SOCIETY CHIT-CHAT
By JUNE SMITH
A large number of Heppner families are planning to attend the Round-Up festivities in Pendleton this week end. Among those who will go are Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Pinckney, who will take a group of band youngsters in their car Friday, as will Mrs. Raymond Ferguson. Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Ward are going Friday, and plan to see the parade as well as the Round-Up. Mr. and Mrs. Ed Dick, Jr., will attend the show Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth House and family, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Ferguson, Mrs. Jay Hamlin, Mrs. E. V. Stangle, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hill will attend Friday.

This week finds the college set getting ready to return to their schools. Among those who have already left are Jean Hays, who is attending business college at Portland, and Alex Thompson, who is going to technical school at Portland, and is studying a combined airplane and engineering mechanics course. Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Thompson drove them to Portland Sunday, and returned Monday. Jean would like her friends to know that she is staying with Mrs. John Vaughn in Portland, and Alex is at the Y. M. C. A. Frances Wilkinson and Mary Kay Blake left Sunday for a week's stay in Portland before going on to Oregon State. Others who are departing are Frances McCarty, Paul Doolittle, Harriet Hager and Don Turner. Bill Barratt will go on to school after his return from Chicago, as will Dick Wilkinson, who with Richard Proenneke is on a motorcycle trip to Iowa.

Mrs. J. G. Thomson, Jr., who was called to California by the death of her mother, Mrs. O. Coppock, is remaining at Hawthorne for a visit with her sister, Mrs. B. E. Fuller, and will return about the first of the month.

Mrs. W. H. Cleveland will entertain members of her duplicate club tomorrow at Lucas Place. The affair will be a dessert bridge.

One of the prettiest weddings seen recently was that of Miss Louise Carolyn Anderson, daughter of Mrs. Frank Anderson, to Rhea Norton King, son of A. T. King and Mrs. Truman Babb, of Portland. The ceremony was performed Sunday morning at 9 o'clock at the All Saints Episcopal church, with the Ven. Eric O. Robathan reading the service. The bride was given in marriage by her uncle, Ben O. Anderson, and wore a brown velvet dress trimmed in white lace at neck and sleeves, brown accessories, and a corsage of orchids. Her hat was a large off-the-face model.

Her matron of honor was the sister of the bridegroom, Mrs. Jasper V. Crawford, who was dressed in a soft green frock, with large velvet hat of burnt orange, and corsage of gardenias.

Frank Anderson, brother of the bride, was best man. Norbert Peavy played Intermezzo preceding the ceremony and the wedding marches.

The church was beautifully decorated, with the altar having pink rosebuds with white cosmos and petunias. Tall torches held white tapers, while the steps of the chancel held baskets of orange cosmos and large baskets of cream gladioli and ferns were placed on either side of the steps.

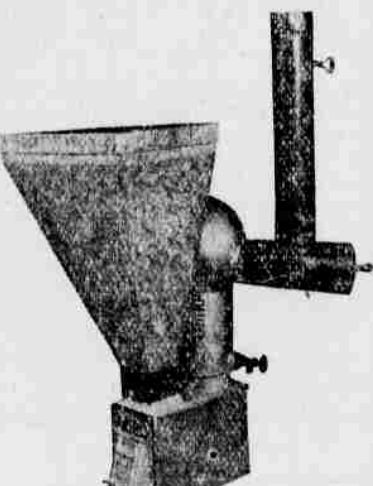

Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast was held at the Lucas Place for the immediate family and wedding party. Out of town guests included, Mrs. Babb, A. T. King, and Everett King, all of Portland, and Miss Beatrice Thomson of La Grande. After a honeymoon spent at the coast the couple will be at home at 5901 N. E. Davis Street, Portland.

A very lovely reception was given the teachers of Morrow county Tuesday evening by the churches of Heppner. The affair took place in the Parish House which was beautifully decorated with baskets of fall flowers. The program was arranged by the Music club and consisted of invocation by Martin B. Clark, a piano duet, "Hungarian Dance No. 6" by Brahms, played by Marylou Ferguson and Mrs. J. O. Turner, an address of welcome by Mrs. Lucy Rodgers, talks by Mr. Burton of the Lexington school, Mr. Hummell of Ione school and Alden Blankenship of the Heppner school. Songs were sung by Gene Normoyle, accompanied by Marjorie Parker. These included "At Dawning" and "Sweet Mystery of Life." Irene Wilson played two violin solos, accompanied by Elizabeth Blankenship, "Waltz in Major" by Brahms, and "Humoresque" by Dvorak. Mrs. Ture Peterson spoke a welcome for the parents and Mr. Clark and Rev. Sterl Spiesz, who acted as toastmaster, spoke a welcome from the churches. An accordion solo was played by Walter Skuzeski. Refreshments were served from an attractive table centered with asters and tapers on lace cloth.

The Morrow County Woolgrowers auxiliary met Friday at the Lucas Place for luncheon and a business meeting. Some beautiful slides of Oregon wild flowers were shown by Ed Parker.

The What's Trumps club met Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Gene Ferguson. High score was won by Mrs. Vawter Parker, and Mrs. Kenneth House received consolation. Refreshments were served by the hostess at the close of the evening.

The Social club of the O. E. S. met Saturday afternoon at the Masonic hall, with Mrs. W. O. Dix and Mrs. Anna Bayless hostesses. Three tables of bridge were in play, with Mrs. D. M. Ward winning high score and Mrs. Loyal Parker low. Refreshments were served.

Mrs. A. D. McMurdo entertained members of the T&C club at a bridge party at her home last Thursday afternoon, with Mrs. Fred Lucas winning high score and Mrs. B. C. Pinckney second.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Thomson and baby of Portland are visiting Mr. Thomson's mother, Mrs. Charles Thomson, this week.

Staff Sgt. and Mrs. Stephen Wehmeyer of Ft. Lewis, Wash., left yesterday after a visit at Mr. Wehmeyer's parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. F. Wehmeyer.

The American Legion auxiliary met Monday evening at Mrs. Anna Bayless' home, and it was decided to sponsor a children's health conference for pre-school children.

Mrs. Phil Mahoney is at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Hyatt, at Pendleton this week.

Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Ward, Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Bisbee and Mrs. Marcellus Morgan and Mrs. Mary Thomson drove to The Dalles last

New NYA Grant Made to University

In announcing the new National Youth Administration grant for the 1941-42 school year, Dr. Donald M. Erb, president of the University of Oregon, made public today the report of Karl W. Onthank, dean of personnel administration, in which it was revealed that the university was able to aid 518 students through a similar grant made last year.

Five students from the Heppner area were included among those benefitted by the N.Y.A. grant during the past school year. They were Ruth Lillian Green and John Spencer Crawford, both of Heppner; Shirley Mae Scoggin, Fossil; and Thelma Nelson and Jane Huston, both of Ione.

The amount of the grant for the present school year will be $32,670. These funds will be paid out at the rate of $3,630 per month to students whose grades are above the average and who need additional money, Sunday to attend the wedding of Mrs. Ward's nephew, Paul Farnsworth, to Miss Mildred Zachry of The Dalles. The ceremony was held at the Congregational church of that city at 1 p. m. and was followed by a reception in the church parlors.

Mrs. Mark Merrill was hostess to her duplicate club yesterday at her home at a dessert bridge.

above what they get from home and from jobs, in order to enter and stay in the university.

University of Oregon students also received a total of $220,264.78, exclusive of the National Youth Administration grant, from various "student aid funds." These funds, as reported by Dean Onthank, provided for 159 scholarships totaling $16,903.50, fellowships for 65 students amounting to $30,931.24, wages paid to 1075 students in the sum of $73,655.71 for work done at the university, and for 3586 student loans totaling $98,774.33.

Under the N.Y.A. grant, students are given jobs which are not provided for under the regular university budget, reports Dean Onthank. This includes such work as research, typing and stenographic work, and taking care of the athletic fields. The amount which a student can earn each month is limited so that the funds may be spread as far as possible. Many students would not be able to stay in school and graduate were it not for N.Y.A. assistance, Onthank said.

CONSELORS TO GREET FROSH

Oregon State College—When new students arrive here for the opening of Freshman week September 22, they will find awaiting them a group of 250 rookess counselors and 70 rook counselors prepared to assist them in getting acquainted with college life. These groups are sponsored by Round Table, the combined Christian service organization on the campus.
