Sunday, Sept. 28, has come into the horizon of this week reminding us that time passes most swiftly. This fact should urge us on to greater efforts in our evangelistic meeting that begins with Sunday morning's service. Brother Schmid is one person you don't want to miss hearing. Not because he is any outstanding orator, but because of the message he has to bring. Come and bring a friend to the Church of Christ in Heppner Sunday. Services will be held every night except Monday at 7:30 p. m. in the local church for the next four weeks.

ALL SAINTS CHURCH

Sunday, Sept. 28th, is being observed as "Youth Sunday" and special services have been planned for All Saints Episcopal church. There will be a celebration of Holy Communion at 8 a. m. at which Archdeacon Eric O. Robathan will officiate, and which members of the Y. P. F. and other young people will attend. Breakfast will follow in the Parish House, served by the Y. P. F. At 11 a. m. there will be Morning Prayer conducted by the Y. P. F. Jim Barratt will read the service, and the lessons will be read by Marjorie Sims and Helen Fortner. The address will be given by Philip Cohn, being a sermon written especially for Youth by the Rev. B. Stanley Moore of Ontario who some years ago was in charge of All Saints mission. The "Youth Offering" taken at these services will be devoted to the various missionary objects abroad and in the U. S. A. All young people are cordially invited to join in the observance of "Youth Sunday." Eric O. Robathan, archdeacon of Eastern Oregon.

SOCIETY CHIT-CHAT
