visit here with the Fergusons frequently.

Pirl Howell left Tuesday for Portland to attend a sales meeting. He has completed his quota of selling for January and February and is eligible for a new Ford car to be given away by the company.

The Bookworms met Tuesday at Mrs. J. G. Thomson, Jr.'s home. "The Giant Joshua," by Maurine Whipple, was reviewed by Mrs. L. E. Dick.

A turkey dinner was served to 18 boys and their coach at the basketball banquet given the team by their mothers at the Pinckney home last Friday. Mrs. B. C. Pinckney, Mrs. Ray Ferguson, Mrs. Garnet Barratt, Mrs. Robert Knox, Mrs. John Skuzeski and Mrs. Ray Drake gave the dinner, and ice cream was furnished by Claude Cox.

The table was decorated with purple and gold, the school colors, with spring daffodils, and basketball placecards made by Claudine Drake. Each boy gave a toast.

The American Legion auxiliary met Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Gene Ferguson. It was decided to postpone the birthday dinner planned for Friday because of the illness of Mrs. Charles Cox, the district president. Voluntary registration of all members on Saturday from 1 to 5 at the Harry Tamblin home is to be held.
