Jim Kelly, veteran newspaper man and advertising manager for Oregon Outdoors, new state wildlife publication, was an interesting business visitor in the city Saturday. Kelly recalled that as advertising manager of the old Portland Telegram at the time of the Heppner flood in 1903 he promoted a benefit baseball game between the "front end" and "back end" forces of that newspaper. So popular did the game prove to be that many leading players about the city participated and a neat sum was raised to send to the stricken city of Heppner.

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT

In memory of Sister Melissa Marlett, who died September 28, 1941.

Once again death hath summoned a Sister Rebekah, and the golden gateway to the Eternal City has opened to welcome her to her home.

She has completed her work in the ministering to the wants of the afflicted, in shedding light into darkened souls and in bringing joy into the places of misery, and as her reward she has received the plaudit "Well done" from the Supreme Master.

And whereas, the merciful Master has called our beloved Sister home,

Be it therefore, resolved, that Sans Souci Rebekah Lodge No. 33, of Heppner, Oregon, drape its charter in mourning for thirty days, and that we tender the family of our deceased sister our sincere condolence in their deep affliction; and that a copy of these resolutions be sent to the family.

Neva S. Welle, Anna Brown, Sadie M. Sigsbee, Committee.

District Rebekah Conclave Reported

The 20th annual Rebekah convention of District No. 20 was held in the I. O. O. F. hall in Fossil, Thursday, Sept. 30. The meeting was opened at 2 p. m. by the officers of Blue Mountain Rebekah lodge No. 68, who then surrendered their chairs to the convention officers, Mrs. Rita Simmons being a very able chairman. Her right supporter was Mrs. Myrtle McAlpin of Eugene, the president of the Rebekah assembly of Oregon.

An interesting and instructive program was given during the afternoon and evening sessions, including an address of welcome by Blue Mountain lodge, a response by Bunch Grass No. 91; readings by Mrs. Pauline Ball; a paper on the defense question and a tribute to the president by San Souci No. 33; an exemplification of balloting and presentation of the flag by Blue Mountain, explanation of cards by Bunch Grass; memorial exercises and draping of charter by Evening Star No. 69; a duet by Mrs. Thelma Matthews and Mrs. Dorothy Mainard; a piano solo by Mrs. LaVonne Hawes; an unwritten work contest by various lodges and won by a member of the Heppner lodge; an interesting talk by the president; as well as reports from various committees and seating of new convention officers, namely: Elaine Rietmann, Ione, chairman; Mary McDaniel, Hardman, vice-chairman; Lena Lundell, Ione, secretary-treas-

An invitation was extended to the convention to meet with the Ione lodge in 1942. After all business was concluded the convention officers surrendered their chairs to Blue Mountain lodge, which declared the 1941 convention closed.
