FRIDAY-SATURDAY

PUDDIN' HEAD

Judy Canova, Francis Lederer, Raymond Walburn, Slim Summerville, Eddie Foy Jr.

A screaminly funny adventure that tops Judy's previous laugh riots.
—Plus—

PASSAGE FOR HONG KONG

Lucille Fairbanks, Keith Douglas, Paul Cavanagh

Mystery comedy.

SUNDAY-MONDAY

CAUGHT IN THE DRAFT

Bob Hope, Dorothy Lamour, Lynne Overman, Eddie Bracken, Clarence Kolb

What a guy to be in the army—and what an army when Bob Hope lands right in the middle of Uncle Sam's defense program! A laugh sensation.

TUESDAY

Bargain Night

ANGELS WITH BROKEN WINGS

Binnie Barnes, Gilbert Roland, Mary Lee, Billy Gilbert, Jane Frazee, Leo Gorcey

A romantic screwball opus with musical moments — hilarity and romance run riot!

Also Cliff Edwards and his Buckaroos clown and sing in a western musical short subject.

WEDNESDAY-THURSDAY

A WOMAN'S FACE

Joan Crawford, Melvyn Douglas, Conrad Veidt, Osa Massen, Reginald Owen, Albert Basserman, Marjorie Main

The 1941 triumph you've all heard about! The story of a woman whose disfigured face causes her to become the enemy of all mankind. A powerful and completely different drama.

A number of Heppner people are being attracted to Portland this week end because of the Pacific International Livestock exposition opening there today, and the Oregon State-Washington football game being played at Multnomah stadium Saturday. Among those going to the P. I. are Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Thompson, Mrs. Harold Cohn and Mrs. Robert Thompson, who will be with her daughter, Kathryn, for the week end. Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Miller are leaving today and will attend the game while there, as will Logie Richardson.

A large dessert bridge party was given last Friday at her home by Mrs. Clarence Rosewall. The rooms were filled with beautiful flowers. Seven tables of contract bridge were in play, with Mrs. Frank Nickerson winning high score, Mrs. Fred Lucas second, and Mrs. George Howard low.

Honoring Mr. and Mrs. William Bennett who left Sunday to make their home in Pendleton, Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Pinckney entertained members of the Kennel club at their home last Saturday evening. Bridge was played, with Jap Crawford winning high score for the men, and Mrs. Crawford for the women. Refreshments were served at the close of play and a gift was presented to the Bennetts by the hosts.

Miss Irma Van Schoiack and Miss Harriet Stewart of Portland, will drive up with A. Hillary of that city tomorrow, and will visit Miss Van Schoiack's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Cleve Van Schoiack. Mr. Hillary will join Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Stewart, who are visiting their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Van Schoiack this week, and the men will spend the week end on a hunting trip.

Word has been received by Mrs. Paul Hisler that her sister, Mrs. John Barrie, the former Patricia Monahan, became the mother of a baby girl last Thursday at Spokane.

Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Struve and children, and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Struve, all of Pendleton, spent last Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Blaine Isom.

Mrs. W. O. Dix was called to Portland Wednesday morning by the death of her brother, S. C. Young.

Mrs. Stanley Prybylski of Detroit, Mich., sister of Mrs. John Skuzeski, who has been visiting at the Skuzeski home here, will leave Friday for her home, going by way of Portland and Los Angeles.

James Furlong was taken to Portland for medical treatment Monday by his son, Howard.

Henry Aiken, who is in Portland for medical treatment, is reported to be feeling some better.

A 4-H demonstration will be presented to the Woolgrowers by Mrs. Lucy Rodgers at their monthly meeting to be held tomorrow at the Lucas Place. Starting with a no-host luncheon at 1:15, the business meeting will follow, with Mrs. B. C. Pinckney, president, in charge.

Mrs. Fred Lucas will be hostess to the T & C club this afternoon at her home.

Mrs. Anna Bayless received word that her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Howard Swick of Monument, has returned to Prairie City for hospitalization.

Mr. and Mrs. Mark Merrill returned Monday evening from a week's vacation trip, which included a stay at Depoe Bay, where they had expected to fish, but could not because of the wind; several days in Seattle, where they attended the baseball games between Hollywood and Seattle, and a football game between Pacific Lutheran college and Gonzaga at Tacoma. They returned through Yakima valley where they saw Mr. Merrill's sisters, Mrs. Jack Pettijohn and Mrs. James Ireland at Toppenish.

Miss Virginia Thompson of Portland, cousin of Mrs. Gene Ferguson, will arrive at the Ferguson home next week for a visit.

Mrs. Mark Merrill and her mother, Mrs. Lillian Smith, will leave today for Portland, where they will spend several days.

Mrs. Henry Aiken, accompanied by Mrs. Robert Thompson, drove her son, Henry, Jr., to Ellensburg last Wednesday, where he enrolled in the Central Washington College of Education. Mrs. Thompson visited at the home of her nephew, Leo Nicholson, and she and Mrs. Aiken returned on Friday.

Edwin Dick, Jr., is another successful hunter who brought in his deer this week. He is especially pleased, as this is his first.

Mrs. C. C. Patterson had two tables of bridge at her home last Saturday afternoon for dessert bridge.

Mrs. Stephen Thompson entertained the Wednesday club yesterday at her home with a dessert bridge. Mrs. Tom Wilson was high and Mrs. Thompson second.

The Eastern Star Social club will meet at the Masonic hall Saturday afternoon with Mrs. Clarence Rosewall and Mrs. Garnet Barratt as hostesses.

Mr. and Mrs. George Howard, accompanied by their children and Mrs. Doris Armstrong, left Wednesday for Yakima, where they will remain until Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Ferguson drove to Pendleton Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Ferguson, Marylou will leave tomorrow for Grants Pass where Marylou will appear in a piano recital Saturday afternoon at the Woman's club. While there the Fergusons will be house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Tetz. Mrs. Cora Crawford will drive as far as Brownsville where she will visit her sister, Mrs. J. B. Cooley for a week.

Friends have received word of the marriage of Mrs. Doris Rice to Boyd J. B. McClung, on September 20 at Grants Pass. Mr. and Mrs. McClung are living at Rogue River, where Mr. McClung is associated with the lumber business.

Mrs. Alden Blankenship entertained the Kensington club at her home last Monday afternoon, with Mrs. Lyle Swenson and Mrs. Tom Wilson as guests. The affair was a dessert luncheon.
