Ione Parent-Teachers Perfect Organization

By MRS. ELMER GRIFFITH

A basketball jamboree will be held at the Ione gym on Tuesday evening, Nov. 25. Short games with the players chosen by lot, also foul throwing, will be features of the entertainment, and teams from Echo, Heppner, Umatilla, Stanfield, Boardman, Lexington, Irrigon and Ione will participate. This will be followed by a game between the teams from Eastern Oregon College and Domestic Laundry. A record breaking crowd is expected.

Ione's football boys were honored with a pot luck supper and party Friday evening at the school house. On next Friday the football boys will be guests of the mothers at a banquet at the Congregational church. This is being sponsored by the church. On Thanksgiving day the coach, Mr. Hummel, will take the boys to Walla Walla to see a college game.

A Parent-Teachers association was organized in Ione on Saturday afternoon with the election of officers resulting as follows: President, Mrs. Franklin Ely; vice-president, Mrs. Elmer Griffith; secretary, Mrs. Hugh Smith. A committee to form by-laws and report at the next meeting consists of Mrs. Omar Rietmann, Mrs. Elmer Griffith, and William Burk. Mrs. Thomas, the county nurse, was present and gave some pointers on the care of infantile paralysis.

This section received 1.06 inch of rain during the past week, with Friday night and Saturday bringing .65 inch.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred T. Odom of Salem are guests at the home of their son, Foster, at Morgan. They plan to stay until after Thanksgiving.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Matthews left Tuesday for Roseburg to spend Thanksgiving.

Erret Hummel underwent a minor operation on his foot in Heppner Saturday morning, as the result of an injury sustained last summer while working on the Swanson warehouse.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Harris have returned from a two weeks vacation trip to California.

Memorial services were held in Ione Wednesday afternoon for Walter Eugene Nolan, who died at Cottonwood, Idaho on November 10 at the age of sixty-nine years. Mr. Nolan was born in Texas, but came to Morrow county with his uncle, C. T. Walker, when he was 16 years of age. He was married to Iva Maude Dorman, who died some years ago. Mr. Nolan was a charter member of the I. O. O. F. and Rebekah lodges at Ione. He is survived by six children, all of whom were present at the final rites. They are Gladys Johnson, Mrs. Frank Hayden, and Mrs. William Simon, all of Idaho; and Millard V. of Heppner, Walter of Portland, and Elmo of Boise.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Conser of Walla Walla were here to attend the Nolan funeral. They are former residents of this county. Mrs. Conser was formerly Grace Wattenburger.

Eastern Star members attended the district meeting in Heppner Friday evening and also enjoyed a banquet at the Lucas Place before chapter. This chapter exemplified the balloting and initiation ceremonies for the grand matron, with Anne C. Smouse, W. M., and Henry V. Smouse, W. P., presiding. Among the Ione members were two members of the grand family, Roxy Krebs, grand representative of British Columbia, and Mabel Krebs, member of the international temple fund committee.

The Women's Topic club met last Friday at the home of Mrs. C. W. Swanson. The program dealt with Armistice day and Thanksgiving day.

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Lundell had the misfortune to go into the ditch while enroute to Heppner Friday evening. The accident was the result of the lights of the car going out. No injuries resulted.

Lyle Van Deusen of Top visited the Martin Bauernfeind family at Morgan Monday.

The North Central Oregon Schoolmaster's club met Monday evening in the grange hall and enjoyed a dinner served by the H. E. club of Willows grange. Twenty-six members were present, and the following program was presented: Flute solo, Alton Yarnell, accompanied by Miss June Yarnell; song by a quartet composed of Betty Lou Lindsay, Freda Ball, Charlotte Sperry and Barbara Ledbetter; professional report, William Burk; "Items Which Should be Included in an Educator's Code of Ethics," Ashton Foerft; "Frequent Unethical Practices of Teachers and Administrators," by Ted Burton, commentator, George Corwin. This was followed by the business session.

According to word received here, Harold Kincaid, an infantile paralysis sufferer, is now able to breathe without the respirator for one hour and forty minutes. He does not suffer much pain.

Mrs. J. H. Bryson, Mrs. Lana Padberg and Mrs. Terrel Benghe have returned from a visit in Portland.

The next meeting of the Topic club will be on next Saturday, Nov. 22, at the home of Mrs. C. W. Swanson. Other hostesses are Mesdames Frank Lundell and Harry Yarnell. This is the first evening meeting of the year.
