 Christian Endeavor 7:00
 Evening Service 8:00
 Prayer Meeting, Thursday evening 7:30

REVIVAL PROGRESSES

No time in our history have we needed to be stirred and challenged concerning the fundamentals of our democracy. Our forefathers "brought upon this continent a new nation" founded upon the everlasting principles of God's word. Brother Schmid minces no words when he warns of our condition today. If you have not heard him, avail yourself of the opportunity at once. This week his topics are concerning the second coming of Christ. Sunday they are "The Church," "The Fellow Who Went to the Wrong Place for Information." Next week's topics are concerning the first principles of the Christian life. All are welcome.

PENTECOSTAL ASSEMBLY OF GOD

FORCED LANDING

Richard Arlen, Jean Parker, Helen Mack, Roger Pryor, Cliff Edwards
 Fast-moving aviation picture full of exciting incidents.

SUNDAY-MONDAY

DIVE BOMBER

(In glorious technicolor)
 Sp ine-tingling suspense! Adventure with the world's fastest fighting craft—the U. S. Navy's Dive Bombers! A thrilling picture with an excellent cast including Errol Flynn, Fred MacMurray, Ralph Bellamy, Alexis Smith, Allen Jenkins.

TUESDAY Bargain Night

THE GET-AWAY

Charles Winninger, Robert Sterling, Donna Reed, Henry O'Neill, Dan Dailey Jr.

Who doesn't love thrills and mystery blended with comedy and a love story? That's the entertainment in store for you in "The Get-Away."

WEDNESDAY-THURSDAY

ICECAPADES OF 1941

James Ellison, Jerry Colonna, Dorothy Lewis, Barbara Jo Allen, Alan Mowbray, and the Icecapades Company with their Internationally Famous Skating Stars

Good comedy and spectacular ice show highlight this film of romance suspense and action. Jerry Colonna and Barbara Jo Allen (Vera Vague) almost steal the show with tremendously funny dialogue and routines.

SOCIETY CHIT-CHAT

The Pacific International show, the Stanford-Oregon State football game, combined with Dad's day at Corvallis, are again drawing a number of Heppner people toward Portland and Corvallis. In addition, the teachers' institute frees all the young scholars here for Thursday and Friday of this week, making a nice holiday for the family for those who want to go away. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wilkinson and daughter Shirley left this morning for Portland and Corvallis, where they will meet Dick and Frances Wilkinson, attend the game and celebrate Dad's day. Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Thompson left today for Portland, and will go on to Corvallis for the game, returning Monday. Mr. and Mrs. James Valentine also left today, and will take in the stock show as well as the game.

Mrs. B. F. Kariher and her daughter, Mrs. Robert Webster, both of Newcastle, Pa., left Tuesday evening on the plane at Pendleton for their home. They had been visiting here for the last ten days, making the plane trip from Pittsburgh to Pendleton in one day, having left at 6 a. m., and arrived here at 8 p. m. While here they visited at the home of Mrs. Kariher's two sisters, Mrs. J. O. Hager and Mrs. C. C. Patterson. Last Saturday they were driven to Snohomish, Wash., by Mr. and Mrs. Jim Hager, and with Mrs. J. O. Hager and Mrs. Patterson accompanying them. While there they visited Mrs. Patterson's daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. LeGrand Guild. On their way home they inspected the Grand Coulee dam, and returned to Heppner Sunday evening.

The Eastern Star Social club met last Saturday afternoon at the Masonic hall, with two tables of bridge in play. Mrs. Clarence Rosewall and Mrs. Garnet Barratt were hostesses, and the affair was a dessert bridge. Mrs. David Wilson won high score, Mrs. Earl Gilliam low, and Mrs. W. C. McNamer received a door prize.

The What's Trumps club was entertained last Thursday evening at the Lucas Place by Mrs. Vawter Parker. High score was won by Mrs. Harold Cohn and low by Mrs. Stephen Thompson. Refreshments were served at the close of play.

The Morrow County Woolgrowers service at 7:30 o'clock. If you like singing do not miss this service. Thursday, Oct. 16: Bible study and prayer service at 7:30 p. m.

auxiliary met last Friday afternoon at the Lucas Place for luncheon and business meeting. On the program were Gwen Glasgow and Mildred Clary who presented their prize winning spot removal demonstration, for which they were awarded a blue ribbon at the state fair. Also on the program were Mrs. Tom Wilson, who, accompanied by Mrs. Alden Blankenship, presented two violin solos.

Mrs. Henry Aiken left yesterday afternoon for Portland, accompanied by Mrs. Jasper Crawford and two children. Mrs. Aiken will visit her husband, who is taking medical treatment in the city, and Mrs. Crawford will be with her mother, Mrs. Truman Babb.

The T & C club met Thursday afternoon at the Lucas Place, with Mrs. Fred Lucas hostess. Mrs. L. E. Dick won high score for the afternoon, and Mrs. J. F. Pfeiffer of Seattle second. Refreshments were served following the play.

Dinner guests at the Orville Smith home last Thursday evening were Ralph Bockmier and Al Moss of Spokane and Leonard Kraft of Bridal Veil.

Honoring her daughter Judy's third birthday, Mrs. Stephen Thompson was hostess to 12 small youngsters at her home yesterday. Small individual birthday cakes, with candles, were presented to each guest, with a large birthday cake centering the refreshment table. And, of course, ice cream was served. As the day before was Judy's daddy's birthday, he was co-owner of the big cake.

Although Mrs. Furlong and Howard are still with him in Portland, James Furlong is reported as improving from his recent operation.

Mrs. Anna Bayless returned Sunday from Monument, where she spent several days with her family.

The Episcopal Auxiliary met this afternoon at the Parish House, with Mrs. Anna Q. Thomson and Mrs. Percy Hughes as hostesses.

Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Turner drove to The Dalles, and while in the vicinity visited the Mary Hill museum which they reported as very worthwhile.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Fortner of Grass Valley visited Mrs. Fortner's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lucas, last week end.

Walter Duncan, who was called here by the death of his brother, Harry, left today for Pendleton, from where he will go on to his home in Los Angeles on Friday.

Mrs. Alden Blankenship entertained her duplicate club this afternoon at the Lucas Place with a dessert bridge.

Cliff Jenison returned to work at the Pacific Power & Light company Tuesday after an absence of three weeks. Mr. Jenison has been suffering from eye trouble.

Mrs. Emma A. Evans of Spokane, mother of Mrs. Stephen Thompson, arrived Wednesday morning for a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Thompson.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Stewart of Pendleton were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Thompson last week end, and spent Sunday hunting. Mr. and Mrs. Stewart will become residents of Heppner about the 15th of this month, when Mr. Stewart will open his new FSA office now being prepared in the Heppner hotel building. They have taken an apartment in the Zinter home.

The Music Study club met Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Frank Turner, with Miss Leta Humphreys in charge of the program. The group studied the opera "Aida," and Mrs. Alden Blankenship and Mrs. J. O. Turner illustrated some of the music on the piano. Mrs. Ture Peterson sang a solo from the opera and Mrs. Earl Blake on the life of Verde. Mrs. Ed Dick, Jr., and Mrs. Turner were hostesses and served refreshments at the close of the evening.

Mrs. Earle Bryant entertained her bridge club at her home Tuesday evening. Guests were Mrs. Frank Peavy, Mrs. William Cox, Mrs. Frank Connor, Mrs. Norton Lundell, Mrs. Cornett Green, Mrs. Oscar Rippee and Mrs. Kenneth House. High score was won by Mrs. Bryant and second by Mrs. Cox. Refreshments were served at the close of play.
