EOCE Summer School Announces Courses

Eastern Oregon College of Education, La Grande, May 29.—Advanced courses in music, art, dramatics, curriculum, elementary supervision and administration, remedial teaching and world problems will feature the first summer session at Eastern Oregon College of Education which will open Monday, June 9.

Course work toward the B.S. degree in elementary education will be offered and numbers of former graduates have already tentatively enrolled for their degree work this summer. Two visiting instructors in addition to the regular faculty will give the largest offering in recent years. Plans have been made for evening educational forums, a musical production, demonstrations by supervising teachers in the training school, a visual aids conference, mountain excursions and several college social events.

Special courses of interest to practical-minded teachers include the observation of teaching in the Ackerman demonstration school, band and orchestra management, creative writing, play production, junior high school, and the teaching of elementary school science, a subject to be introduced into Oregon elementary schools for the first time next fall.

Of special interest to school executives will be the practical courses offered to fulfill the requirements for administrators credentials in Oregon.

U. of O. Schedules Summer Sessions

University of Oregon, Eugene, May 29.—Six weeks of summer school, in the heart of the Willamette valley where extra-curricular vacations may be interspersed with hours of study, is being offered by the University of Oregon thirty-seventh annual summer session beginning June 16 and continuing until July 26.

A post session of four weeks will be held from July 28 to August 22. Work in the summer sessions—for which no extra fee for out-of-state residents will be charged—is equivalent in character, method, and credit value to the work of the regular academic year.

Students will register for the six-weeks Eugene session on Monday, June 16. Classes will begin Tuesday morning, June 17, in accordance with the schedule printed in the back of the catalog now being mailed to those who request it. Examinations will be held on Thursday and Friday, July 24 and 25. Post session registration will be on Monday, July 28, classes beginning the same morning.

The curriculum will include an unusually wide variety of courses, with those in English, education, physical education, languages, and music offering the broadest courses. The half-million-dollar University of Oregon library, equipped with the latest instructional methods and equipment, will feature almost a dozen courses in library methods, of special value to teachers and prospective teachers.

The faculty of 85 will include a large number of regular University of Oregon professors, who will be joined by a number of authorities in their respective fields from educational centers of all parts of the west. Among this latter group will be Dr. Hugh Biller, professor of philosophy at the University of California at Los Angeles; Dr. Ernest R. Hilgard, professor of psychology, Stanford university, and Dr. Roy F. Nichols, professor of history, University of Pennsylvania.

Additional information concerning the two sessions may be obtained by writing Dr. Dan E. Clark, director, University of Oregon summer sessions, University of Oregon, Eugene.

STRAWBERRIES GET O. K.

A break for strawberry growers, as well as those who have a yen for this fruit, has come with the discovery by food specialists that strawberries are almost as good a source of vitamin C as tomato juice. Hereafter when one partakes of his favorite dish of strawberries shortcake or strawberries and cream, he need not feel merely that he is pleasantly satisfying his appetite, but can feel the virtue which comes from eating something that is good for him nutritionally. Some are even going so far as to say that it will be patriotic to eat strawberries in season and leave the tomato juice for defense food purposes.

NOTICE TO PERSONAL PROPERTY TAX PAYERS

On June 14th the new personal property tax law becomes effective. This law makes it mandatory that the sheriff issue warrants against persons whose personal property taxes are delinquent. These warrants after service upon the taxpayer, if not paid, are filed with the county clerk and by him placed upon the judgment docket which thereafter becomes a lien upon any real or personal property owned by the person against whom the warrant is issued and subject to enforcement as any other execution in a court of record.

Any person having delinquent personal taxes should call at the tax collector's office and get their taxes straightened before this law goes into effect.
