

Local News

Among Monument people visiting the city Monday for funeral services for the late Frank M. Gabler were Mr. and Mrs. Dempsey Boyer and family, Oscar Shaefer, Claude Crouch and son, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Cork, Mr. and Mrs. Meade Gilman, Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Mulkey, W. J. Gollyhorn, Joe Simas, John Simas, George Stirritt, Fred Shank, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Durst, Mr. and Mrs. Rho Bleakman, Mr. and Mrs. George McDuffee, Mr. and Mrs. N. D. Musgrave, Marvin DeVore, Lewis Neil, Ed Chinouth, Wade Crouch, C. N. Wilson, Mrs. Miles Gilman, Bert Howard, Emery Potter, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Munkers, Vivian Hamilton, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Legler, Dennis Kink, Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Bales, Mrs. L. B. Fleming, Mr. Cookson, Lawrence Cochran, Mr. and Mrs. M. Cupper, Mrs. Emil Sweek, Leo Flowers, Johnnie Cox, George and Gilbert Burk, Johnny Stussi, Norman Caverhill, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Enright, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Slocum, Clyde Cox and Wilma, Cecil Mabee, Lee Neal, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Leathers and Grace, Earl Ridgway, John Contrye, Georgie Rhea Neal, Dewey Tranter, Mr. and Mrs. Alton McBride, Ole Stubblefield, C. R. Peterson.

Harvey Miller reports finishing plowing at his north Lexington operations just before the rain of last Thursday. New grain on his place is knee high and jointed, a very heavy stand and free of weeds, typical of most fields in the county at this season.

Ralph Reade from Monument was a visitor in the city last Friday.

STAR Reporter

FRIDAY-SATURDAY

THE ARKANSAS JUDGE

with Weaver Brothers and Elviry, Roy Rogers, Spring Byington, Homespun drama at its best.

—Plus—

TEXAS RANGERS RIDE AGAIN

with John Howard, Ellen Drew, Akim Tamiroff, May Robson, Brod Crawford, C. Grapewin

As thrilling a tale of the gun-roaring West as ever leaped across the screen.

SUNDAY-MONDAY

TOBACCO ROAD

with Charley Grapewin, Marjorie Rameau, Gene Tierney, William Tracy, Eliz. Patterson, Slim Summerville

The picturization of a phenomenal play—the story of "Jeeter" Lester and his backwoods clan.

TUESDAY

Bargain Night

Adults—20c; 2 Children—10c

MEET THE CHUMP

with Hugh Herbert, Anne Nagel, Shemp Howard

Hugh Herbert surpasses, in this comedy, all his previous highs in "woo-woo" wit.

WEDNESDAY-THURSDAY

BACK STREET

with Charles Boyer, Margaret Sullivan, Rich. Carlson, Frank McHugh, Frank Jenks, Tim Holt

Based on the famous love story by Fannie Hurst.

PLUS—

THIRD DIMENSIONAL MURDER
Everyone participates in this thrill sensation of the year. Get your glasses at the door.

Dr. L. D. Tibbles returned home Monday from a three weeks' vacation motor trip to Los Angeles. His family went on to Missouri to spend the summer at the home of Mrs. Tibbles' parents. While in the south Dr. Tibbles and family helped celebrate the golden wedding anniversary of his parents, and took in many points of interest including Catalina island and Tia Juana.

C. J. D. Bauman and Robert C. Wightman were in Portland for several days this week, attending sessions of a state Royal Arch Masons conference as delegates from the local chapter.

J. G. Barratt motored to Portland Tuesday accompanied by Dick Hoyt, son of Mr. and Mrs. Palmer Hoyt, who was returning to his home in the city after a ten day visit here.

Miss Teresa Breslin, teacher in the Hermiston schools, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Breslin, last week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Tress McClintock and baby son were visitors in the city Saturday from their Dry Fork farm.

Bruce Bothwell is reported as quite ill from an attack that struck him suddenly last Sunday, affecting

Rhea Creek News

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Parker were visiting at the home of Mrs. Parker's parents. Mr. and Mrs. Clive Huston. They returned to Portland on Friday.

A surprise party was given for Marguerite Glavey at the Liberty school last Thursday afternoon. The occasion was Miss Glavey's birthday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Suter spent their spring vacation at the home of Mrs. Suter's brother, Harley Anderson.

Mr. and Mrs. Charley Becket gave a birthday dinner Sunday for their grand daughter, Nancy Hana. Relatives from Fossil, Heppner and Lexington were present.

The Lutheran Missionary society met at the home of Mrs. Claude Huston on Tuesday, April 15, to tack quilts. Three quilts were tacked for Mrs. Huston.

H. E. C. will be held at the home of Mrs. Julia Carlson on April 25 instead of the 24th, as previously announced. There will be a pot luck dinner at noon.

Walter Becket and son Lawrence movement of one side of his body.

W. H. French was in the city Tuesday from Blue Mountain farm south of Hardman.

Chester Brown and Woodrow Morris from the Monument CCC camp are visitors in the city today.

Mrs. L. G. Atherton of Vale arrived Monday for a visit at the home of her sister, Mrs. F. S. Parker.

were visitors in Pendleton last Friday.

The Rhea Creek H. E. C. are selling gladiola bulbs to raise money for their club. Mrs. Carrie Beckett has charge of this committee.

Mr. and Mrs. John Bergstrom and children, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Beckett and Lawrence were dinner guests at the Clive Huston home on Sunday.

Dinner guests at the Walter Beckett home on Saturday evening honoring Mr. and Mrs. Suter were Mr. and Mrs. Charley Beckett, Mr. and Mrs. Harley Anderson, Miss Nancy Hanna, Lawrence Beckett, besides the hosts and honor guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Charley Beckett were business visitors in Fossil on Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Orian Wright visited at the Walter Beckett home on Tuesday.

IRRIGON NEWS

By MRS. W. C. ISOM

Mrs. Edith Puckett and daughter, Mrs. Ivan Woods and children from Portland are visiting at the home of Mrs. Puckett's sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Haddock.

A party of young folks charivari-ed Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Rutledge on Wednesday evening. They are at the home of his parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Fagerstrom from Idaho arrived Saturday to assist with the revival meetings being held this week at the Pentecostal church.

The Rev. George Brown of Prairie City held services at the Pentecostal church last Friday evening.

Ladd Sherman, school superintendent, attended a conference in Spokane from Wednesday until Saturday of last week.

B. D. Cooper and family from Ocean Lake visited his sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Chauncey Grimm, Saturday night and Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. James Arnberg visited Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Gerton at Milton-Freewater Sunday.

Fred Caldwell was a Sunday visitor at the home of his sister, Mrs. Potts, at Umatilla. His mother, Mrs. Belle Caldwell, who is staying with her daughter, Mrs. Potts, at present is much improved in health.

Mrs. George Langdon and a friend from Athena visited Mr. and Mrs. John Volle and family Sunday.

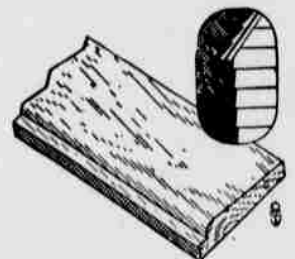

Mr. and Mrs. Darrel Cork and daughter Jean visited his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Isom, Sunday.

LUMBER Supplies

GET SPRING NEEDS NOW!

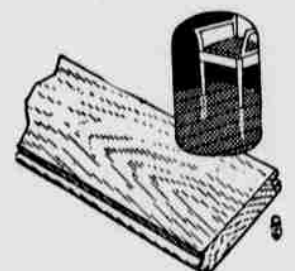

If you've plans for a lovelier more comfortable home this year, be sure to include our lumber. Our quality materials insure a good job . . . a job that will last.

LUMBER

Siding—Sheathing—Shiplap—Plywood—Joists—Studs—Lumber for Every Purpose

FLOORING

Oak Flooring—Fir Flooring—All Grades and Thicknesses—Economically Priced

MILLWORK

Doors—Windows—Cabinets—Screens—Wood Trim—Coving—All Sizes—All Grades—All Prices

TUM-A-LUM Lumber Co.

Time Moves

and so have we . . . .

★ FORMAL OPENING SATURDAY

. . . We hope you'll like our bright new little store . . . We're located again right next to the postoffice . . We want you to come in and look it over . . . In keeping with the times, we have finished our new store in the latest of fashion; also in keeping with the times, we are showing the latest fashions in jewelry . . . And remember, we always want to help you KEEP THE RIGHT TIME, whether it be with a new timepiece or by putting the one you have in the proper order . . .

PETERSON'S