

WHITE-SHOUN

The marriage of Miss Freda Mae White, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd White of Walla Walla, became the bride of James Shoun, former Heppner boy at 7:30 last Thursday evening, the eve of her mother's wedding anniversary at a candle-light ceremony in the Washington city. The Rev. Thomas McCamant of the United Church, Lewiston, read the service in the presence of 30 relatives and close friends. The bride was given in marriage by her father. The ceremony took place before a large window in the living room banked with ferns and decorated with baskets of bronze chrysanthemums and roses and lighted with white tapers in tall white can-dalabra, according to report in the Walla Walla paper. The bride graduated from Pietrzycki high school in June and was employed in Walla Walla prior to the time of her marriage. She was prominent in activities in school and took an active part in the Junior American Legion auxiliary here. The bridegroom was reared in Heppner where his people still live. He is employed at a garage in Walla Walla.
