

SOCIETY CHIT-CHAT

By JUNE SMITH

More than 150 women attended the free meat cookery lecture given Monday afternoon at the high school gymnasium. Conducted by Miss Edaline Stohr, member of the cooking school staff of the National Live Stock and Meat board, the demonstration was sponsored by the Woolgrowers auxiliary of Morrow county and the Morrow county agricultural agent. Miss Stohr was accompanied by Miss Lucy Case of the Oregon state extension service, who introduced her. Miss Stohr proved to be a very charming speaker, and easily held the interest of her audience for two and one half hours, dexterously turning out luscious looking platters and dishes, while explaining to her audience how to cook them, and the importance of food in the defense campaign of our country. At the close of the lecture names were drawn for the food cooked in the demonstration and the lucky winners were Mrs. Ralph Thompson, Mrs. Bertha Johnson, Mrs. Dave Wilson, Mrs. Fred Lucas and Mrs. Harold Cohn. Noticed among the crowd were several women from Pendleton, including Mrs. Mac Hoke, Mrs. Walter Holt and Mrs. Cason.

It is hoped that a large number will attend the fashion show and tea to be held tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 at the Parish House by the Woolgrowers auxiliary. This affair is not for auxiliary members alone, but for all who are interested, and there is no charge for admission. A wool exhibit will be among the features, with a fashion show of wool clothing of all types and for all ages to be held. A program will also be given, and refreshments served. This will take the place of the regular auxiliary for this month. Mrs. Tom Wilson is chairman of the fashion show, Mrs. W. H. Cleveland is chairman for the decorations and Mrs. Earl Gilliam is chairman for the tea.

On the sick list this week is Jim Barratt who is suffering from an injury sustained in the football game with Pendleton several weeks ago, and Kemp Dick, who is confined to his home with a severe case of eczema.

Fifteen tables of cards were in play last Hallowe'en, when the Altar society held its card party at the I. O. O. F. hall. Sam Turner and Mrs. Jerry Brosnan won high score for the pinochle play, and Ambrose Chapin and Mrs. Earl Gilliam won high for bridge. Appropriate refreshments were served at the evening's end.

The Eastern Star social club met last Saturday afternoon at the lodge hall. Three tables of bridge were in play, following the serving of dessert by the hostesses, Mrs. A. D. McMurdo and Mrs. W. H. Cleveland. High score for the afternoon was won by Mrs. Fred Lucas, with Mrs. J. J. Nys receiving low.

Mrs. Harlan McCurdy is entertaining members of the T & C club at her home this afternoon.

Mrs. William Cox was hostess to her bridge club at her home last Tuesday evening. Mrs. Norton Lundell won high score and Mrs. Lee Burroughs second. Refreshments were served at the close of play.

Miss Virginia Thompson, who has been visiting Mrs. Gene Ferguson, returned to her home in Portland last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Hanlon and son Wayne spent the week end in The Dalles, where they visited Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Hamrick, former Heppler residents.

Fred Lucas went to Pendleton Monday, where he began serving on the U. S. grand jury on Tuesday.

Jean Parker celebrated her ninth birthday last Monday with a Hallowe'en party at her home that afternoon. Eight of her playmates were her guests, and the afternoon was spent playing games, and climaxed by a birthday cake and ice cream which was served by her mother, Mrs. Ed Parker.

Mrs. Phil Mahoney returned to Pendleton last Thursday, where she is at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Hyatt.

Bill Lees of Ontario, accompanied by Miss A. Graham, flew into Heppler Saturday to pay a call on Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lucas. He flies his own plane.

Nephew of Mrs. Ralph Thompson, John Hays of Portland, has been visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Thompson for a few days prior to his departure to report for army duty at Fort Lewis, Wash.

Mr. and Mrs. Leighton Isom of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Struve of Pendleton were hunting guests of Mr. and Mrs. Blaine Isom last week end.

Accompanied by his father, Fred Miller of Oregon City, Dr. Dwight Miller spent last week end hunting elk.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Moore of Portland, who have been hunting guests of Mr. and Mrs. Dick Wells, returned home Monday.

Mrs. Bob Lowe, who has been in a Portland hospital the last two weeks, is reported improving.

Mrs. D. E. Fuller and daughter, Shirley Anne, of Hawthorn, Cal.

arrived Friday for a visit with her sister, Mrs. J. G. Thomson, Jr., and family. Mrs. Fuller and daughter will return to their home this Sunday.

Kenneth Batty of Kimberly visited Saturday with Mr. and Mrs. Dick Wells.

Mr. and Mrs. Al Stott left Heppler last Friday to take up farming in Wasco county.

The Music Study club met last Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Frank Turner, with Mrs. Bob Jones assistant hostess. Josephine Mahoney was in charge of the program, which featured the opera "Carmen," and was illustrated by a biography of Bizet, the composer, by Mrs. Margaret Blake, vocal solos by Mrs. Ture Peterson and Miss Rose Hoosier, a dance by Miss Margaret Wright, piano solos by Mrs. J. O. Turner and Mrs. Alden Blankenship and a violin solo by Mrs. Tom Wilson. Refreshments were served at the close of the evening.

Legion auxiliary meeting Monday evening, Nov. 10, at home of Della Davidson, Lera Crawford assisting hostess.

Barn Dance Frolics To Show at Star

The Uncle Ezra Smith road show will appear in person at the Star theater on Friday, Saturday, November 7-8. The Barn Dance Frolics as the show is called is just that, with a galaxy of boys and girls on the stage in one of the funniest and fastest of barn dances ever held.

The show is headlined by "Uncle Ezra Smith" himself, one of the funniest, and best of the corn-fed Master of Ceremonies, ever to appear with a group of this kind. Also included in the line up of funmakers are the two radio blackface comics, "Sugar-foot and Ruffus," who are appearing in the coast to coast tour with the company. Music on the show is furnished by the "Yodeling Ropers" of KNX Hollywood, on the CBS hook-up.

All the performers on the show have attained individual recognition and have appeared with many of the leading radio and screen stars throughout the country.

Mr. and Mrs. Vincent L. Lulay of Salem announce the birth of a 9 pound son October 28 in the capital city. Mrs. Lulay formerly was Miss Zelma Eskelson of this city.
