To all the ladies of our town We issue an invitation To attend on Thursay, July 31 Our canning demonstration.

Bernice Redington will be in charge; She'll also make jam and jell; And the way she makes these tasty sweets She'll be very glad to tell.

Fifty aprons she'll also bring Which you'll be glad to see; And if you'll bring us fifteen cents We'll serve a dainty tea.

—Methodist Womens' Society.

IS DEMONSTRATOR

Miss Bernice Redington whose early childhood home was made in this city when her late father, Col. J. W. Redington was editor of the Heppner Gazette, gained fame for herself as Prudence Penny of the Seattle Post-Intelligencer. She will conduct a canning demonstration at the Methodist church on July 31, to which the public is invited.

Miss Bernice Redington, whose father at one time edited the Heppner Gazette, will be in Heppner July 31 to give a canning demonstration at the Methodist church at 2 p. m.

Miss Redington is now home economist for Ball Bros. Co.

She started her career travelling with her mother, a pioneer cooking-school teacher. For twelve years she was "Prudence Penny" of the Seattle Post-Intelligencer. She is a graduate of the University of Washington and has had special work at a number of other institutions. She believes that canning is an important part of preparedness and an essential to stretching the food dollar.

Miss Redington is clever and entertaining and even those who do not plan to can will enjoy her lecture.

HARDMAN ELDERS VISIT

E. Jay Merrill, hailed as a senior resident of Hardman, when in the city Saturday, refused to be counted the oldest. He gave that credit to Herman Neilson, also a Saturday visitor, and placed Charley Hastings in second place, leaving to himself the honor of being the third in line.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank our neighbors and all those who assisted in putting out the fire in our wheat field. Mr. and Mrs. Carl F. Feldman.

Morrow Gets Cut of State Gas Tax Money

Morrow county received $3,450.64 as its share of the July 1 distribution of a total of $800,000 from motor vehicle registrations apportioned to Oregon counties on a basis of motor vehicle registration in each county, Earl Snell, secretary of state announced today. This county was credited with 1,729 registrations.

The total minimum apportionment for the year is $2,000,000 of which two-fifths is distributed in July and three-fifths in December.

The July payment of $800,000 was apportioned on a motor vehicle registration of 400,853 vehicles, which is the first time in the history of the state the number of vehicles has reached the 400,000 mark.

Counties with the heaviest apportionment were Multnomah, Marion, Lane.
