

HARDMAN NEWS

Carey Hastings First Hardman Elk Bagger

By ELSA M. LEATHERS

Elk season opened November 1st with most of Hardman's elk hunters in their camps ready. Fog and rain both made bad hunting. Nevertheless Carey Hastings brought down a nice cow, and at this writing, Tuesday, they say about six other elk were killed in the Tupper district.

Wednesday evening, Mrs. Lurline McDaniel entertained her room at her home with a masquerade Halloween party. Games were played and prizes given.

Katherme McIntyre attended the card party given at the I. O. O. F. hall benefit for the new Catholic church, at Hepner Friday evening.

Sam Johnson moved his trailer house to Hardman Saturday and is repairing the Blue Mt. phone line here now.

Miss Ruth Eversole entertained the high school at her home Thursday night. She served cookies and punch.

Jimmie McDaniel came from his home at Scio to hunt elk with his brother Charley, and also visit a sister, Mrs. Ella Bleakman.

Frank McDaniel went to Hilgard near La Grande to help bring the Oren Wright sheep home from summer range.

Mrs. Victor Lovgren and children and Marshal and Bobby Lovgren visited in town Sunday.

Mrs. Raymond Reid from Blackburn's mill and Mrs. Raymond McDonald and daughter Patsy are visiting this week at Hardman.

Mrs. Ted Burnside and daughters came home from Hermiston this week.

Mrs. Eldon McFerrin took her small son Ray and Mr. and Mrs. Sam McDaniel and daughter Maxene to Pendleton Friday afternoon. Both Ray and Maxene underwent tonsilectomies at the St. Anthony's hospital. They all returned home Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Howell and son Clifford of Top visited here at the Sam McDaniel, Sr., home Sunday and Monday.

Mrs. Roy Robinson and daughter Rita went to Portland on Thursday. Rita will attend a beauty school, and Mrs. Robinson will visit in that city for a time before returning to her home here.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Wyland of Rhea creek visited in town Sunday.

Mrs. Carey Hastings, Mr. and Mrs. Sam McDaniel, Mrs. Carl Leathers and Mrs. Ella Bleakman all attended to business in Hepner Tuesday.

Mrs. Austin Devin and Mrs. Katherine McIntyre shopped in Pendleton Saturday.

PINE CITY NEWS

By BERNICE WATTENBURGER

Mrs. Lucy Jarmon and Mrs. Jasper Myers, Phebe Bartholomew called Thursday at the Frank Saling and Neal Melville homes.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Van Orsdall of Pendleton spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Wattenburger. The men spent the day hunting.

Lila Myers, Lucy Jarmon, Bernice Wattenburger and daughters were callers Saturday at the Walter Wigglesworth home.

Mr. Jim Furlong of Hepner passed away Saturday morning in Portland. He was buried Tuesday in Hepner at 2 o'clock. Those from the creek attending were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bartholomew, Mrs. Marion Finch, Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Ayers, Gladys Corrigan and many others.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Rauch of Hermiston were callers Sunday at the Clayton Ayers home.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Neill, Mrs. Eldon Kinten and Mrs. Lucy Jarmon were Sunday dinner guests at the Dee Neill home.

Mr. and Mrs. Jasper Myers, Faye Finch and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Ayers attended the dance at Lena Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Reid Buseick of Long Creek spent Sunday evening with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Wattenburger. They called Monday morning on Mrs. Eldon Kinten for a visit.

Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Wattenburger made a business trip to Walla Walla Monday and called on Mr. and Mrs. Roy Conser.

Read the ads. It pays.

BOARDMAN NEWS

By MRS. CLAUD COATS

Mrs. Dick Robinson and two small children were visiting Wednesday and Thursday in the John Day country.

Only five ladies from Greenfield grange were able to attend the Oregon State Grange conference held at Lexington hall Wednesday. Those attending were the Mesdames Harry Ford, Clyde Tannehill, Art Allen, A. E. McFarland and Doris Lilly.

Mrs. Marion Duvall of Blayden, Neb., left for her home last Sunday after spending several weeks with her mother, Mrs. Ida Potts.

Guests of Mrs. Delia Wagner over the week end were her brother and family of Rudyard, Idaho, Mr. and Mrs. George Peebler.

Mr. and Mrs. Z. J. Gillespie and sons Donald and Lynn left for Tulare, Calif., being called by the illness of Zearl's father, Ed Gillespie. They were accompanied on the trip by Mr. Gillespie's brother, Art Gillespie and family of Hermiston.

George DeLano of Spokane arrived Wednesday to spend the winter with his brother, Tom DeLano and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Lay and children, Willis and Arlene, motored to Molalla Friday to spend the week

Farm Bureau to Hold Convention November 14-15

Pendleton—Oregon farm problems in the light of the present national and world situation will occupy the attention of the Oregon Farm Bureau at its seventh annual convention at the Columbia Gorge hotel near Hood River November 14 and 15, announces Mac Hoke, state president.

The convention proper will open Friday noon, November 14, with the annual address of President Hoke, although this will be preceded by meetings of several committees, which will outline a proposed program of work for 1942. These committees will deal with federal agricultural programs, taxation and legislation, organization and membership, and with the various phases of farm production such as livestock, poultry, dairying, and fruit and vegetable raising.

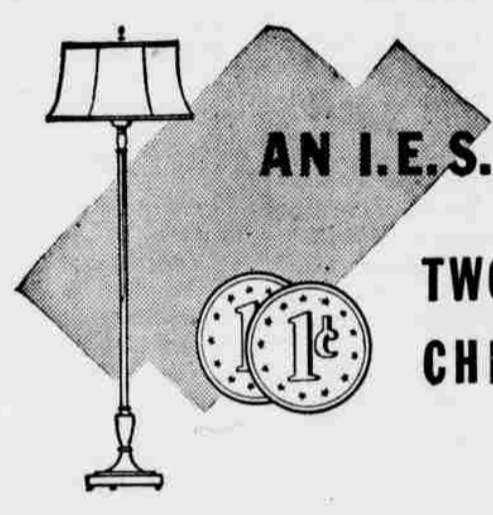

Speakers on the opening day program will include E. B. McNaughton, president of the First National bank of Portland, who will discuss "What of the Future"; W. L. Teutsch, assistant extension director at Oregon State college, who will speak on "Farmers and the Defense Program"; and G. R. Hyslop, head of the division of plant industries at O. S. C., who will discuss "Making the Farmer Self-Sufficient."

Others on the convention program will be H. W. Young, manager of Oregon Business and Tax Research, Inc.; R. D. Flaherty, secretary of the Washington Farm Bureau; George Hudson, manager of the Wenatchee Apple Growers association, and John Klas, newly elected secretary of the Oregon Farm Bureau, who is at present organization director of the Wisconsin Farm Bureau. The annual banquet will be held Friday evening, with S. G. Rubincow, Denver, western regional director of the American Farm Bureau federation, the principal speaker.

One feature of the meeting will be joint consideration of wheat growers' and livestock men's problems, with respect to the present wheat marketing quotas. A committee to consider this situation will be headed by F. A. Phillips of Baker.

SHIP BY TRUCK
The Dalles Freight Line, Inc.
 SERVICE BETWEEN
PORTLAND : THE DALLES : HEPNER
 AND WAY POINTS
Arrive Tuesday, Thursday, Saturday
 Warehouse: KANE'S GARAGE Carl D. Spickerman, Agent

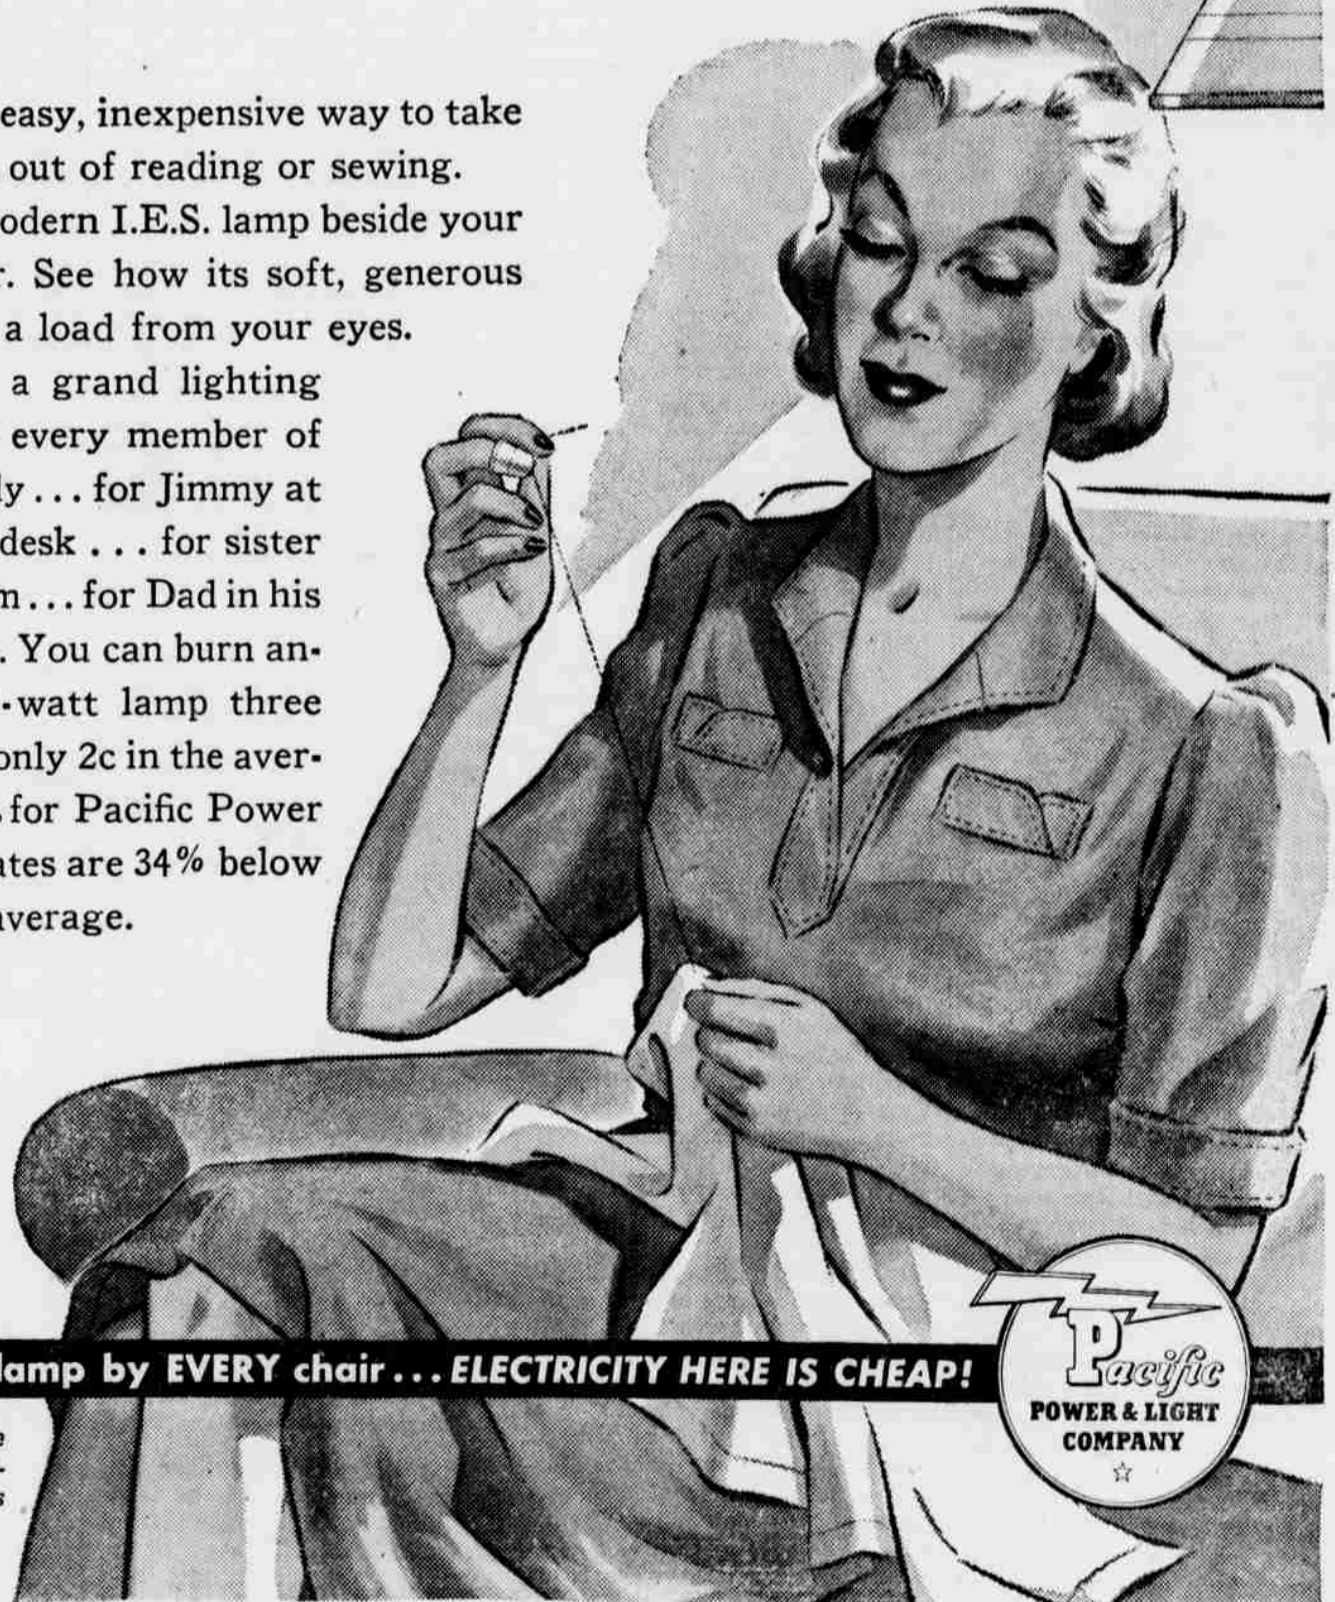

AN I.E.S. BETTER-LIGHT LAMP—
TWO CENTS' WORTH OF PP&L'S
CHEAP ELECTRICITY—AND—

You can relax all evening!

Here's an easy, inexpensive way to take the strain out of reading or sewing.

Put a modern I.E.S. lamp beside your easy chair. See how its soft, generous light lifts a load from your eyes.

This is a grand lighting recipe for every member of your family... for Jimmy at his study desk... for sister in her room... for Dad in his easy chair. You can burn another 300-watt lamp three hours for only 2c in the average home, for Pacific Power & Light rates are 34% below national average.

Put a good lamp by EVERY chair... ELECTRICITY HERE IS CHEAP!

Dealers everywhere are displaying the attractive 1942 models of I.E.S. lamps.

