

IONE NEWS

Miss Mary Cotter, Ione Visitor, Passes

By MRS. ELMER GRIFFITH
Miss Mary S. Cotter died at the hospital in Heppner about 9 o'clock Monday evening. Miss Cotter came here from her home in Austin, Minn., the ninth of July to visit her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Martin E. Cotter, and had been ill for only a week. She was 61 years of age, and besides her brother, Martin of Ione, is survived by another brother, Richard of Austin. The latter flew west when he learned of her critical illness, but did not arrive until Tuesday morning. The body will be shipped east from Pendleton Wednesday afternoon, and funeral services will be held in Austin on Saturday. Miss Cotter was a graduate of Minnesota Teachers college and of Columbia university in New York. At the time of her death she was under a contract to teach in the Austin high school, a position she had held since 1925. This was her third trip west.

French Burroughs, pioneer Rhea creek farmer, is seriously ill at his home.

An interesting visitor here on Monday and Tuesday was Mrs. Leonora Flaherty of Kansas City, Mo., who will be remembered to old residents here as "Lee" Woolery, an employee of the Ione bank, and sister of Joseph Woolery, one of the first merchants in Ione. While here she was a guest of her friend, Mrs. Della Corson, and enjoyed meeting many old time friends. Joseph Woolery built the residence now owned by Laxton McMurray and she was interested in visiting there. Mrs. Flaherty was here to look after her farm property east of Morgan. She is now engaged in welfare work in Kansas City, working with the Travelers' Aid.

Mrs. Ethel Fellers and daughter Iva May, left Saturday for Hubbard where she has employment. Mrs. Feller has been employed at the Grant Olden ranch for the last five years, but decided to move closer to her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Christopherson, who live at Donald.

Mrs. Leslie Roundy and baby daughter of Arlington are visiting at the home of her sister, Mrs. Harold Kincaid.

Mrs. Inez Freeland left Thursday for her home in Portland after a visit of two weeks at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Omar Rietmann.

Mrs. Rose McMurray and daughter Mapril and sons, Vance and Quinton, and her son-in-law and daughter, Lt. and Mrs. Elwood Stanley of Lewiston, Idaho, visited at the Laxton McMurray home on Monday. They were returning from a reunion of the Agee family at Stevenson, Wash., at which 39 members of the Agee family were present. Miss Mapril remained for a longer visit with her uncle, Mr. McMurray.

Mrs. A. F. Palmateer and daughters, Doris and Laurel of Morgan departed Tuesday for Portland, where Miss Doris was to undergo a tonsilectomy.

Six girls left Sunday for Camp Cotton, which is sponsored by the Swedish Lutheran church. They are Shirley Smouse, Betty Baker, Maxine Allyn, Eunice Peterson, Mildred Carlson and Dorothy Bergstrom.

I. R. Robison spent Friday and Saturday in Portland, attending to business.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lundell and children made a trip to Portland Sunday.

Mrs. Paul Pettyjohn returned Friday from the hospital in Heppner with her little son.

Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Olden of Gresham are visiting at the home of Mrs. Olden's sons, Walter and Noel Dobyns.

Miss Gladys Seehafer returned Sunday from Portland where she has been employed since the first of June.

W. R. Bailey of The Dalles spent the week end with his son, Jack Bailey and family.

Chester Hutchcroft and son of Prosser, Wash., left for their home Saturday. They have been doing carpenter work at the H. V. Smouse ranch.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Morgan and daughter Earline and Miss Marie Wedthi visited here Sunday. Miss Wedthi was the guest of her friend, Mrs. Erling Thompson, and the Morgans visited their daughter, Mrs. John Eubanks, and other relatives. M. R. Morgan is having extensive improvements made to his residence on Second street.

Miss Polly Petty and her mother have taken an apartment at the Park hotel. They live at Seattle.

Miss Linea Troedson left this week on a three weeks cruise to Alaska in company with Miss Nellie Carlson of King City, Cal.

Fred Mankin escaped injury at the Holmes Gabbert ranch in Gooseberry Monday when a violent explosion occurred while he was adding water to the batteries of a lighting plant. The explosion had such force that glass was driven into a cement wall.

Mr. and Mrs. Huston Bryson spent a few hours at the home of Mr. Bryson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Bryson Saturday while returning to their home in Portland from Yakima.

Mr. and Mrs. Erret Hummel returned Monday from Portland, and Mr. Hummel is now employed at the McNabb warehouse.

A contract has been sent to Daniel Abel of Dallas to teach music in the Ione school. He is a graduate of Willamette university.

School will open here on September first.

Clarence Harris, who is employed at the Standard Oil station was injured Wednesday when a punch broke and struck him in the arm, cutting an artery. He was taken to Heppner where a physician dressed the injury but he will be unable to work for about two weeks.

Harvey Ring is confined to his bed as the result of an injury to his knee, sustained while working in the warehouse. His small daughter, Lois, who is suffering an attack of inflammatory rheumatism, is much improved.

Mrs. Lillian Balsiger has written friends here that she has resigned as postmaster at Calvin, Wash., and gone to Newberg to care for her aged father. Her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Kathan, are attending summer school at Corvallis. Mr. Kathan is the commercial arts teacher at Ashland and Mrs. Kathan (nee Elva Balsiger) will teach in the high school next year.

HARDMAN NEWS

Charles Hastings Passes at Hardman

By ELSA M. LEATHERS

Charley Hastings, a pioneer of Morrow county and long a resident of Hardman community, passed away at his home here Monday afternoon. Mr. Hastings had been in poor health for some time, but only the last month had been bedfast. Charles Mason Hastings was born in Kansas, being aged 84 years, 11 months and 8 days. He followed stockraising and had been a resident of the Hardman community for 61 years.

Mr. Hastings is survived by four sons John, Perry, Guy, Elwood, and one daughter, Rilla, also three grandchildren and one nephew. Funeral services were held at Hardman yesterday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Sabin Hastings, Add Inskeep and daughter Nona were shopping in Heppner Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Hughes and Charlotte Cannon were in town a while Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Steers and son Elmer left Friday for Fort Lewis, Wash., to visit their son and brother, Gus. They returned home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Leathers and daughter Jean and Johnnie McRoberts spent the week end huckleberrying at Desolation.

Mrs. Irl Clary was out from Heppner cleaning her house here for renting this winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Harshman were in town Sunday. They are camped on the Johnson place with their sheep.

There was a birthday party Friday afternoon for Nancy Adams at her home. There were 21 children present. Lovely refreshments of sandwiches, cake and ice cream were served. Nancy was six years old. LaDell Knighten and Marilyn Bergstrom were there and it was also their birthday.

Mrs. Stanley Robinson and Ede

Merrill were shopping in Heppner one day this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Burnside motored to Hermiston Sunday to visit their son and family, Ted Burside, and to eat birthday dinner with their granddaughter, Beverly.

Mrs. Oscar Devins from Reeds mill took Mrs. Irl Clary to Heppner Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harlan Adams and family moved back to Zornes camp Monday, where Mr. Adams is working. Mrs. Adams will stay till school starts.

Mr. and Mrs. Duffrin McKittrick motored to Heppner Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Reed and Mrs. Bernard Bleakman motored to Heppner Saturday evening. They also went to the show.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond McDonald and family moved back to the Zornes logging camp Monday.

Mrs. Owen Leathers visited her sister, Mrs. Harlan Adams, one day this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Neal Knighten motored to Hermiston Monday.

Frank Howell and son Clifford were over from Top and spent the day with Mrs. Frank Howell.

Little Nancy Adams was accidentally hit Monday by a maul that came off the handle as her father was driving a post. It struck her on the head. She was immediately rushed to a doctor at Heppner, where it was learned that Nancy was painfully injured and several days in bed would be required to make her well again.

Mr. and Mrs. Dallas McDaniel and Kinard McDaniel of Lonerock were visiting in town Sunday.

LXINGTON NEWS

Gerards Purchase McAlister House, Lex

By MARGARET SCOTT

Mrs. Barnhouse and daughter Jean are visiting at the S. G. McMillan home from Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Merritt Gray and Bobby Gray spent Tuesday in Arlington.

Announcements have been received here of the marriage of Miss Charlotte Chambers at Reed chapel in Portland on August 9. Miss Chambers taught school here last year.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Gerard have purchased the Ray McAlister house now occupied by the Bob Cutler family who are moving into the Munkers house.

Archie Nichols who has been ill at his home the past few days is able to be back at work in the W. F. Barnett store.

Lloyd Wright is spending a few days here from Hermiston.

Edward Rice and Marvin Brown went to Carlton Sunday.

Guests at the Ralph Jackson home this week were Mr. and Mrs. Fred Supple and family of San Francisco. Mrs. Supple is Mr. Jackson's sister.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Campbell and children visited here Monday from Wallowa.

Another wheat fire was reported on the Harry Duvall ranch Friday with a small amount of damage.

Louise Hunt and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Duvall spent from Wednesday to Sunday in Portland.

Bob Burnside has purchased the Ralph Jackson house formerly occupied by Frank Klune.

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Scott and son spent the week end at the Wayne McMillan home in Carlton.

Grant Henderson of Stanfield is now working in Henderson's garage here.

Marie Steagall who has stayed at her parents' home a few days was able to return home Sunday. Her sister Bunny is working there.

The William Mitchell family has move into the Congregational parsonage. Mr. Mitchell does soil conservation work.

Charles Payne, who is working in Pendleton, visited at the home of his sister, Mrs. Bob Cutler, Sunday. Cutlers motored to Pendleton with him Sunday evening and brought back his pick-up to use in moving.

NEWSPAPER ADVERTISING

AT YOUR SERVICE

TO HELP YOU SELL

BOARDMAN NEWS

Lt. Elmer Sullivan Transferred to Hawaii

By MRS. CLAUD COATS

Mrs. Elvira Ashton visited this week in Hermiston at the home of her granddaughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Putman.

Will Barber and two small nephews, Lowell and Norman Hoggman of Portland, spent Monday and Tuesday at the home of Mr. Barber's uncle and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Gus McLouth.

Mrs. Olive Mefford of Corvallis arrived in Boardman Tuesday to spend a few weeks visiting at her daughters and families, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Rood and Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Barlow.

Z. J. Gillespie had the misfortune to lose one of his best dairy cows last week, as did Lewis Bush.

Miss Chloe Barlow left Friday for Gold Beach to spend a few weeks with her grandmother and husband, Mr. and Mrs. O. T. Ferguson.

Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Messenger left Friday for their vacation in and around Portland. While gone Mr. Messenger plans to have some dental work done.

Mr. and Mrs. Nate Macomber and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Harwood returned home from a two weeks vacation spent over in the Lost lake country. They enjoyed the fishing and of course had quite a catch.

Mrs. Henry Graves took her young son to Portland to the Doernbecker hospital Sunday evening, and the little one had an appendectomy Monday morning. Last reports say he was doing nicely.

R. G. Scott, U. S. engineer who has been surveying the bombing field at Boardman the past three weeks, and Mrs. Scott, left for their home in Portland Saturday.

Miss Edith Graves of Sherwood is visiting her brother, Henry Graves and family, also keeping house while Mrs. Graves is in Portland with her young son, who is in the Doernbecker hospital.

Mrs. Breta Morgan of Cascade Locks was calling at the H. H. Weston home one day last week. Mr. Morgan who has a job with the government, has been in Alaska for the last two months, and Mrs. Morgan will sail from Seattle on August 9 to join him.

Word has been received from friends of Lt. Elmer Sullivan being transferred from Fort Lewis to Hawaii, and sailed for that place August 5. He expects to be stationed there for some time.

Mrs. George McNabb, Virginia Compton and Mardell Gorham motored to Pendleton and Hilgard on Wednesday.

Lyle Tannehill, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Tannehill, who has been attending the NYA school in Eugene the last two years, has been given a job as junior designer in the Boeing plant in Seattle. He left for the city July 30.

PINE CITY NEWS

Allan Struthers, Pine City Resident, Weds

By BERNICE WATTENBURGER

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Van Orsdale spent Sunday at the E. B. Wattenburger home.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Neill left Sunday for Wallowa county to deliver lambs.

Mr. and Mrs. Buck Winters left Monday for a trip to Iowa.

Many people attended the dance at Lena Saturday. The dance was in honor of Miss Colleen Kilkenny

Having a wonderful time - AT HOTEL GEARHART

Golf, Swim, Fish, Hike, Trapshoot, Sunbath, Ride, Dance.

Tasty food. Reasonable Rates.

HOTEL GEARHART Gearhart, Ore.

who is princess of the Heppner Rodeo.

Miss Betty Finch who has been working at the Russell Moore home for the last two months is home now.

Mr. and Mrs. Reid Buseick and family were visiting at the A. E. Wattenburger home Sunday and are going on to Walla Walla Monday.

Mr. E. B. Wattenburger is helping his brother Earl in Pasco, Wash.

Harold Neill and Mrs. Charley Plourd and family spent Saturday at the W. D. Neill home.

S. M. Mathes, at one time preacher of the United Brethren church at Pine City, visited in the neighborhood over the week end.

Harold Wilkins was thrown from a horse Saturday and received a broken arm. He was taken to the Prairie City hospital. He will be there for two weeks.

Jack, Cecilia, and Helen Healy were driving to Portland Sunday when they had the misfortune of their car sliding off the road.

Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Ayers and daughter spent Monday afternoon at the E. B. Wattenburger and Marion Finch homes.

Malcolm O'Brien went with George Currin to Meacham to deliver lambs.

Jasper Myers and Russell Moore finished harvesting last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hughes are the parents of a baby boy, born July 28. The baby has been named James Arthur.

Mrs. Stanley Struthers received word of the death of her sister-in-law last week.

Word was received that John Moore, Jr., was married along the last of June. He married Betty Clemens of Seattle.

Mr. and Mrs. John Healy were callers in Heppner Monday.

Mr. Allan Struthers, son of Mrs. Stanley Struthers, on a ten-day furlough, motored to Spokane where he married Miss Frances Germaine.

ORAL WRIGHTS LEAVE

Mr. and Mrs. Oral Wright left yesterday for Portland where they will make their home. Mr. Wright having taken over a garage at 20th and Hawthorne Ave. in the city. Mr. Wright has been a mechanic at Ferguson Motor company for the last several years. Well wishes of their many friends accompany them to their new field.

RESIGNS DEPUTY ASSESSOR

Eddie M. Kenny resigned the office of deputy assessor the first of the month and Sunday left with Mrs. Kenny to make the family home at Pendleton where Eddie has taken a position with the Smythe-Bartel company.

Fresh Fruits and Vegetables

● Summertime has arrived, bringing with it new, good foods from the earth. We're serving them now.

● Good food is more than something pleasant to eat. It is a sound investment, one that pays dividends in health and satisfaction. You get good food when you eat here.

Contributions Taken for CHINESE RELIEF SOCIETY and Official Receipt Given

Meals at All Hours

FOUNTAIN SERVICE

Elkhorn Restaurant

ED CHINN, Prop.