

Mrs. Duvall's Father Passes at Umatilla

J. W. Waid, 89, 35-year pioneer of this section and father of Mrs. H. L. Duvall of Lexington, passed away at his home in Umatilla last Thursday. Funeral services were held at that place Sunday with commitment in the Echo cemetery. Mrs. Duvall was with her father at time of passing and with her family was present for the final rites.

James Washington Waid was born at Savannah, Tenn., October 4, 1851. When a small boy he moved with his parents to Aurora, Mo., where he lived for several years. He served with the Texas Rangers in 1874, married Theresy E. Cox at McDowell, Mo., August 6, 1875, and would have celebrated his 65th wedding anniversary had he lived until the coming August.

To the union were born six children. The oldest son, Joseph E., died in 1910. Mr. Waid came with his family to Oregon in 1906 and settled on a homestead north of Lexington. A few years later he sold out and went to Stanfield where he had resided ever since. He accepted Christian faith when a young man and was a lover of his home and family. He enjoyed unusually good health until about two years ago when he began to fail. He passed away at his home Thursday evening, May 22, aged 89 years, 7 months and 18 days.

He leaves to mourn his loss his wife, three daughters, Miss Lenna Waid of Stanfield, Mrs. Lula White of Ukiah and Mrs. Amanda Duvall of Lexington; two sons, Claude and Vernon of Stanfield; four brothers, R. L. Waid of Yakima, Wn., J. F. Waid of Billings, Mo., P. L. Waid of Bristow, Okla., and W. J. Waid of Liberty, Mo.; one sister, Mrs. Janie Gibson of Jay, Okla.; six grandchildren, three great grandchildren and a large number of other relatives and friends.

Funeral services were conducted in Stanfield Sunday afternoon at the Presbyterian church by Rev. Cecil Warner of Hermiston. The many floral tributes were mixed with a profusion of red, his favorite color. The church quartet sang "The Old Rugged Cross," "Face to Face," and a solo, "That City Four Square." Four grandsons and two nephews were pallbearers: Kenneth and Lloyd Waid of Stanfield, Vivian White of Ukiah, Ralph Wickersham and Lester Tubbs of Portland, and Cecil Gibson of Yakima, Wash. Burial was in the Echo cemetery with Folsoms of Pendleton in charge.

GOOD NIGHT

Sleep on beloved, sleep, and take thy rest;
Lay down thy head upon thy Saviour's breast;
We loved thee well, but Jesus loved thee best,
Good-night! Good-night, Good-night!

Ad Inskip and daughter Nona accompanied Mrs. Inskip and daughter Alene to Pendleton Monday, where they took the train for Tulsa, Okla. They will visit a sister of Mrs. Inskip, Mrs. Alice Jones, through the summer.

Brand Book Ready For Distribution

The 1941 Oregon brand book, containing the thousands of brands that were re-recorded in 1940, is now ready for distribution to livestock owners of the state. The book is available through the state department of agriculture, animal division. There is a one dollar charge, which is the cost of compiling and printing.

This is the first brand book published in Oregon since 1918. It contains some 6,000 brands, mostly those used on cattle, horses and sheep. Poultry markings are recorded also.

Through courtesy of the Oregon Cattle and Horse Raisers' association, every member of that organization in good standing will receive a free copy of the brand book. The association-purchased books are in a special red binding.

The best medium for selling or trading is a G-T want ad.
