Closing Exercises for Ione Seniors Slated

By MRS. ELMER GRIFFITH

Baccalaureate services were held at the Christian church Sunday morning for the class of '41. Rev. W. W. Head delivered the sermon and Frank Jensen played the processional and recessional. A group from the high school sang "Thanks Be to God" and "Dear Land of Freedom." The church was decorated by members of the sophomore class, and the sophomore girls acted as ushers. Rev. Mr. Head was formerly pastor of the Congregational church here and for the last ten years has returned annually for this event. He also acted in that capacity many times before that. He returned to his home in Cathlamet, Wash., Monday.

A pot luck dinner and family party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Christopherson following baccalaureate services Sunday, honoring Gloria Jean, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Christopherson. Guests present were Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Petersen, Elmer Petersen, Melvin Brady, Mrs. Ethel Fellers and Iva May, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Ball and family, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Bryson, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Young and grandson, Elmer Ball and family, of Ione; Mr. and Mrs. Lester Schafer of Mikkalo, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Agee and June Hubbell of Boardman, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Ledbetter of Lexington. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Petersen and LeRoy of Hermiston, and Mrs. Anna Christopherson and granddaughter of Portland. Besides her grandparents, the E. W. Christophersons and Mrs. Ralph Ledbetter, little Gloria Jean was honored with the presence of the following great grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Agee, Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Petersen, and Mrs. Anna Christopherson.

Miss Emmer Maynard died here at the home of her niece, Mrs. Bert Mason, at 11 o'clock Monday morning. She had been ill for several days, but her death was quite unexpected. She was 76 years old, and a native of Iowa, but had lived here for a number of years. The body will be shipped to the old home at Maynard, Iowa, for interment, and Mrs. Mason and her sister, Mrs. Charles Dezell of Spokane, will accompany it.

Graduation exercises will be held here this Thursday evening. The address will be delivered by Dean J. R. Jewell. Charlotte Cannon will be valedictorian and Eileen Sperry, salutatorian. Other members of the class are Walter Corley, Clyde and Claude Pettyjohn, John Doherty, Melvin Brady and Ernest Christopherson.

The sheriff and deputy were called to Ione Sunday to investigate the theft of money from the schoolhouse. Entrance had been gained by breaking the glass in a back door with a heavy implement, and the same thing was used to pry open the cabinet in the principal's office where a sum of petty cash belonging to the school district was kept. Mr. Hummel estimated the amount to be between $12 and $14. Further investigation made by the sheriff Monday revealed that more than two dollars has been taken from Mrs. Brown's room. No arrests have been made.

Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Rice and granddaughter, Eleanor, of Lexington visited at the J. A. Troedson home Friday.

The Marvel reunion was held last Sunday at Boyd. Those attending from here were Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Troedson, Mr. and Mrs. Wate Crawford and Harland, and Mr. and Mrs. Vernice Crawford and family.

Foster Odom is in Portland receiving medical attention. His wife joined him there the first of the week to attend to some business matters. Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Lundell and daughter, Miss Mildred, are in Baker this week. Mr. Lundell was a delegate from Ione to the grand lodge of the I. O. O. F., and the ladies were delegates to the Rebekah assembly.

Members of the eighth grade who will receive their diplomas Thursday evening are Dorothy Bergstrom, Dorothy Farrens, Eunice Peterson, Mary Barnett, Darlene Biddle, Maxine Allyn, Alton Yarnell, James Barnett, Robert Rietmann, Robert Lawler, Robert Crowell, and Arthur Stefani.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest C. Heliker went to Portland Monday where Mr. Heliker was to enter a hospital for an operation on his injured foot. Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Bryson are in charge at the Saddle Butte ranch during their absence.

Pupils in the Ione school have suffered several casualties in the final week. Darlene Biddle, daughter of Mrs. Vernon Brown, fell while climbing over a fence Sunday and broke her leg. James Doherty fell at school while doing the high jump Monday and broke the bone in his upper arm, and Arthur Stefani is about on crutches following an infection in his leg.
