WARNING!
We have been advised by our watch material supply houses that watch jewels have now been put on priorities and after the present stock is exhausted there will be none available for civilian use.
We are pleased to announce we have on hand sufficient amount of all watch material to take care of ordinary needs for about two years but we urge every one to take extra care of their watches to conserve the supply.
We are fully equipped to take care of the general run of watch repairs such as cleaning, etc. which will not be affected and we will be glad to take care of this as usual.

SOCIETY CHIT-CHAT
By JUNE SMITH

Tomorrow, February 20, will be the World Day of Prayer, at which time all over the world the same program of prayer will be followed. It seems especially fitting this year that everywhere possible people will be asking for guidance and help through prayer. The local day of prayer will be held at the Parish House beginning at 2 o'clock and everyone who can and wishes to attend is most welcome to do so. The meeting is in charge of the Union Missionary society of all the city churches, of which Mrs. Lee Howell is president. Mrs. F. S. Parker is program chairman, and most of the churches will take a part. The World Day of Prayer is an annual occasion on the first Friday in Lent.

The pancake luncheon held Tuesday at the Parish House was attended by a large crowd, including the Heppner chamber of commerce directors, who reserved a table for their meeting.
Following the luncheon seven tables of bridge were played during the afternoon, with Mrs. L. E. Dick winning high score. Refreshments of cake and coffee were served at the close of play.

Mrs. Raymond Ferguson entertained the Whats' Trumps club at her home Tuesday evening. Mrs. David Wilson won high score and Mrs. P. W. Mahoney received consolation.

Mrs. Harry O'Donnell is recovering rapidly from her recent operation at the St. Anthony's hospital in Pendleton, and is expecting to return to her home Friday. Mrs. R. C. Law who was her special nurse, returned home last Friday.

Mrs. Fred Mankin and son Buddy returned to their home Monday after a week's stay at the Harvey Miller home, where Buddy was confined to bed because of illness.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Key of Weston were visitors at the Clarence Rosewall home last Thursday. Mr. Key is Mrs. Rosewall's brother.

Paul Doherty of the U. S. Marines is visiting in Heppner on a two week's furlough. He is with his mother, Mrs. Katherine Doherty.

Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Thompson drove to Pendleton Tuesday.

Mrs. J. V. Crawford and son Jim have been in Portland for a week to be with Mrs. Crawford's mother, Mrs. Truman Babb. While there Mrs. Crawford has been ill with the mumps, but is expected to return home the last of the week.

Mrs. Anna Bayless and Mrs. Frank Wilkinson drove to Pendleton Wednesday and while there will have luncheon with Miss Catherine Peterson.

E. Harvey Miller went to Portland last Thursday to attend the Abraham Lincoln dinner of the Republican party. He returned Saturday.

Mrs. J. G. Barratt entertained the Wednesday club at her home with a dessert luncheon yesterday. High score was won by Mrs. Orville Smith and second by Mrs. B. C. Pinckney.

A baby boy weighing 8 pounds and named Curtis Richard was born to Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Thomson at the Heppner hospital February 18.

Baird Patterson of Longview, Wn., is visiting at the home of his grandmother, Mrs. C. C. Patterson.

Mrs. Dwight Miller has returned to her home from Ft. Lewis, Wn., where she had been visiting Dr. Miller's brother and family.

Hubert Hudson, who was recently operated on for appendicitis is reported very ill at the Pendleton hospital.

Milton Morgan arrived Sunday from Los Angeles, accompanied by Mrs. Agnes Walsh of that city, and visited until today with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Will Morgan. Miss Jean Walsh, who has been a guest

Locals Beat Arlington, Bow to Umapine

The fast-moving Heppner Mustangs added another victory to their many Friday on the home floor by downing the Arlington Honkers, 32-27. This victory put Heppner on top in the Wheat league.

The first half was fairly close and both teams fought hard, but Heppner succeeded in pulling ahead to make the half-time score 14-12. At the beginning of the second half both teams came out on the floor in high spirits. The Mustangs kept up a steady pace and won.

Barratt and Skuzeski led the team in points, with ten and nine, respectively. McClaskey and Clough led the Arlington team with nine and six points.
