

IONE NEWS

Weed Poison Found Sheep Death Cause

By MRS. ELMER GRIFFITH
The poison which killed 46 head of Wilbur Akers' sheep last week has been found to be the chemical used on knapweed growing on the railroad right-of-way.

Mrs. R. L. Ekleberry of Morgan entered the Pendleton hospital Monday. She is suffering from an infection in her arm.

The Christian church is undergoing extensive repairs. The broken plaster is being removed, and plaster board put in its place.

Rev. J. Fred Stilwell left here immediately after church Sunday morning for Albany. He will return late in the week with Mrs. Stilwell.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Morgan, Carlton Swanson and Earl McCabe drove to Eugene for the Oregon-Oregon State game Saturday.

Dean Ekleberry and Rood Ekleberry had an encounter with a cow while returning from work at Hermiston Monday evening. No one was injured, but the Ekleberry pickup was considerably damaged.

And speaking of cows, Fred Ely of Morgan had to call on the neighbors for assistance Monday evening when a big Holstein cow fell into an abandoned well. The animal was removed by means of a chain hoist.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Heliker have rented an apartment in Hermiston, where Mr. Heliker is employed at the ordnance depot.

Krebs brothers of Cecil received their sheep from summer pasture in Montana last week.

The Women's Topic club will meet at the home of Mrs. Victor Rietmann on Friday of this week.

Hot lunches are being served to the school children now. This is supported partly by the fund from the school carnival, and partly by the district. Considerable food is supplied by the Surplus Commodity corporation.

Mothers of the football boys served a banquet to them and their invited guests at the Congregational church parlors Saturday evening, under sponsorship of the church. The dinner began with the main team and their guests seated at the big table, in the center of which was a cleverly decorated football field, while the subs were seated at a bare table, sans food.

As the meal progressed, players were sent to the "bench" by the coach and subs called and served full plates, until all were supplied with food. Those present were Bob Hoskins, Ernest McCabe, Melba Crawford, Delmar Crawford, Gladys Seehafer, Bill Eubanks, Maxine Allyn, Roland Bergstrom, Dorothy Bergstrom, George Griffith, Charlotte Sperry, Tom Huston, Barbara Ledbetter, Alice Nicholson, Wilma Dobyms, Jim Barnett, Bob Rietmann, Freda Ball, Betty Lou Lindsay, Gene Empey, Glenn Warfield, Pete Cannon and Junior Stefani, and Mr. and Mrs. Erret Hummel and Rev. J. Fred Stilwell, who acted as host.

Mrs. Frank Helina and small sons who have been guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Lindstrom, left Wednesday to visit her sister, Mrs. Warren Klutcher of Brightwood, before returning to her home in Dayton, Nevada. Her brother, Roy Lindstrom, drove her to Brightwood.

After the first of December, library days will be on Monday and Thursday, according to Mrs. C. F. Feldman, chairman of the library board.

A Parent-Teachers meeting was held at the school house on last Wednesday. Mrs. A. B. Clough of Arlington, vice president, was guest speaker. Mrs. Lucy Rodgers and Alden Blankenship of Heppner were also in attendance.

Mrs. Fred Mankin and Mrs. Frank Lundell were hostesses last Wednesday for a bridge party at the Masonic hall. Eight tables were in play, and prizes were won by Mrs. C. W. McNamer and Mrs. E. J. Blake.

Several pieces of Ione property were sold at sheriff's sale Saturday. Laxton McMurray bought the house occupied by E. G. Sperry, and known as the C. T. Walker house, and the former E. G. Frank's house. Walter Rietmann bought the W. T. McNabb house, and P. J. Linn bought the

LEXINGTON NEWS

Kistner Transferred To Warrington

By MARGARET SCOTT
Jim Kistner, former Lexington resident, has been transferred from the Heppner CCC camp to the camp at Warrington below Astoria.

Mr. and Mrs. George McCourt and family have moved to Stanfield.

Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Daugherty and Jerry returned this week end from a two weeks vacation in Seattle, The Dalles and vicinity. Their daughter Yvonne stayed at the Eslie Walker home.

The local Oddfellows will put on their degree work in Heppner Wednesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Marquardt and family spent last week in Portland at the home of Mr. Marquardt's sister.

Sarah White is spending the week at the home of her son Claude.

Remember the Ladies Aid all-day bazaar Wednesday, November 10, with a pot luck dinner at noon. The day will be spent in quilting.

Grant Henderson of Stanfield spent Monday here.

Mr. and Mrs. Lonnie Henderson and sons spent the week end in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Jackson and daughters spent the week end in Eugene.

Mrs. Vernon Scott entertained with a party Friday honoring her son Jerry's fifth birthday. Games were played during the afternoon and refreshments of whipped jello and cream with frosted angel cake were served. Guests present were Denny McMillan, Lola Padberg, Richard Peck, Shirley Hunt, Carla Whillock, Ida and David Buchanan, house next to his residence. William Spinning from Conrad, Montana, is visiting at the William Zinter home. He is enroute to Phoenix, Arizona.

Friends here have received announcement of the birth of a son, Robert Ellsworth, III, to Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Harbison of Coquille. They are former residents of this county.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Dunn of Modesto, Cal., visited here Wednesday with Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Harris. They had been in Boardman, visiting Mrs. Dunn's mother, Mrs. Jack Wagner.

Mrs. Alice Wiles returned Monday from The Dalles where she has been visiting her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Ned Carr. Mr. Carr brought her home.

Students and visitors at the school house were well entertained Thursday afternoon by a Mr. Whitaker, a returned missionary from China. He was accompanied by Dr. Frank E. Carlson of Portland, and Rev. Allen of Condon.

Billie Biddle was here Monday visiting his mother, Mrs. Vernon Brown. He has been attending an NYA school in Pendleton, and left on Wednesday for Seattle where he has secured a good position.

Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Linn have received word of the marriage of their son, Clarence, and Marjorie Studholm, on November 29. They will live in Portland.

The following officers were elected by the Rebekah lodge, but date of installation has not been set: Noble grand, Eva Swanson; vice-grand, Helen Pettyjohn; treasurer, Mary Swanson; secretary, Lena Lundell.

At a meeting of the H. E. club at the grange hall on Thursday election of officers was held. Chairman is Mrs. Clara Newlin; vice-chairman, Mildred Eubanks; secretary, Dot Halvorsen; treasurer, Stella O'Meara.

New officers elected by the grange are master, Jack Bailey; overseer, E. M. Baker; lecturer, Marjorie Gordon; chaplain, Clara Newlin; treasurer, Marjorie Baker; secretary, Mary Lundell; steward, George Gordon; gatekeeper, J. P. O'Meara; assistant steward, Marion Palmer; lady assistant steward, Dot Halvorsen; Pomona, Geneva Palmer; Ceres, Doris Palmateer; Flora, Eulenna Seehafer; executive committee, O. L. Lundell, E. C. Heliker and W. G. Palmateer.

Robert Hoskins of Ione won the gold basketball in the foul throwing contest in the jamboree here Tuesday night. Heppner was champion of the league and the basketball game was won by E. O. C. E. over Domestic Laundry of Pendleton.

PINE CITY NEWS

By BERNICE WATTENBURGER

Mrs. Gladys Cutsforth, Mrs. Thelma Smethurst and Mrs. Vasti Saling were hostesses Friday evening to a pinochle party at the Cutsforth home at Lexington. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Russell Moore and son, Mr. and Mrs. Abercrombie, Mr. and Mrs. Marion Finch, Mr. and Mrs. Jasper Myers, Mr. and Mrs. Burl Wattenburger, Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Ayers, Frank Saling, Alory Saling, Bill Smethurst and Orville Cutsforth. High score went to Lila Myers and Mr. Abercrombie, low to Bernice Wattenburger and Frank Saling.

Mr. and Mrs. Jasper Myers and family spent Friday afternoon in Pendleton shopping.

Burl Wattenburger and daughter Lucille left Monday for Long Creek.

Laura Scott and Melissa Stonebraker.

C. C. Carmichael is ill at his home. Eileen Scott of Wasco spent the week end at the Kenneth Marshall home.

Susie Padberg and son Archie, Bernice Bauman and Clarence Bauman spent from Wednesday till Saturday in Portland.

A group of friends surprised Edna Turner with a birthday party at her home in Heppner Saturday evening. The evening was spent in playing "500" after which coffee and cake were served.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Calloway and daughter Rae of Corvallis spent last week end at the Burton and George Peck homes.

George Peck is a business visitor in Portland.

and John Day on business, returning home Tuesday evening.

Week-end visitors at the Clayton Ayers home are Mrs. Mary Ritchie and daughter, Miss Hazel Ritchie, and Bill Wattenburger.

Callers in Pendleton Monday and Tuesday doing Christmas shopping were Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Wattenburger and Mr. and Mrs. Russell Moore.

Misses Helen and Rosetta Healy spent the week end with their parents on Butter creek. The girls attend high school in Heppner.

The Pine City Neighbors club is to have their last party to raise money for the Christmas treats to be Saturday night, December 13. Everyone is welcome.

The Lena grange is giving a dance Saturday evening, December 6. A cedar chest and linens to fill it will be given. Everyone come and bring your friends.

The Pine City Neighbor club will have its all day meeting December 18. Pot luck dinner at noon and each one to bring a gift not over 25 cents for the Christmas party in the afternoon.

Mrs. Elva Winters spent Thursday with her sister, Mrs. Van Ordell of Hermiston.

Mr. Winters helped shingle Ben Gerking's new home in Hermiston.

Mrs. Nora Neill reports $29 for Red Cross from Pine City, almost 100 per cent.

AUXILIARY TO MEET

The American Legion auxiliary will meet at the home of Mrs. L. E. Dick with Mrs. W. C. McCarty assisting on Tuesday afternoon, Dec. 9. All members are urged to come and bring gifts for child welfare and the gift shop at the veteran's hospital. Patients of the hospital are happy to select gifts for their families from the gift shop. Suitable articles are costume jewelry, cosmetics of all kinds, soap, handkerchiefs, socks and stockings, sweaters, and many little things. Also at this meeting will be a surprise package brought by the president, Mrs. Earl Evans. Come and see it.

Hot oil manicure now at Myrtle's Beauty Salon. No extra charge for this swell manicure.

FOR HER... FOR CHRISTMAS!
Hamilton - the watch she has always wanted.
DORIS $49.50 Including Federal Tax
Hamilton THE PREFERRED GIFT WATCH
PETERSON'S Heppner, Oregon

HERE'S YOUR CHOICE READING AT NEW LOW PRICES
THIS NEWSPAPER, 1 Yr., And Any Magazine Listed
BOTH FOR PRICE SHOWN ALL MAGAZINES ARE FOR ONE YEAR
Through special arrangements with the magazine publishers we offer America's finest farm and fiction magazines—in combination with our newspaper — at prices that simply cannot be duplicated elsewhere! Look over this long list of favorites and make YOUR selection today!
THIS NEWSPAPER, 1 YEAR, AND FIVE FAMOUS MAGAZINES For both newspaper $3.25 and magazines . . .
GROUP A - SELECT 2 MAGAZINES
GROUP B - SELECT 2 MAGAZINES
GROUP C - SELECT 1 MAGAZINE
COUPON - FILL OUT MAIL TODAY
Check magazines desired and enclose with coupon.
Gentlemen: I enclose $..... I am enclosing the offer desired with a year's subscription to your paper.
NAME
STREET OR R.F.D.
POSTOFFICE
OFFERS FULLY GUARANTEED