

Local News

Miss Bernice E. Siegenthaler of Mist was a recent visitor at Heppner. She was here to visit her father who is the engineer on the Heppner branch railroad. Miss Siegenthaler is a student at the Western Washington College of Education at Bellingham. She is spending her vacation on a tour of the United States. She is going to Seattle, Minneapolis, Chicago, Norfolk, Va., New Orleans, Los Angeles, San Diego and San Francisco to Portland. Miss Siegenthaler says she likes Heppner very much.

Mrs. Fred Wehmeyer departed on Friday night's train for Portland to join her daughter, Edith, of San Francisco. Together they went on to Tacoma to visit son and brother, Stephen and wife. Mr. and Mrs. William Becket and family of Waitsburg will join them there for a visit. Mrs. Wehmeyer and Edith will also visit other relatives in northern Washington while away.

Mrs. Berta Leicht was a business visitor in the city Tuesday from Irrigon where she operates a service station and camp grounds. She reported that the work on the ammunition depot in that vicinity was making considerable activity at Irrigon, all her available cabins having been taken by workers on the project.

Lynn Hale of Bates, Bob Hale and son of Pendleton, and Vere Hale who is working for Drumbhellers near Walla Walla were called to Heppner the end of the week by the serious illness of their mother, Mrs. Ollie Kennedy.

Mrs. Jim Linn of Lexington was in town on business Tuesday.

STAR Reporter

FRIDAY-SATURDAY THE TRIAL OF MARY DUGAN

Robert Young, Laraine Day, Frieda Inescort, John Litel, Marsha Hunt Thrills, as a beauty with a dangerous past goes on trial for hr life.

—Plus—

BORDER VIGILANTE

William Boyd, Russel Hayden, Victor Jory, Andy Clyde

Western action film with Hopalong Cassidy.

SUNDAY-MONDAY ZIEGFELD GIRL

James Stewart, Hedy Lamarr, Judy Garland, Lana Turner, Tony Martin, Jackie Cooper, Ian Hunter, Charles Winninger, Edward Everett Horton, and the greatest assemblage of personalities you've ever seen in one giant show! A new, glittering all-time high in musical magic—a pageant of stars, story, song and spectacle!

Sunday shows at 1 p. m. — 3:45 p. m. and 7:30 p. m.

TUESDAY Bargain Night
Adults—20c; 2 Children—10c

FREE AND EASY

Ruth Hussey, Robert Cummings, Reg. Owen, C. Aubrey Smith

A merry uproar involving a gay widow, love—and a million dollars!

WEDNESDAY-THURSDAY POT O' GOLD

James Stewart, Paulette Goddard, Horace Heidt and his Musical Knights, Charles Winninger

It's the funniest, friskiest romantic romp that ever had you dancing in the aisles.

Paul McCarty and Jim Farley arrived home the end of the week from Camp Lewis, Wash., where they spent six weeks attending reserve officers training school. Both are student cadets, Paul being a student at University of Oregon and Jim attending Oregon State college. Paul is qualifying as an officer in the infantry and Jim as an officer in the light artillery. While on vacation from their studies Paul is assisting as clerk at Hotel Heppner and Jim is driving "cat" at the Frank Anderson farm.

Eddie Sheridan visited Heppner friends Sunday, coming from the Walla Walla section where he has been located on a large ranch for the last two years. He expected to get back for the Rodeo. For many years Eddie was counted in the list of fast ropers, but he didn't think he would throw any lassos this time.

Miss Rita Jean Kennedy of Pendleton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Kennedy, was a visitor over Saturday night at the ranch home of her cousin, Mrs. Ilene Laughlin. Miss Kennedy's father is remembered by Morrow county wrestling fans for several appearances on the mat here in former years.

Mrs. Betty Belt who has been visiting for three months with relatives in Oregon and California from her home in Missouri returned to the home of her son, Burl Coxen, here the first of the week. Mrs. Coxen and Betty Marie driving to Bend the end of the week to get her.

Billy Young, popular clerk at Hotel Heppner, departed Tuesday for Portland to spend a few days on business. After returning to assist through Rodeo at the hotel, he expects to leave on a motor vacation trip to Soap Lake, Grand Coulee, Spokane and Yellowstone park.

Henry F. Blahm came over from his home at Walla Walla the first of the week to look after interests here. He is having a new roof put on the farm, operated by Mr. and Mrs. Mont Bundy, and assisting at the Bundy ranch while Mrs. Bundy is confined by illness.

Lt. and Mrs. Frank C. Alfred were week-end visitors in the city, while Lt. Alfred, Morrow county's district attorney on leave for army service, was on furlough from his station at Fort Lewis, Wash. Lt. Alfred recently returned to Fort Lewis from army maneuvers in California.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Gemmill and Jean arrived Tuesday from their home at Salem to spend several days visiting relatives and friends while Mr. Gemmill is on vacation from his work with the secretary of state's office.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Stanley Jaross were in the city the first of the week investigating living quarters for the coming school year. Mr. Jaross will be seventh grade instructor and grade school physical education director next year.

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Merritt arrived recently from their home in California and have been visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Schwarz. Their daughter, Mrs. Violet Shurte also arrived this week for a visit.

Joe Green, who has been working for some time at the ordnance depot near Hermiston, moved to Pendleton this week, with Mrs. Green, to accept a position with the Oregon Public Utilities commission.

Mr. and Mrs. Foster Collins were in the city yesterday from their ranch at Camas prairie. Mrs. Collins is to undergo medical attention. Mr. Collins reported a heavy crop of hay on the prairie this season.

John W. Maidment and son of Lone Rock were business visitors in the city Tuesday. Mr. Maidment, a pioneer stockraiser, enjoyed greeting old-time friends while here.

J. A. Sharp returned the end of the week from a vacation spent at Olympia and Seattle. During his absence Cecil Wise tended to Mr. Sharp's work at Heppner bakery.

Word this week from Dr. J. H. McCrady, formr local dentist, conveys greetings to his old friends. He is presently located at Seattle, his address being 508 Senator Apts.

Chance Wilson was in Heppner Saturday from the Monument section, bringing a bunch of cattle for shipment.

Mrs. Carl Leathers and daughter Jean, and Mrs. Lester Robinson and daughter Vern were in the city Tuesday from Hardman.

Mrs. Vera Happold and Mrs. Vivian Kane returned Sunday from a week's vacation spent at Oceanside on the coast.

Mrs. James Valentine is reported as much improved in her illness at a Portland hospital.

SHIP BY TRUCK

The Dalles Freight Line, Inc.

SERVICE BETWEEN
PORTLAND : THE DALLES : HEPPNER
AND WAY POINTS

Arrive Tuesday, Thursday, Saturday

Warehouse: KANE'S GARAGE

Carl D. Spickerman, Agent

Good Printing, Reasonable at G-T

FHA LOANS CONTINUE

★ That's important news to Morrow County home owners, as it means they may proceed with plans for new construction or remodeling and take advantage of the easy monthly payment plan offered by the Federal Housing Administration.

SEE US

FOR DETAILS ON F.H.A. LOANS

—and consult our

FREE PLANNING SERVICE
For Building Plans and Specifications

TUM-A-LUM LUMBER CO.

Telephone 912 for Delivery

What Shall I
Serve That's Different?

HAVING girls over for luncheon is really quite a problem. Each one serves such tasty dishes . . . what can you serve that's different? Try Pride of Oregon ice cream. Good to eat, good to look at, delicious, nourishing!

MORROW COUNTY
CREAMERY COMPANY

The Fall and Winter
SAMPLES of International Tailors have arrived —

Step Out
In Style
This Fall --

You get style-plus quality in an INTERNATIONAL SUIT, at a reasonable price. Come in now and make your selection early. The national defense program makes guarantee of delivery difficult.

SKUZESKI'S
MORROW COUNTY'S CLEANERS