Army Remount Wants Horses From Owners

Additional information from the state department of agriculture on the purchase of horses by the Army Remount service received this week lists Thursday, May 8, as the receiving date for places located in this vicinity. Named are Long Creek at 8 a. m., Ukiah at 10 a. m., and Penleton at Round-Up grounds at 1 p. m. on that date.

Breeders will be given preference over dealers in the purchases of horses for defense needs, says the release. All horses must meet specifications: gentleness; good flesh and good health; good movers at walk, trot and gallop; some breeding, either good rugged thoroughbreds or well made half-breds.

Horses bought must be geldings, 4 to 8 years old; 15 to 16 hands in height; 975 to 1,150 pounds; and bay, brown, black or chestnut in color. Prices range from $150 to $175. Owners are advised not to bring mares, as only very outstanding mares with registration papers will be considered.

Additional information may be had from the county agent.
