A-Cappella Choir To Appear Here
The 60-voice a-cappella choir from the Eastern Oregon College of Education at La Grande will give a concert in Heppner under the sponsorship of the Heppner Music Study club, Wednesday, April 29, it was decided at a meeting of the club Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Frank Turner.
Plans were completed for a Red Cross benefit concert to be given by members of the Music club at the Parish House during Music week in May. Mrs. Ture Peterson and Mrs. A. H. Blankenship are co-chairmen of the event. A tentative program of vocal solos and ensembles, piano solos and duets, violin solos and folk dances was arranged.
Gwenneth Glasgow was welcomed as a new member of the club.
The musical program included a study of the opera "Die Walkure" by Wagner by Rose Leibbrand and a piano duet by Mrs. Jesse Turner and Mrs. Blankenship.
Miss Margaret Wright and Miss Dorothy Davolt were assistant hostesses.

Mrs. Rodgers Named On NEA Committee
Washington, D. C., April 8.—Mrs. Lucy E. Rodgers, superintendent of Morrow county schools, Heppner, has been appointed to a committee of the National Education association, it was announced by Myrtle Hooper Dahl, president of the professional organization representing more than 790,000 teachers in the association and its affiliated groups.
Mrs. Rodgers will serve on the tax education and school finance committee. This committee is working for study of tax problems in all schools. It will serve as a clearing house for bulletins and leaflets on taxation, and will assist state associations in their problems of schools financing.

SOCIETY CHIT-CHAT
By JUNE SMITH

In spite of the fact that traveling has been greatly curtailed this year, a number of visitors were in Heppner for Easter. Among them were some of the younger set home from their colleges, including Miss Kathryn Thompson and Miss Frances Wilkinson, from Oregon State, who drove up with Kenneth Jackson of Lexington, and who is attending the University of Oregon. Jackson Gilliam spent the holiday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Gilliam, and was accompanied by Miss Kay Hindley who was their guest for the week end. They are both students at Whitman college. Mrs. Hugh Gaily came over with Mr. and Mrs. George Hyatt of Pendleton, and spent the Easter Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Hiatt. Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Mahoney were hosts to Mr. and Mrs. Hyatt, and when Mr. Hyatt returned to Pendleton Sunday evening, Mrs. Hyatt remained here to be with her daughter, Mrs. Mahoney, who is ill with a severe cold.

Mrs. Lucy Rodgers' son and family, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Buchanan and infant daughter, Josephine, of Seattle, spent the week end here.

Miss Catherine Peterson, Rev. Eric O. Robathan and Bishop William P. Remington, all of Pendleton, who were here for the Episcopal Easter services, were guests at a no-host dinner Easter afternoon at the Lucas Place. There were 26 present.

Mr. and Mrs. Blaine Isom and small daughter spent Easter Sunday with Mrs. Isom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Struve in Pendleton.

D. W. Glasgow journeyed to Spokane for the week end, where he visited Mrs. Glasgow who is in the hospital there.

Mr. and Mrs. Gene Stewart of Salem were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Stewart. The men are brothers, and Gene is awaiting his call to enter the Army Air corps.

About 26 youngsters had a happy time at the Episcopal parish house Saturday afternoon when the annual Sunday school Easter egg hunt and party was held. The egg hunt was followed by games, after which the children enjoyed ice cream and cookies. Mrs. Harold Buhman was in charge of the party, and was assisted by Mrs. Stephen Thompson, Mrs. Claude Graham and Mrs. Norbert Peavy.

Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Crawford and son Jim spent the week end in Portland, where they were guests of Mrs. Crawford's mother, Mrs. Truman Babb.

Mrs. Ray Massey entertained ten friends of her little son, Lowell Lee Turner, at an Easter party at her home last Monday afternoon. She was assisted by Mrs. Norbert Peavy, and the children enjoyed an Easter egg hunt, pony ride, games, refreshments and original favors.

Friends who live in the neighborhood of Tery and Judy Thompson joined them Sunday morning in an Easter egg hunt.

Little Jean Marie Graham, who is still confined to her bed, had a few friends in for her birthday yesterday.

The Easter cantata given by thirty voices and directed by Miss Rose Hoosier, which was presented at the Methodist church last Sunday evening was attended by an audience which overflowed the church.

The Episcopal auxiliary met this afternoon at the Parish House for its regular monthly business meeting. Refreshments were served at the close of the meeting, with Mrs. Fred Lucas and Mrs. Dick Wells as hostesses.

The Lexington Grange club came up to Heppner this afternoon to sew in the Red Cross sewing room. The club is headed by Mrs. Joe Devine, president.

Mrs. Harlan McCurdy left Saturday morning from Pendleton by plane for Stockton, Cal., where her brother and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Davidson, live. From there she expected to visit her son Harlan, Jr., who is stationed at Camp Roberts. Mrs. McCurdy will also visit her daughter, Mrs. Len Gilman, at Coronado Beach.

Mr. and Mrs. George Howard and children moved to their new home in the Anna Q. Thomson residence last week.

The American Legion auxiliary will meet at the home of Mrs. Anna Bayless next Monday evening. The hostess will be Mrs. Dick Wells. This is an important meeting and all members are urged to attend.

Carmen Wise, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Wise, has been confined to bed for the past three weeks with an illness which has not yet been diagnosed.

The Morrow County Woolgrowers auxiliary met last Friday afternoon at the Lucas Place for luncheon and business meeting. There will be no May meeting, because of a conflict in dates with the annual school music festival.

High score at the Wednesday club held yesterday at Mrs. Orville Smith's home was won by Mrs. L. D. Tibbles and second by Mrs. Raymond Ferguson. The affair was a dessert bridge.

Mrs. H. Blahm of Walla Walla arrived Monday at the home of Mr.

and Mrs. John Wightman, where she will visit for several weeks.

Mrs. Mark Merrill entertained the Kensington club at her home yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. John E. DeMoss, Jr., of Portland returned to Heppner March 24, Mrs. DeMoss to stay with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Gemmell, while Mr. DeMoss is serving a two-year enlistment in the naval construction division. He is now stationed at Norfolk, Va. Mrs. DeMoss may join him later. Mr. DeMoss was formerly employed at the Oregon Shipbuilding corporation in Portland.
