

LEXINGTON NEWS

Lexington Men Suffer Injuries

By MARGARET SCOTT

George Burnside was hit by the eye with a hoe Wednesday and Archie Padberg, Jr., ran a pitchfork into his leg Thursday. While painful neither accident was serious.

Mr. and Mrs. Jake Shaner have moved into the Ralph Phillips house.

Mrs. Dan Way is working at the Frank Saling ranch.

Mr. and Mrs. Willie Steagall and Tommy were Sunday dinner guests of Mrs. Ed Grant.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Hunt and Claire motored to Corvallis Saturday. They were accompanied home by Joe Way and two Heppner boys who had been attending Beaver Boys' State for the past week.

Mrs. Maude Pointer and Merle Carmichael were visitors at Maryhill castle Sunday.

Mrs. Cecil Jones of Walla Walla spent last week visiting her mother, Mrs. Ted McMillan.

A. M. Edwards and Albert spent Tuesday in Portland.

Mrs. Ethel Long is a guest at the Earl Warner home.

Esther Thomson returned home Sunday after working for Mrs. N. M. Davis for several weeks.

Sunday dinner guests at the William Van Winkle home were Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Palmer and Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Frederickson of Salem.

Newt O'Hara and Jack spent Saturday in Pendleton and vicinity.

Mrs. Reese Burkenbine and sons of Heppner visited here Thursday.

PINE CITY NEWS

Lena Home Ec Club Meets at Pine City

By BERNICE WATTENBURGER

Mr. and Mrs. Marion Finch and daughter Patty motored to Hermiston Thursday on business.

Russell Moore, Elroy Moore, Betty and Frances Finch all motored to Pendleton Saturday evening. Mr. Moore visited his wife and son who are in the hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bartholomew left Sunday for their sheep range in northern Washington.

Mrs. Marion Finch entertained the Lena grange home economics club and the Friendly Neighbor community club of Pine City Wednesday. They were entertained by an all-day quilting. Pot-luck lunch was enjoyed by all at noon.

Mrs. Burl Wattenburger and daughters Lucille and Darlyne left Wednesday for an extended visit with Mr. and Mrs. Reid Buseick and family at Long Creek.

Russell Moore motored to Heppner Tuesday on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Eb Hughes and son Allen of Lena and Mr. and Mrs. Marion Finch and daughter Patty motored to Heppner Friday night, where Mrs. Hughes and Mrs. Finch attended an Eastern Star meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Bartholomew attended the funeral of Mrs. Arthur Coe of Milton. She was a cousin of Mr. Bartholomew's.

Billy Healy visited one day with Johnny Harrison on the George Curran ranch.

Miss Cecelia Healy spent two days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Healy. She returned to Heppner Monday, where she is working.

Mr. and Mrs. Marion Finch and daughter Patty were callers at the Eb Hughes home Monday.

Cecelia, Helen, Rosetta and Billy Healy were visitors at the Marion Finch home Sunday afternoon.

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT

Whereas our brother Louis Marquardt has been called to that mysterious beyond, and in his departure we have lost a valued friend and member, we deeply deplore the loss to our fraternity.

Resolved: That this Holly Rebekah Lodge tender its heartfelt sympathy to the family and relatives of our deceased brother in this sad hour.

Resolved: That we drape our charter in mourning for thirty days; and that these resolutions be entered upon the minutes of this lodge, and that a copy be sent to the bereaved family.

Fraternally submitted,
Anne Keene, Cora Warner,
Edna Hunt, Committee.

IONE NEWS

Frank Holub Delivers First 1941 Wheat

By MRS. ELMER GRIFFITH

The first 1941 wheat was delivered at Morgan Tuesday morning by Frank Holub. It was Rex variety, and came from a field about two miles from Morgan, which is yielding 33 bushels to the acre. Vernor Troedson started harvesting Monday but found the grain still a little tough, so decided to wait awhile. The wheat on the Elmer Griffith land near Ione is also being harvested.

Leonard Carlson of Gooseberry was in Ione Tuesday, and reported that his grain would not be ready to harvest for three weeks.

A family gathering was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Swanson Sunday, June 29, in honor of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Broadhurst of Santa Cruz, Cal. A delicious dinner was served on the lawn and the afternoon was spent in visiting and in singing and enjoying music. Those present besides the honor guests were Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Lindstrom, Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Lundell, Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Lundell, Billy and Murl, Mrs. Cleo Drake and children, Mr. and Mrs. Garland Swanson and children, Miss Jane Fitzpatrick, Roy Lindstrom, Richard Lundell, Charles and Wallace Lundell. Mrs. Broadhurst is a cousin of Mrs. Lindstrom, Mrs. J. E. Swanson and the Lundell brothers. Mr. and Mrs. Broadhurst departed Monday for Grand Coulee and Spokane on a sightseeing trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Foster Odom returned Tuesday evening from a week end visit in Salem. They left their two small children with Mr. Odom's mother, Mrs. A. T. Odom until after harvest. Miss Luella Kitching of Albany came up with them for a visit with old friends here.

Mr. and Mrs. Ned Carr and children drove to Ione Sunday to bring Mrs. Carr's mother, Mrs. Alice Wiles home. Mrs. Wiles has been their guest at Tygh Valley for some time.

Mrs. A. F. Palmateer made a short business trip to Portland the first of the week.

Delbert Emert lost about 60 acres of standing wheat Saturday as a result of a fire of undetermined origin. A voluntary crew of fire fighters from neighboring ranches and from Ione soon controlled the fire. Among those going out from town was Bert Mason, Jr., who is with the forest service and who was at home for a few days after attending a fire school.

Miss Mignonette Perry returned to Portland Saturday to continue her nurses training at Good Samaritan hospital in Portland. She spent a two weeks vacation at the home of her father, Ross Perry at Morgan.

Mr. and Mrs. Ivar Nelson of Gooseberry drove to Morgan Saturday to visit their daughter, Miss Thelma, who is employed on the Cecil Thorne ranch. Their other daughter, Miss Elaine, who taught at Umapine last winter, is attending summer school at University of Washington.

Ione's streets are vastly improved in appearance since the state highway crew began oiling them. The crew consists of sixty-nine men and there are a number of families, with trailer houses everywhere.

The length of time each of the new school board members is to serve was decided by lot at their first meeting. O. E. Peterson drew the three year term, Walter Dobyms the two year term, and Omar Rietmann the one year.

The Women's Topic club was entertained at the home of Mrs. Elmer Griffith last Friday afternoon. Mesdames Harry Yarnell, Henry Gorgor and Martin E. Cotter were the other hostesses. Three tables of bridge were in play and prizes were won by Mrs. Omar Rietmann and Mrs. Clyde Denney. The next meeting of the club will be held at the home of Mrs. Garland Swanson on July 11.

Mrs. E. J. Bristow enjoyed a visit from her niece, Dorothy Swenson of Walla Walla, Sunday. Miss Swenson drove over with a friend, and on their return they were accompanied by Miss Swenson's cousin, Mary Jean Bristow.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Bergevin arrived Sunday from their farm at Gibbon and will remain until after harvest.

Paul Pettyjohn has sold his bus line from Heppner to Fossil to Alva Casebeer of Heppner.

The last meeting before summer vacation was held Tuesday evening by Locust chapter, O. E. S. Reports on grand chapter were made by Mr. and Mrs. H. V. Smouse, worthy patron and worthy matron, Mrs. George C. Krebs, grand representative of British Columbia, and Mrs. Fred Mankin, grand page.

Miss Patricia Emert has been chosen to represent Willows grange as their princess at the 1941 Heppner Rodeo.

The Union Sunday school was held at Marion Palmer's farm Sunday. It was well attended and the weather proved to be very pleasant.

Mr. and Mrs. Erret Hummel and small son have returned home after spending ten days in Portland.

IRRIGON NEWS

C. T. Farrell Passes At Irrigon Home

By MRS. W. C. ISOM

Mr. C. T. Farrell passed away at his home here Thursday. Funeral services were held at the Pentecostal church Saturday afternoon. Relatives from out of town attending the services were Mrs. Effie Godwin of Palma, Idaho; Mr. and Mrs. Wilson and Mrs. Lena Wilson from Portland, and Mrs. Vessler from Rieth.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Fagerstrom and Mr. and Mrs. Chester Wilson left for Tennessee Friday for an extended visit with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Dexter and family and Gracie Haney motored to Spokane Sunday. Mrs. W. Haney and her father returned with them the same day.

Mrs. Mays and son have taken up residence at the Leicht camp grounds.

Mrs. Hazelrig and Mrs. Davis who have been here since Thursday in the interests of the Pentecostal church left for Bridgeport Sunday.

Rev. Alquist and Rev. Decker from Vale and Rev. Harness from Hay were here the last of the week.

The Gerin children from Umatilla are visiting their mother, Mrs. Will Grabeal.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Minnick and family visited relatives in Portland last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Allen left Friday to visit his sister near the coast.

HARDMAN NEWS

Reynolds Last Rites Held at Hardman

By ELSA M. LEATHERS

Final tribute was paid William T. Reynolds, long time Hardman resident, on Tuesday when a large circle of friends attended funeral services here. Mr. Reynolds was aged 68 years, 9 months and 15 days.

Martin Clark, Christian minister, sang beautifully, "No Night There," and "God Will Take Care of You," with his service. Interment was in Hardman I. O. O. F. cemetery. Pallbearers were Lester Robinson, Richard Steers, Ewood Hastings and Glen Farrans of Hardman, and Ray McAlister and Ernest Hunt of Heppner. Mr. Reynolds came to this county as a young man from Jacksonville, Ore., where he was born, and took the homestead on which he lived at the time of his death. The only close relative was a niece, Mrs. Geo. Falquist of Avalon, Cal., and husband who were present. They had visited him frequently the last few years. He will be greatly missed in this community.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Steers and son Elmer and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Leathers and daughter Jean, Mrs. Bernard Bleakman, Johnny McRoberts and Jess Coats, Mrs. Dilly Leathers and Marion Leathers went on a picnic Sunday to Mary Hill castle.

Mr. and Mrs. Victor Lovgren and children and Ede McDaniels visited Mr. and Mrs. Owen Leathers and son and the Hayden place Sunday.

Those moving back to town from the Zornes logging camp near Heppner were Mr. and Mrs. Raymond McDonald and family, Mr. and Mrs. Harlan Adams and family, and Mr. and Mrs. Duffwin McKittrick and son.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Bleakman of Heppner, and daughter, Mrs. Gerald Haddox, were visiting Mr. and Mrs. Charley McDaniel Sunday.

Mrs. J. B. Adams is spending a few days this week in Heppner visiting her sister, Mrs. Corda Saling.

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Hughes, Mrs. Ada Cannon and daughter Charlotte attended the show Sunday afternoon in Heppner.

MERCHANTS WISE Advertise!

A convenient service for sending money
... paying bills ... making installment payments
or mail order purchases

MONEY ORDERS

AVAILABLE AT THIS BANK...

First National Bank money orders may be obtained at any branch in amounts up to $100. The cost is only 10c per order!

You need not be a depositor to enjoy this service

B. C. PINCKNEY, Manager

HEPPNER BRANCH FIRST NATIONAL BANK

OF PORTLAND—"The First National Bank West of the Rockies"

MEMBER FEDERAL DEPOSIT INSURANCE CORPORATION