

Grain Growers Work for Steel for Elevators

Morrow County Grain Growers are doing everything possible to obtain needed structural steel for the construction of new elevators at Heppner, Ione and Lexington, sorely needed to handle the new crop, says D. W. Glasgow, manager, who further states that obtaining the steel is the last hitch before starting construction.

Glasgow and Geo. N. Peck, president will be in Portland tomorrow evening to meet with representatives of the agricultural department wheat production board and other agencies, on advice from Senator Chas. L. McNary, hoping that something can be worked out.

Previous advice from Congressman Walter M. Pierce that WPA in Washington said the growers' A-3 priority rating should be sufficient to get steel from manufacturers was followed up through Louis Delivuk & Co., engineers and contractors in Spokane, who so far had been unsuccessful in obtaining any steel from manufacturers. They had been working constantly since Feb. 25.

Both Glasgow and Peck said they were leaving no stone unturned to bring about the needed storage facilities.

FARMS YIELD 10,000 TONS SCRAP

Ten thousand tons of scrap iron—over 200 carloads—have been collected from Oregon farms since the start of campaigns by county USDA war boards, R. B. Taylor, chairman of the state board, reported this week. Jackson, with 1200 tons collected, is high county in the campaign so far. "These 200 carloads of scrap can be used to make 3400 anti-aircraft guns to protect our fighting men from Jap planes," Taylor said.

CONFIRM OR DENY

Don Ameche, Joan Bennett, Roddy McDowall, John Loder, Raymond Walburn, Eric Blore

An excellent cast including Roddy McDowall, the small boy who was so outstanding in "How Green Was My Valley" . . . a story torn from the diary of a war correspondent—tin-hatted, tough, he stalks the headlines of history's mightiest drama.

LOCAL ITEMS . . .

Mrs. Arthur Campbell of Terre Haute, Ind., is a guest at the home of her parents-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Campbell, expecting to go on to Portland tomorrow to attend a golden wedding celebration for her parents. She will be accompanied by her mother on the return east. She said her husband, native Morrow county boy and graduate of Heppner high school, is employed as chemist with a rubber company in Terre Haute. They have two daughters.

Mr. and Mrs. John Nelson and daughter, Mrs. Robert Frederic of San Jose, Calif., are visiting at the homes of Mr. and Mrs. John Troedson and Carl Troedson of Ione. Mr. Nelson is a brother of Mrs. John Troedson. This is the Nelson's first visit to eastern Oregon and they are very much impressed with its scenery and climate, especially that of the Blue mountains where a family picnic was held one day last week at the Harry French ranch.

Paul McCarty visited last week end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. McCarty, coming up from his studies at U. of O. He was accompanied by a brother Sigma Nu, Dale Quinn of Harrisburg. Paul expected to receive his regular army commission the 23rd of next month, just before his graduation. He has been prominent in campus ROTC circles.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Barton of Coquille visited with relatives here for several days this week, being guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Groshens. Mr. Barton is an attorney while Mrs. Barton, the former Mae Groshens, runs a dress shop in the Coos city.

W. H. French was in town the first of the week. He made a trip to Stanfield Tuesday and purchased 12 cows and 12 calves, all good Hereford stock, some subject to registration. Mr. French is somewhat improved from a recent illness, but still not feeling too "pert."

Mrs. Orville Smith received word Monday that her mother, Mrs. J. F. Pfeiffer of Seattle had undergone an emergency operation for appendicitis the evening before. On latest reports her condition was reported as favorable.

Mrs. Edward Glaesmer, formerly Mrs. Julia Clark, is visiting relatives and friends here from her home at Red Bluffs, Cal. Mrs. Clark's marriage to Mr. Glaesmer was a recent event.

Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Anderson of Seattle were visitors last week end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. McCarty. Mr. Anderson, former local abstractor is with the Bonneville administration trust department.

Faye Hodges was a business visitor in the city for a couple of days the end of the week from his home at Pendleton. Mr. Hodges holds the presidency of Happy Canyon in the Round-Up city.

Mrs. O. Hilding Bengston and little daughter of Medford arrived Friday for a two weeks' visit at the home of Mrs. Bengston's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Benge.

Mrs. Clifford Conrad and children are visiting for a few days at the home of Mrs. Conrad's parents near Stanfield.

Parasites Serious on Moist Sheep Pastures

Recent experiments with attempts to fatten lambs in western Oregon on irrigated pastures have not proved very promising, according to a report made by Doctors J. N. Shaw and O. H. Muth of the department of veterinary medicine at Oregon State college, in a new bulletin entitled "Studies of Parasites in Oregon Sheep on Irrigated Pastures."

Because of the success that California sheepmen have had in fattening range lambs on irrigated ladino clover pastures, sheepmen in Oregon have sought information on similar practices here. Veterinarians realized from the start that the limiting factor would be parasites, which thrive best under irrigated conditions.

ALL EXAMINATIONS FREE

At Dr. Rockwell's office from 1 p. m. to 8 p. m. daily

After checking your case if I find that I cannot handle it I will be glad to tell you so, and if possible help you locate the proper treatment.

For the reason that so many complications develop in handling confinement cases, I will have to refuse to accept any more of these cases unless proper arrangements have been made with me ninety days before date due. In case these arrangements have been made with one of the other doctors of Heppner and proper tests completed, and your doctor is unable to care for your case I will be glad to handle the case.

Emergency cases will be taken care of at any hour, other cases between 1 p. m. and 8 p. m.

So come in and if you are short of cash we may be able to find some way of handling your case. My fees are always less for cash.

Yours for health,

● Now — more than ever before — those railroad warning signs should be rigidly observed, night and day. A fleet of powerful Union Pacific locomotives are hauling precious cargoes over the Strategic Middle Route, connecting the East with the West.

Rolling over the rails are shipments of materials for armament plants, trainloads of troops and supplies. They must go through without delay. America's welfare — and your welfare — are at stake. Please, then, be extremely careful when approaching railroad crossings. In that way — you, too, can help.

For information concerning passenger and freight transportation, consult C. L. Darbee, phone 132, Heppner.
