

Income Tax

With next Monday the final date for filing individual income tax relast minute appeal is made by Henry Morg treasury.
"This year more than six million American citizens are filing their first income tax returns, and a simfirst income tax returns, and a similar number will actually make their initial contributions to government ation," Morgenthau says.
"Reports reaching the treasury department from all collection districts indicate that our people have cheerfully assumed the additional tax burden which is one of the intax burden which is one of the inevitable consequences of total war. evitable consequences of total war.
"While these reports offer testimony to the fact that a new spirit pervades the nation's taxpayers, it is still imperative that the publt. be reminded, again and again, of the need for prom tax liabilities."

W. H. French Home After Trip South

W. H. French, pioneer Blue Mountain farm operator, arrived tain farm operator, arrived home the end of the week from an extensive trip, highlights of which he relates as follows: My first stop after leaving Portland was Los Angeles, a wonderful land was Los Angeles, a wonderful city but I didn't like it much.
Second stop, Yuma, Arizona, 142 feet elevation. A fine city, warm and dry. The country around here and dry. The country around here is irrigated from the Colorado river and they can raise nearly everything-lots of different kinds of fruit, the largest grapefruit I ever saw; 18 carloads of lettuce were shipped from Yuma the last day I was there. The Third stop, Agua Caliente, hot springs and health resort. I spent 8 days there, taking the baths and getting cured of rheumatism. The getting cured of rheumatism. The water is 106 degrees and runs underground one foot. If you dig down Raise honey here from the mesquite trees and also do some mining. Fourth stop, Phoenix, where I spent ten days; elevation 1.090 feet, located on the Salt river. Four large airports here, planes in the air night and day. This is the center of the and day. This is the center of the fertile Salt river valley, and they fertile Salt river valley, and they raise everything, including graperaise everything, including grapefruit, oranges, lemons, olives, and walnuts. The best oranges I ever ate were navel oranges that I picked off the trees near Phoenix. Lots of off the trees near Phoenix. Lots of beautiful roses in bloom and many other flowers that I didn't know the names of, Fith stop, Mineral Wells, Texas, home of the Crazy Crystals. I stayed home of the Crazy Crystals. I stayed here a week. This has been a famous health resort for more than 50 years. The mineral water from the years. The mineral water from the wells, which gave the city its name, is curative and thousands of people come here annually to drink the water and take the baths. I visited one of the world's largest plants for of the world's largest plants for bottling mineral water, which is located here. Fairly good stock coun-elevation 602 feet. Did not levation 602 feet. Did not stay here Weatherford. This is the third largest city in Texas, the greatest manufacturing city, in the southwest, and has one of the largest livestock markets. Mules are in good demand here, selling as high as $$ 350$ a span.

Lots of grain raised around here. Lots of grain raised around here.
This is as far east as I went, turning back from here for home. Eighth stope Odessane. Texas, elevation 2,890 feet. This is the important oil producing region, oil wells as far as the eye can see in every direction. It comprises ${ }^{23,-}$

Tenth stop. Salton sea in lower California. In this region are the highest and lowest levels in the U. S. reached by the Southern Pacific railroad. The salt from the sea is sent to Los Angeles to be refined. Eleventh stop, Indigo, Cal., 20 feet. below seal level-a mall town but below sea level-a small town but center of large date groves. Saw lots of ripe tomatoes on the vine here and many kinds of towers in blo and many kinds of tlowers in bloom.
Could see the snow on the mountains so plain from here that it did not $\underset{\substack{\text { seem } \\ \text { ing } \\ \text { Twe }}}{\substack{\text { m }}}$

Twelfth stop, Sacramento, capital California, 30 feet elevation. A of California, 30 feet elevation. A valley, the center of the fertile agricultural district. Large asparagus beds near here. They are now building a dam on the Sacramento oriver that will back the water 40 miles. It will be used for irrigating the valley and for electric power. The dam is called the Shasta.
The 13th stop
The 13th stop, Portland, and I felt I was getting near home. Here I was greeted by that good old Oregon greeted by that good old Oregon mist that keeps everything green mist that keeps everything green without irrigation. For water, timber and livestock I think the state of Oregon would be hard to beat. NOTICE
