Brumfield Sentenced 22 Years on 3 Counts

Arraigned in circuit court Tuesday on charge of theft of auto, in addition to previous charges of larceny of residence and larceny of warehouse, Ralph Brumfield permitted a direct information to be filed by District Attorney P. W. Mahoney, entered plea of guilty and was sentenced to a total of 22 years in the state penitentiary by Judge C. L. Sweek. He was given ten years on the larceny of warehouse charge, 7 years on the larceny of residence charge and five years on theft of auto charge, the sentences to run consecutively.

Brumfield, 22 years of age, is reported to have spent 13 years of his life in reform school and penitentiary. He was previously sentenced to four years in the penitentiary from this county, of which time he served two years and seven months.

His latest charge arose from taking and wrecking the Don Jones automobile here last week. Previous charges arose from a theft from a house in Ione and from theft from the Interior warehouse here.

Brumfield was taken to Salem Tuesday evening by Sheriff C. J. D. Bauman.
