Lois Jones will leave the end of the week for Eugene to enter Northwestern Christian college.

Heppner Bakery Installs Electric Oven

J. A. (Arnold) Sharp, owner of Heppner bakery, announces installation of a new automatic electric oven for the baking of Morrow county's favorite bread.

The new oven measuring 4½ by 9 feet and standing 6 feet high has two baking shelves which are thermostatically controlled for even heat. Each shelf has a light which enables the operator to ascertain the stage of baking at all times.

Mr. Sharp states that the new oven will improve the quality of the bread by slow, even baking and will compare favorably with any bread in the country. The oven was ordered six months ago, but due to defense orders was delayed in delivery, arriving the first of the week and is now in operation.
