J. F. Barlows Observe Golden Wedding

By MRS. CLAUD COATS

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Barlow were honor guests at their golden wedding anniversary dinner held in the grange hall Saturday, September 27, at 1 p. m., attended by all the family except one son-in-law, Jay Cox of Seattle, whose work made attendance impossible. Covers were laid for 37 persons, and dinner served with the assistance of Mrs. Leo Root and Mrs. Harry Fors, to the family group.

Children and families present were Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Barlow and daughters Marie and Lucille of Heppner, Mrs. Jay Cox and son Jesse of Seattle, daughter and son-in-law Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Love of Kent, Wash., and son and wife Mr. and Mrs. Dale Cox and baby Cheryl Jo of Seattle, Mr. and Mrs. Truman Messenger and family, Truman, Jr., Rena, Franklin, Betty Lou and Jerry of Meacham, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Barlow and children Beryl and Susan of Eugene, Mr. and Mrs. Zearl Gillespie and sons Donald and Lynn, Mr. and Mrs. Claud Coats, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Barlow and daughter Carma, Mrs. Crystal Barlow and daughter Chloe, all of Boardman, and Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Mallery of Washington, D. C.

Following the dinner Mr. and Mrs. Barlow received presents from the family. Sharing attentions of the day was baby Cheryl Jo Cox of Seattle, the first and only great grand child.

In the evening the community gave a party honoring Mr. and Mrs. Barlow in the school auditorium, featuring a clever shadow pantomime of highlights and incidents and favorite music throughout the life of the couple.

Presentation of a swing rocker to Mrs. Barlow and an electric razor to Mr. Barlow from the community followed, and lunch was served in the cafeteria to a very large group, Mrs. Barlow cutting the beautiful wedding cake.

Mr. and Mrs. Barlow were married in Kansas in 1891. The first eleven years of married life they spent in Thomas county, Kansas, leaving there and coming to Morrow county in August, 1902, residing in this county since, a large part of the time near Heppner, but the last 16 years in Boardman.

Biddy Goes to Work Early

America will need millions of eggs this winter, as part of the "defense food" production. Kathlyn Hines, pretty 4-H club girl, shows biddy that soldier hours will be expected. Many poultry producers follow this practice of turning on electric lights in laying houses early in the morning during winter months. The practice compensates for the fewer hours of daylight and gives hens a full day of eating and laying.
