SUCCESS

By J. A. Anglin

(Written to a high school graduate.)
As you travel down the pathway
Of life's rough and rugged road
May each night your feet be guided
To a great and blest abode.
May your days be filled with sunshine;
May the clouds all disappear;
May the Maker crown your efforts
And dispell all doubt and fear.
Though miles and miles may part us
In the days that lie ahead,
May your thoughts be guided rightly
And your life its fragrance shed.
So I wish you naught but gladness,
Peace and happiness untold;
May your path be filled with blessings,
Leading you to heavens fold.

J. A. Anglin to End 11 Years Service Here

J. A. Anglin, manager of the local Safeway store for the last 11 years, has tendered his resignation as manager here effective July 15, and will move to Yakima to join Mrs. Angline and Rachel who have been there since the first weeks of February.

Mr. Anglin has been offered a position at that place with the same company and also a couple of good positions with large independent merchants, but he has not fully disclosed his plans. Says Mr. Anglin: "I regret very much bidding farewell to the people of Heppner and Morrow county for I have surely learned to love and respect them all, and will leave with the best of admiration and respect for everyone and fully trust the feeling shall be mutual."

The Anglins have property in Yakima which requires some of their attention, and Mr. Anglin says after all its our home and must be looked after all.

Many people have wondered about Mr. Anglin, if he did anything else besides work. Mr. Anglin answers this question for himself. "Yes, I have one hobby at least that stands out above any other in my life. That is writing songs and poems. I have now quite a book of songs and poems I have written since coming to Heppner, many of which I have sung and read in some of local and out-of-town churches."

Among some of Mr. Anglin's most popular songs are "The Aeroplane Song," "Daddy Dear Pal of Mine," "The Garden of Flowers," "Mother Mine," "Sweeter, Sweeter Than Them All," "Christ the King Eternal" and many others. Mr. Anglin is a great lover of good music and loves to take part in all sacred programs, and has been called upon to sing at many funerals in Heppner during his sojourn here. One of Mr. Anglin's poems will be found in this issue of the Gazette Times.

Mr. Anglin's successor has not yet been named.

4-H HOMEMAKERS MEET

The Happy Homemakers 4-H club met at the home of L. Carlson on Thursday, May 26. Eunice Peterson and Betty Baker gave a demonstration in table setting. Dorothy Bergstrom and Mildred Carlson gave one in bed making. Those present were Marjory Peterson, Barbara Ledbetter, Eunice Peterson, Dorothy Bergstrom, Betty and Helen Fay Baker, and Mildred Carlson. Carolyn Bergstrom and Kathryn Burns were absent. The next meeting will be at Oscar Peterson's, Thursday, June 12. All members are urged to be present.—Barbara Ledbetter, reporter.

Naval Commissions Given 6 OSC Students

Oregon State College—Six commissions as ensigns in the naval reserve have been granted six engineering students here under a plan to take trained college men into the navy immediately to serve in technical positions. The six reserves will be called to active duty immediately upon graduation, and, after a period of special instruction, will be assigned to shore work inspecting naval construction projects, for which they have had special training here.

The following were presented with commissions by Commander A. J. Bryholdt of Seattle: Howard Carlson and James Powell of Portland; Lewis Melson, Salem; William Schroeder, Marshfield; Burrell Godard, Tillamook, and Ralph Larson, Corvallis.

PIONEER RESIDENT PASSES

Mrs. Elizabeth Stamper, sister of Mrs. B. F. Swaggart, died at the home of her daughter in Huntington, May 25. Interment was in Athena May 28. She was born at Jacksonville, Oregon, the daughter of William and Elizabeth Bush in 1863, and in 1880 married James C. Stamper of Athena where the home was made for many years. Following Mr. Stamper's death, Mrs. Stamper removed to Portland and for some time had been at Huntington with her daughter. She had visited at the Swaggart home many times. Besides the sister and daughter, Mrs. Lyle Bryant, she is survived by one grandson, Forest Bryant.

Mrs. C. P. Brown returned the end of the week from Los Angeles where she visited her son Paul.

Farmer's Share of Loaf To Increase Slightly

That wheat growers will not get an unjust percentage of the cost of a loaf of bread due to the 85 per cent loan act, signed this week by the president, was declared the following day by Rep. Walter M. Pierce on the house floor. As quoted on page 4558 of the Congressional Record, Mr. Pierce said:

"I have here a very interesting break-down of figures showing the division of the money received for $100 worth of bread in Washington, D. C. The baker gets $55.42, the retailer gets $19.28, the wheat grower gets $13.25, the miller $7.23, transportation $3.62, and the wheat broker $1.20 out of that $100 worth of bread. In other words, in round numbers, the baker gets 55 percent, the retailer 19 percent, the wheat grower 13 percent, the miller 7 percent, transportation 5 percent, the broker 1 percent. This shows full justification for the president's signature to the bill yesterday allowing the farmers wheat loans of 85 percent of parity.

"That will mean that the increased return to the farmer will only be about 1/2 cent per loaf or about $6.50 on $100 worth of bread and that he will still get only about 1-3 as much as the baker."

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT

In memory of Sister Anna Saling who died June 1, 1941.

Again that unwelcome yet relentless visitor, death, hath entered the portals of our lodge room and summoned a dear sister to the beautiful home beyond. Her zealous work in the interests of our beloved Order, and her life, laden with gentleness and kind deeds, has won for her the plaudit of the good Master, and will cause her name to be cherished in the affectionate memory of our lodge.

And whereas, the all-wise Father hath called our beloved sister to the New Jerusalem, where "happily she hath heard the signal of her release on the bells of the Holy City, the chimes of eternal peace." And she having been a faithful and ardent worker in the teaching of Friendship, Love and Truth, therefore be it

Resolved, that Mistletoe Rebekah Lodge No. 25, in testimony of her loss, and to express Rebekah love, drape its Charter in mourning for thirty days and that we tender to the family of our deceased sister our sincere condolence and that a copy of these resolutions be sent to the family.

4-H Club Session Looms as Better Than Best at OSC

More 4-H club members than ever before are planning to attend this year's two-week summer session at the college, according to preliminary lists received from the various counties by H. C. Seymour, state club leader. The session opens this year on Monday, June 9, and closes Friday, June 20.

While the preliminary lists show close to 2300 signed up now, the usual reduction will mean an actual attendance of more than 2000, says Seymour.

Housing plans have been completed, with the engagement of all of the halls and 30 sororities and fraternities to house the boys and girls. The boys will live in the big men's dormitory and in 10 of the fraternities and sororities. The girls will occupy both Waldo and Snell halls and 20 of the houses.

New program developments this year include the provision of various electives for older members who have been here before. They will be able to carry a full schedule of classes without having to repeat. Three men are coming to the campus as representatives of the National Rifle association to conduct classes in the care and use of firearms. This is a new feature designed to develop both proficiency and safety in the use of firearms common throughout the rural regions.

Although citizenship is always stressed at these summer schools, it will be given additional emphasis this year, says Seymour. Flag day exercises will be held as usual, with E. B. McNaughton, president of the governor's state-wide economic council, as the speaker.

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT

In memory of Brother J. L. Yeager who died June 2, 1941.

Once again death hath summoned a Brother Odd Fellow, and the golden gateway to the Eternal City has opened to welcome him to his home.

He has completed his work in the ministering to the wants of the afflicted, in shedding light into darkened souls and in bringing joy into the places of misery, and as his reward he has received the plaudit "Well done" from the Supreme Master.

And whereas, the merciful Master has called our beloved Brother home,

Be it therefore resolved, that Willow Lodge No. 66, I. O. O. F. of Heppner, Oregon, drape its charter in mourning for thirty days, and that we tender the family of our deceased brother our sincere condolence in their deep affliction; and that a copy of these resolutions be sent to the family.
