

SOCIETY CHIT-CHAT

By JUNE SMITH

A letter received from Mrs. Frank Alfred, who with Lieutenant Alfred is stationed at Columbus, Georgia, says, "Yesterday I got the paper from Heppner and it seemed so good to hear what was going on... Frank reads the news of the hunters most wistfully. That was a real disappointment again this fall. Needless to say the west coast is going to look pretty good to us when we get back. I have spent as much time below the Mason-Dixon line as I ever want to. We have seen some things of interest but find the country rather lacking in scenic interest and the land appears decidedly poverty stricken."

"Please remember me to everyone and we are hoping to get back some day."

A district meeting for the Eastern Star will be held in Heppner this Friday, and will include the Locust chapter of Ione. Officers will be feted at a dinner at the Lucas Place, with Mrs. H. Faye Ambrose, of Portland, the worthy grand matron, an honored guest.

The fashion show and tea given last Friday afternoon at the Parish House by the Morrow County Wool Growers auxiliary attracted a large crowd. The fashion show was under the direction of Mrs. Tom Wilson, chairman, with the committee composed of Mrs. Raymond Ferguson, Mrs. Orville Smith, Mrs. J. G. Barratt, Mrs. George Howard, Mrs. Stephen Thompson, Mrs. Dick Lawrence and Mrs. Vawter Parker. Wool clothing for all ages was shown, with Mrs. Elizabeth Blankenship at the piano and Mrs. Tom Wilson and her violin playing appropriate music.

Marylou Ferguson presented a piano solo and Mrs. Ture Peterson, accompanied by Mrs. Blankenship, gave a vocal solo. The tea table was beautifully decorated with a low bowl of rosebuds placed upon a lace cloth, and lovely silver urns for tea and coffee. Mrs. C. W. McNamer and Mrs. Sophrona Thompson poured. The tea committee was composed of Mrs. Earl Gilliam, chairman; Mrs. A. D. McMurdo, Mrs. Frank Wilkinson, Mrs. Ana Bayless, Mrs. Henry Krebs, Mrs. B. C. Pinckney, Mrs. Luke Bibby and Mrs. Agnes Wilcox. In charge of decorations were Mrs. W. H. Cleveland, chairman; Mrs. Gene Ferguson, Mrs. Harvey Miller and Mrs. C. W. McNamer. A profusion of fall flowers made the room most attractive.

Announcement of the birth of a baby boy, weighing 7 pounds 9 ounces, to Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Mahoney at the St. Anthony's hospital at Pendleton, November 10, has been received.

The Legion auxiliary met Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Frank Davidson, with Mrs. Lera Crawford assisting hostess. The preschool clinic for children, sponsored by this organization, and held yesterday at the Parish House, was planned. Also discussed was the district conference to be held with the American Legion here November 24.

The Episcopal auxiliary met this afternoon at the Parish House.

Mrs. Harlan McCurdy entertained the T & C club at her home last Thursday afternoon. Mrs. Dave Wilson won high score and Mrs. Fred Lucas second. Refreshments were served at the close of play.

Mrs. W. O. Dix, Mrs. L. E. Bisbee and Mrs. Charles Thomson were hostesses at a bridge luncheon held last Saturday afternoon at the Lucas Place. Five tables of bridge were in play, with Mrs. Fred Lucas winning high score, Mrs. B. C. Pinckney second and Mrs. Gene Ferguson low. The prizes were defense stamps pasted in a booklet.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Rosewall spent last week end in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Cohn left Tuesday for Portland where they expect to remain for several days. They were accompanied by Mrs. Ralph Thompson.

The cast of the senior play, presented at the high school last Friday evening, gathered at the Gene Ferguson home afterward, where refreshments were served them by Mrs. Ferguson. In addition to the play cast were Miss Browning and Miss Lee, who assisted with make-up, and Mr. and Mrs. Norbert Peavy.

Mr. and Mrs. Cornett Green and family left Tuesday for Portland where they will visit Mrs. Green's sister and family, Mr. and Mrs.

Jimmy Estes, and Mrs. Green's sister, Mrs. A. Green and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Benge are entertaining visitors, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Stephens of Dayton, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Baird of Newberg, and Mrs. A. A. Willis of Portland.

Mrs. Anna Bayless is with her son, Howard Swick, in Monument, while Mrs. Swick is recovering from an operation in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Blaine Isom and daughter Harriet spent the week end in La Grande, where they visited Mr. and Mrs. Glen Sherer, former Heppner residents. Mrs. Sherer is interested in weaving and has received honorable mention for her work at the Saem fair, and has received some publicity in the local newspapers. Mr. and Mrs. Isom spent Monday and Tuesday in Pendleton at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Struve.

Word has been received that Bill Barratt and another contestant were tied for second place in the essay contest sponsored by Swift & Co. for juniors in the agricultural college at Oregon State. Bill is now coordinator for the Ag club on the radio station, KOAC, every Wednesday night.

Mrs. Jap Crawford entertained the Wednesday club at her home yesterday with a dessert luncheon. Mrs. Crawford was high and Mrs. Garnet Barratt won second.

Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Thompson drove to Spokane Sunday, taking Mrs. Thompson's mother, Mrs. Emma Evans to her home, after she had spent a month visiting in Heppner. They returned on Tuesday evening.
