MAKES PARADE HIT

Many Morrow county people were in evidence in the Westward Ho parade at Pendleton, Friday, but excepting charming Queen Maxine, none was probably more so than F. W. Turner. Frank wore a striking platinum blonde wig to top a colorful feminine attire in which to ride his beautiful race horse. Frank says he knows he had a thousand pictures taken, from the number of cameras clicked in his direction, but to date had not been presented with a single print.

CHILDREN WARNED

Patrolman Mollahan warns that unless children playing around the Episcopal church and parish house refrain from doing damage to the church property steps will be taken.
