

SOCIETY CHIT-CHAT

By JUNE SMITH

This is the week when all the school children in the lower grades are bringing home red hearts with lace trimming and most of the social events feature a Valentine motif.

Mrs. L. E. Dick was hostess at a charming luncheon for the T & C club at her home last Thursday afternoon. The luncheon table was appropriately decorated to bring out the Valentine theme. Two tables of contract bridge were in play following and Mrs. Mark Merrill won high score, with Mrs. B. C. Pinckney winning second.

The Sunday school of the Methodist church will have a Valentine tea Saturday for the mothers of the members.

Mrs. Floyd Adams was hostess to three tables of bridge at her home Tuesday when she entertained her bridge club with a dessert lunch. The refreshments featured the Valentine motif. Guests were Mrs. Hugh Gaily of Pendleton, Mrs. P. W. Mahoney, Mrs. Dave Wilson and Mrs. Harold Cohn, as well as the club members, Mrs. J. V. Crawford, Mrs. Orville Smith, Mrs. L. D. Tibbles, Mrs. J. G. Thomson, Jr., Mrs. J. G. Barratt, Mrs. Raymond Ferguson and Mrs. Stephen Thompson. High score for the afternoon went to Mrs. Thompson, with Mrs. Gaily winning second and Mrs. Wilson third.

The Eastern Star Social club met at the Masonic hall last Saturday afternoon, with Mrs. Fred Lucas and Mrs. C. W. McNamer hostesses. The affair was a dessert bridge, with Mrs. David Wilson winning high score at bridge play, Mrs. W. H. Cleveland receiving consolation and Mrs. J. G. Thomson, Jr., winning the door prize. Four tables were in play.

WARNING!

We have been advised by our watch material supply houses that watch jewels have now been put on priorities and after the present stock is exhausted there will be none available for civilian use.

We are pleased to announce we have on hand sufficient amount of all watch material to take care of ordinary needs for about two years but we urge every one to take extra care of their watches to conserve the supply.

We are fully equipped to take care of the general run of watch repairs such as cleaning, etc. which will not be affected and we will be glad to take care of this as usual.

The Woolgrowers auxiliary met last Friday afternoon at the Lucas Place for luncheon and business. More than thirty were present for the meeting conducted by Mrs. B. C. Pinckney, president. The Music club presented the program, which was very fine. Miss Rose Leibbrand introduced the numbers with a short history of each composer. Numbers included a piano solo by Mrs. J. O. Turner, featuring the work of DeBussey, the Florian Song, by Goddard, sung by Miss Rose Hoosier, accompanied by Mrs. Turner; a violin solo by Mrs. Tom Wilson, "Spring Song," by Mendelssohn, in which she was accompanied by Mrs. Alden Blankenship. Mrs. Ture Peterson, accompanied by Mrs. Blankenship, sang "He Shall Feed His Flock," by Handell, and "Shepherd's Lament," by Schubert. All the music was based on the pastoral theme, which seemed most suitable for a program for this organization.

Mrs. Bruce Stewart gave a talk on nutrition.

It was voted that the auxiliary give $10 worth of new books to the library, and that the organization purchase defense bonds in whatever amount be determined by the budget and executive committees. store. The organization assisted with the baby clinic held Friday at the Parish House. A birthday dinner will be given March 15. A national defense window will be on display the last week of this month at Humphreys Drug store. The next meeting of the organization will be the 24th and will be a Red Cross sewing meeting at the Masonic hall.
